Real Cities Steve Pile, 2005-03-18 this is a book with an interesting thesis and a welcome contribution to the literature Pile has opened up a productive theoretical and empirical space for further study and exploration RGS IBG Urban Geography Research Group What is real about city life Real Cities shows why it is necessary to take seriously the more imaginary fantastic and emotional aspects of city life Drawing inspiration from the work of Walter Benjamin Sigmund Freud and Georg Simmel Pile explores the dream like and ghost like experiences of the city Such experiences are he argues best described as phantasmagorias The phantasmagorias of city life though commonplace are far from self evident and little understood This book is a path breaking exploration of urban phantasmagorias grounded empirically in a series of unusual and exciting case studies In this study four substantial phantasmagorias are identified dreams magic vampires and ghosts The investigation of each phantasmagoria is developed using a wide variety of clear examples Thus voodoo in New York and New Orleans shows how ideas about magic are forged within cities Meanwhile vampires reveal how specific fears about sex and death are expressed within and circulate between cities such as London and Singapore Taken together such examples build a unique picture of the diverse roles of the imaginary fantastic and the emotional in modern city life What is real about the city has radical consequences for how we think about improving city life for all too often these are over looked in utopian schemes for the city Real Cities forcefully argues that an appreciation of urban phantasmagorias must be central to what is considered real about city life

The Iraqi Collector Stuart Harrison,2022-07-19 It was going to be the beginning of a long year and it was only the first night rolling out on a deployment in Iraq I sat in the back of the lead High Mobility Multipurpose Wheeled Vehicle HMMWV There were three vehicles out on patrol that night We were pulled off the side of the road for less than 10 minutes when a black sedan passed our convoy and pulled directly off the road in front of our lead vehicle with about a distance of 20 feet The reaction to the black sedan speeding by our vehicles swerving in and slamming the brakes made the guy's up top in the turrets with the M249 machine guns wake the hell up ready to fire into the black sedan Most civilized humans would ask why kill innocent people in a car just for backing up Let me explain a highly probable and truly tragic situation that occurred frequently in Iraq which led to the murder of innocent civilian women children men US and Iraqi Soldiers If the black sedan moved backwards toward our lead vehicle and there was an explosive shell in the vehicle it could be detonated by the two suicide bombers killing myself and my men We had seconds a demand for immediate action a question of whether or not to pull the trigger unleashing a barrage of hot steel into the car in front of us For most in the western civilized world a different response would be considered first Well let's wait to see why the guys in the black sedan are backing up maybe they're lost Unfortunately in Iraq in that moment your vehicle could be consumed by a ball of flame That's where the light switch effect comes into play Deciding to do nothing is what gets you a one on one with the maker up in the sky Ladies' Home
