This reference work looks at modern concepts of computer security. It introduces the basic mathematical background necessary to follow computer security concepts before moving on to modern developments in cryptography. The concepts are presented clearly and illustrated by numerous examples. Subjects covered include private key and public key encryption, hashing, digital signatures, authentication, secret sharing, group-oriented cryptography, and many others. The section on intrusion detection and access control provides examples of security systems implemented as a part of an operating system. Database and network security is also discussed. The final chapters introduce modern e-business systems based on digital cash.

Dark Angel Geoffrey Archer, 2015-01-26 _____ The repercussions of a brutal murder echo across the years in this gripping novel from legendary thriller writer Geoffrey Archer. Tom Sedley's idyllic summer vacation in a leafy post-war suburb of north London came to an abrupt and shocking end on the 14th September 1948 when his sister was brutally murdered in woodland near his house. A tramp was arrested for the crime but Tom's childhood ended that day and his lifelong search for the truth began. Marcus Warwick was Tom's neighbour and best friend but the murder changed their relationship forever. Both were sent to the Korean War two years later, Marcus as an officer and Tom as a humble radio man. When they met in the chaos of war, both knew a gulf of distrust and class had opened between them and Tom had never shaken the suspicion that Marcus had had something to do with the murder. Only years later when Tom stumbles across his sister's secret diary do the events of 1948 begin to make sense and allow him to seek final justice for her murder. Applied Cryptology, Cryptographic Protocols, and Computer Security Models Richard A. Java Spider Geoffrey Archer, 2012-08-17 A British minister is a pawn in a deadly game played out in one of the world's most explosive countries, Indonesia. His kidnapping does not fall under British jurisdiction and the authorities in Jakarta claim that he has been seized by a guerrilla movement. But their investigation makes no progress as horrific satellite pictures of him are released on national television. The government sends one man to rescue him. Nick Randall has served in the Far East before. He knows that nothing is as it seems in the land of masks. Greater forces are in play than even he suspects. Together with a lone woman TV reporter, he penetrates a remote island where a powder keg of armed local rebellion is threatening to explode under the repressive regime.
