Those Who Sit in Darkness Donald J. Richardson,2012-10-30 As a boy growing up in Iowa Missouri Nebraska and Kansas I had no objective conception of evil We were practicing Roman Catholics in our family so our consideration of evil was focused on self urges which could lead to sinurges which themselves constituted sin Evil was what lay in the barely hidden recesses of our personalities There was no objective correlative of evilthe church taught we were evil embodied Thus we never regarded others as evil or even bad What would have happened had we ever encountered anyone who was truly evil Surely out there were people who couldnt be justified or whose behavior couldnt be rationalized away What would happen when we met Literacy Assessment and Instructional Strategies Kathy B. Creating Reading Rainbow Barbara Irwin,Tony Buttino,Pam Johnson,2024-06-18 Reading Rainbow is one of the most successful PBS children s series in television history earning numerous national and international awards including 26 Emmys and a Peabody Award But perhaps more important than anything else Reading Rainbow helped generations of children cultivate a love for books Reading Rainbow is very much a story of humble beginnings and enormous perseverance Over five summers Tony Buttino Sr and his colleagues at WNED TV the public television station in Buffalo New York worked in collaboration with educators and librarians to experiment with summer reading programs But after trialing these programs the WNED team realized there was a big need for a new children s literacy series and believed they could create a new show with local and national collaborators and friends After fits and starts and enough twists and turns to fill a children s book Reading Rainbow premiered in the summer of 1983 and captured the attention of 6 5 million young viewers Creating Reading Rainbow explores the many intriguing and homespun stories that when woven together reveal how this groundbreaking and iconic television series came to be What led to the series being called Reading Rainbow How did the road to Reading Rainbow wind its way through Mister Rogers Neighborhood How did a public television station in Buffalo spearhead a movement in education and spark the passion for reading in millions of children And what does lasagna have to do with it

Mitsumasa Award-winning books for children and young adults Betty L. Criscoe,1990 Savannah Tempest Edgar W. Butler,2005 Savannah Tempest is a new novel from the second era of two Savannahs one free and one oppressed twisted together from slavery and hammered out through the lives of Jewish fertilizer merchants Ludlow Cohen and Gilbert Wilkins Compelled to serve as confederate undercover agents with secessionist and Klu Klux Klan member Mike Paine their lives take a different turn during the turbulent aftermath of the Civil War and the unyielding demand of the Klu Klux Klan organizers to re enslave Aaron Alpeoria Bradley and Negro freedmen Without the influence of Eliza Andrews and Amora Conte Sociologist Historian and novelist Dr Edgar W Butler s gripping story would be as incomplete as Gone With the Wind without Scarlett O Hara Set in 19th century Georgia this story unfolds among some of the south s historic events While General W T Sherman was presenting Savannah to President Lincoln as a Christmas gift Ludlow Cohen was unknowingly experiencing some relation ships that would impact the rest of his life and Savannah The author weaves an arsenal of emotions fear hate love rage and forbidden sex that inflamed the smoldering frustrations of life in post Civil War Savannah The book culminates in a duel between Ludlow and Mike Paine a leader of the Klu Klux Klan This illustrated book had benefit of the wonderful work of many graphic artists of the era who helped visualize the panorama Diaries newspapers censuses academic books and articles were utilized in recording authentic words and sentiments of persons from all of these sources

The Jewish East Side: 1881-1924 Milton Hindus,2018-04-24 This book originally published as The Old East Side is a collection of literature and documents ranging from the autobiography of the sculptor Jacob Epstein and the novels of Abraham Cahan to the reporting of William Dean Howells and the fictional reconstruction of a vanished world by Henry Roth The world is that of the old shtetl transplanted to a new growing country where the ghetto in the years 1881 1924 was an unstable mixture of nostalgic elements and the pressures of American economic and social reality The productivity both intellectual and material of the section of New York known as the East Side during those forty years around the turn of the twentieth century has become a legend among many Jews in this country and deserves to become better known to many more of other ethnic origins The lower East Side was paradoxically a wilderness to be traversed and a portion of that promised land which had been glimpsed with so much hope from afar To wonderfully talented and observant children like Jacob Epstein the streets there in the 1880s were as filled with excitement as those of the Arabian Nights To serious philosophic young men like Morris Raphael Cohen they were as challenging as the marketplace of Athens had once been to Socrates to achieve intellectual enlightenment and the improvement of the social order The conditions of abominable crowding and poverty described in the sociological tracts of Jacob Riis Lillian Wald and others are better known perhaps to the average reader than the accounts of such pleasures as the dancing schools the Yiddish theaters the cafes the lectures the literary ferment and activities described in the pages of Abraham Cahan and Hutchins Hapgood But all the views presented in The Jewish East Side both dark and bright are recognizably parts of the same picture This book will be of value to sociologists historians researchers specializing in Judaic studies and students of literature
