Josep Rius-Camps, Jenny Read-Heimerdinger, 2009-08-15 This final volume in the four volume commentary The Message of Acts in Codex Bezae continues the comparison of the message of Acts transmitted by Codex Bezae with that of the more familiar Alexandrian text represented by Codex Vaticanus For each section of Acts there is a side by side translation of the Bezan and Alexandrian manuscripts followed by a critical apparatus and finally a commentary that explores the variations in the message of the two texts Working from this strong methodological foundation Jenny Read Heimerdinger and Josep Rius Camps conclude that the Bezan text is the earlier of the two In the process they provide an illuminating and comprehensive guide to the Acts of the Apostles Book Jacket The Secret of the Magic String Rüdiger Poll, 2025-09-19 Luca just wanted to apologize While skating he had bumped into a wheelchair user Theodor Langhans the director of the city museum who suffers from osteogenesis imperfecta But it doesn t stop at one visit Theodor opens up a magical world for Luca At each meeting he has a story ready that takes them back to distant times and strings together colorful personalities as if on a string What is Luca supposed to do with this He has enough problems of his own at school at home and at his sports club Theo gently picks up on Luca s worries and reflects them back to him through past events Until Luca takes matters into his own hands But the secret of the magic string is only revealed at the end The Magic Path Julius Goodman, 1985 The reader faces knights in this adventure White Magic Lothar Müller, 2015-02-02 Paper is older than the printing press and even in its unprinted state it was the great network medium behind the emergence of modern civilization In the shape of bills banknotes and accounting books it was indispensable to the economy As forms and files it was essential to bureaucracy As letters it became the setting for the invention of the modern soul and as newsprint it became a stage for politics In this brilliant new book Lothar M ller describes how paper made its way from China through the Arab world to Europe where it permeated everyday life in a variety of formats from the thirteenth century onwards and how the paper technology revolution of the nineteenth century paved the way for the creation of the modern daily press His key witnesses are the works of Rabelais and Grimmelshausen Balzac and Herman Melville James Joyce and Paul Valéry Mller writes not only about books however he also writes about pamphlets playing cards papercutting and legal pads We think we understand the Gutenberg era but we can understand it better when we explore the world that underpinned it the paper age Today with the proliferation of digital devices paper may seem to be a residue of the past but Mller shows that the humble technology of paper is in many ways the most fundamental medium of the modern world
