Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference

often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction s treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class Magic At Midnight Melvin Topp, 2024-10-22 Magic At Midnight is a heartwarming children s tale about an extraordinary black cat named Midnight who transforms into a magical messenger under the cover of night In a bustling city apartment Midnight with his sparkling collar and glowing paws gathers heartfelt treasures from the Johnson family s home and delivers them with a sprinkle of enchantment From a cherished drawing to a prized pen and a secret recipe Midnight's nightly deliveries spread love and joy culminating in a delightful morning surprise for the family This beautifully illustrated story is sure to captivate young readers with its blend of magic love and the special bond between a family and their mysterious feline friend Murder at Midnight (Midnight Magic #2) Avi,2011 Falsely accused of plotting to overthrow King Claudio scholarly Mangus the magician along with his street smart servant boy Fabrizio face deadly consequences unless they can track down the real traitor by the stroke of midnight Magic and Myth Michael Scott, 2022-05-03 Myths legends and magic are woven together in a collection of enthralling Irish fairy tales from the New York Times bestselling author of the Secrets of the Immortal Nicholas Flamel series A haunting midnight dance that steals children away An eerie fairy island that appears once every seven years A magical silver horse that emerges from the depths of a dark lake Venture into the Otherworld with eleven timeless enchanting Irish fairy tales that uncover the haunting hidden world of the Sidhe the fairy folk A master of Irish mythology bestselling author Michael Scott has crafted stories guaranteed to enthrall young readers who love magic legends and lore And don t miss the companion collection of Irish folktales Legends Lore Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children Norbert Schurer, 2004-09-07 The aim of this series is to provide accessible and informative introductions to the most popular most acclaimed and most influential novels of recent years
