What determines the subjects? "The only impulse," he often says, "is that I want to paint what I am interested in."

"The last few years I've caught up with what I noticed that in the past I was using my brush rather delicately. I was amused by it, but it was like people shouting because somehow it won't get through. If you can use almost any brush, the urgency is not there."

The urgency may explain the famous slow gestures (in most cases it takes weeks to finish a work). Both, how-
