A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas, 2018-06-21 Whether used for thematic story times program and curriculum planning readers advisory or collection development this updated edition of the well known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children's picture books for all aspects of children's services and this new edition does not disappoint Covering more than 18 000 books published through 2017 it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic and subject headings arranged alphabetically this reference applies more than 1 200 intuitive as opposed to formal catalog subject terms to children's picture books making it both a comprehensive and user friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections to find books on particular topics for young readers to help teachers locate titles to support lessons or to design thematic programs and story times Title and illustrator indexes in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name further extend access to titles Something about the Author Hile,1996 Provides biographical information on over 100 authors of books for young readers Learning in Living Color Alora J. Valdez,1999 Providing a wealth of practical suggestions this book helps teachers use children s trade literature to incorporate multicultural education into a primary grades curriculum The book s first section uses research and theory to address the underlying assumptions of both multicultural and literacy education and offers practical suggestions for implementing effective programs The second section provides integrated language arts activities The third and final section offers an up to date annotated bibliography of quality children s literature which helps students recognize and avoid cultural stereotyping understand the perspectives of others cultures as well as their own and begin their involvement in important social issues such as helping the elderly and protecting the environment For any teacher or educator Literature and the Child Bernice E. Cullinan, Lee Galda,1998 With a slender design and appealing art Cullinan and Galda present a thought provoking discussion on how children can read to respond read to learn and read to enjoy This text provides evaluation criteria for selecting superior children s books rather than listing thousands of titles and synopses Booklists direct readers to quality literature and extended discussions of selected titles demonstrate the selection criteria Multicultural literature is discussed throughout the text with a separate chapter on more specific multicultural issues Numerous teaching ideas many of which are contributed by classroom teachers provide practical applications This is a book for teachers stressing the use of good books in a literature based curriculum Early Literacy Instruction John A. Smith, Sylvia Read,2005 This introductory K 3 literacy instruction text details authentic classroom practice by authors who have recently taught in primary and elementary classrooms Organized around a comprehensive reading and writing instructional framework the text balances the authors rich classroom experiences with a theoretical perspective The authors also share a wealth of practical teaching strategies authentic student artifacts and real teaching examples The chapter opening vignettes demonstrate real world classroom encounters the phonics and assessment chapters provide especially useful classroom guidance and the effective strategies offered to help English Language Learners and Struggling Readers in Chapter 11 and in text features throughout the book make this new text a valuable choice for teacher education Flannelboard Classic Tales Doris Lynn Hicks,1997 Contains stories and step by step instructions and patterns for creating a flannelboard for storytelling Multicultural Children's Literature Beth Beutler Lind,1996 The over 1 100 works in this annotated bibliography cover a wide range of contemporary children s literature both fiction and nonfiction in which the protagonists are from four prominent ethnic groups African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Native Americans Arranged first by ethnic group and then by appropriate grade level K 3 or 4 8 each entry includes a one to three sentence annotation in addition to complete bibliographic information A directory of children s publishers is also provided along with selected bibliographies of curricular sources and informational reading and research sources for teachers Living Literature Wendy C. Kasten, Janice V. Kristo, Amy A. McClure, Abigail Garthwait, 2005 This is the ideal book to help prospective teachers improve children s reading and language arts skills and instill in them a genuine and lasting love of reading The book demonstrates numerous ways to integrate literature into the daily fabric of classroom life Following a solid grounding in the basics every reading teacher needs individual chapters explore genres of children s literature and teaching strategies specific to each genre Then the authors examine currently accepted effective practices for engaging young readers in hands on reading in a way that fosters a love of literature that will last a lifetime Early childhood and elementary education literature and language arts teachers
