Magic Realist Landscape Painting Rudy De Reyna, Ellen Zeifer, 1976     Magic Realism, World Cinema, and the Avant-Garde Felicity Gee, 2021-04-19 This book follows the hybrid and contradictory history of magic realism through the writings of three key figures art historian Franz Roh novelist Alejo Carpentier and cultural critic Fredric Jameson drawing links between their political aesthetic and philosophical ideas on art's relationship to reality Magic realism is vast in scope spanning almost a century and is often confused with neighbouring styles of literature or art most notably surrealism The fascinating conditions of modernist Europe are complex and contradictory a spirit that magic realism has taken on as it travels far and wide The filmmakers and writers in this book acknowledge the importance of feeling atmosphere and mood to subtly provoke and resist global capitalism There is the history of magic realist cinema The book explores this history through the modernist avant garde in search of a new theory of cinematic magic realism It uncovers a resistant geopolitical form of world cinema moving from Europe through Latin America and the former Soviet Union to Thailand that emerges from these ideas This book is invaluable to any reader interested in world modernism's in relation to contemporary cinema and geopolitics Its sustained analysis of film as a sensory intermedial medium is of interest to scholars working across the visual arts literature critical theory and film philosophy     The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty-First Century Richard Perez, Victoria A. Chevalier, 2020-04-30 The Palgrave Handbook of Magical Realism in the Twenty First Century examines magical realism in literatures from around the globe Featuring twenty seven essays written by leading scholars this anthology argues that literary expressions of magical realism proliferate globally in the twenty first century due to travel and migrations the shrinking of time and space and the growing encroachment of human life on nature In this global context magical realism addresses twenty first century politics aesthetics identity and social national formations where contact between and within cultures has exponentially increased altering how communities and nations imagine themselves This text assembles a group of critics throughout the world the Americas Europe Africa Asia the Middle East and Australia who employ multiple theoretical approaches to examine the different ways magical realism in literature has transitioned to a global practice thus signaling a new stage in the history and development of the genre     The Magic Realism of Paul Bond Paul Bond, 2015-02-10 The Magic Realism Oil Paintings of Paul Bond paired with his insightful written descriptions     Maruja Mallo and the Spanish Avant-Garde Shirley Mangini, 2017-07-05 The first book in English on Maruja Mallo this volume is an insightful examination of the life and work of this seminal artist of the Spanish avant garde Previously sidelined by a culture that treated women as insider outsiders and by her own mythmaking Mallo no longer can be viewed as simply a muse to famous counterparts such as Salvador Dalí and Federico García Lorca her role has been re contextualized to demonstrate that she was a driving force in the flowering of Spanish culture through the 1920s and 1930s The analysis of Mallo's unique life and extraordinary art is set against the complicated social and political backdrop of interwar Madrid. This book highlights the struggle of Mallo and other women artists against the rampant misogyny of both Spanish culture and the avant garde community of the time. The effects of the Spanish Civil War are also analyzed in Mallo's case. Franco's victory forced her into exile in South America for almost 30 years with profound effects on her art and her life. Added to this rich context, the author's numerous interviews with members of the Mallo family provide essential new background material. Maruja Mallo and the Spanish Avant Garde recasts this artist as a vital figure in the heretofore all male establishment of the Spanish artistic vanguard. Magic Realism Rediscovered, 1918-1981 Seymour Menton, 1983

Robert Vickrey Philip Eliasoph, Robert Vickrey, 2008 Robert Vickrey's unique vision and meticulous painstaking technique have sustained him throughout a sixty year career. He is widely considered to be a living master of using egg tempera, the same labor intensive medium used by Renaissance painters including Giotto and Cennini. But Vickrey's concerns are distinctly twentieth century in the subjects and themes he has chosen from childhood innocence to the dichotomy of urban versus country living. A quintessential Realist, Vickrey endeavored to explore the human condition within a distinctively American environment, writes author Philip Eliasoph, whose essay argues that Vickrey's work builds a bridge from Surrealism and New Objectivity to Magic Realism. Described by the New York Times as the world's most proficient craftsman in tempera painting and an immaculate technician, Vickrey's oeuvre is the fiercely independent work of one of its most unorthodox and even most daring inventors, according to Eliasoph. AUTHOR Philip Eliasoph is a professor of art history at Fairfield University, Virginia M. Mecklenburg is Senior Curator of the Smithsonian American Art Museum in Washington, D.C.

SELLING POINTS A comprehensive survey of the 60 year career of a master of tempera painting, an artist who has been included in nine Whitney Museum of American Art Annual Exhibitions. 80 color plates show off the brilliant light infused compositions of Vickrey's paintings. Includes scholarly essays placing Vickrey in the context of the twentieth century American art. 128 colour, 43 b/w illustrations.

Cinema and the Political Imagination Robin Truth Goodman, 2024-12-04 Highlighting the importance of Third Cinema on twenty first century political filmmaking, this book examines films that have adopted Third Cinema's experimental film techniques for the purpose of political intervention. The text explores the legacy of Third Cinema on more traditional cinema, and Robin Truth Goodman examines how Third Cinema's cinematic reinvention of the image as a political springboard is still being utilized by contemporary filmmakers. In exploring the relationship between political subjectivity and cinematic practice through a variety of contemporary case studies, Goodman also looks at topics not previously examined by Third Cinema. The book focuses on the multiple internationalisms of borders and cities and treats gender as a vector through which different directions in a political field can be imagined. Finally, while linking a mid twentieth century tradition of filmmaking to contemporary problems of the political, the book considers the politics of representation through the representation of politics, reflecting on what makes an image political and what inspires us to identify with it. A compelling read for students and scholars interested
