Wogeo Island is well known to anthropologists of Papua New Guinea through the work of Ian Hogbin Based on substantial fieldwork the author builds on and expands previous research by showing how Wogeos establish and maintain social relationships and identities connected to place and movement in the physical landscape This innovative study demonstrates how Wogeo worldviews and social organization can be described in relation to terms of movements flows and placements in the landscape while in turn the landscape is constituted and made meaningful through people's activities and buildings The author not only addresses some of the key issues in contemporary anthropology concerning place gender kinship knowledge and power but also fills an important gap in Melanesian ethnography The Scope of Anthropology Laurent Dousset, Serge Tcherkézoff, 2012-04-01

Some of the most prominent social and cultural anthropologists have come together in this volume to discuss Maurice Godelier's work They explore and revisit some of the highly complex practices and structures social scientists encounter in their fieldwork From the nature culture debate to the fabrication of hereditary political systems from transforming gender relations to the problems of the Christianization of indigenous peoples these chapters demonstrate both the diversity of anthropological topics and the opportunity for constructive dialogue around shared methodological and theoretical models The Palgrave Handbook of Anthropological Ritual Studies Pamela J. Stewart, Andrew J. Strathern, 2021-08-24

Ritual Studies have achieved prominence since the 1980s when interest in ritual as an object of inquiry was established bridging over a number of humanities and social science disciplines Both connected with religious studies and independent of it overlapping with social and cultural anthropology but also with history related to science and health practices and ranging across the life course to education Ritual Studies has come to encompass studies of change and dynamism in social life Rituals are determinate in form but not static They enunciate distinctive social values within specific contexts that frame them and they relate to the wider concerns and issues of their practitioners Due to this broad and wide ranging scope it is often difficult to find a single resource on Ritual Studies and even more so to find one which moves beyond the beginnings of anthropological theorizing to grapple with the present day contexts of ritual Bringing together recent ethnographies of ritual practice and ritualization from across the globe this Handbook provides case study of ritual in the light of Emotion and Cognition Identity Religious Power Performance and Literature Ecology and Ecological Disaster Media and other topics While each chapter provides a deep ethnography of a specific society ritual or ritualized practice each also engages with current theoretical and substantive approaches to the relevant topic The scholars collected here provide original synoptic and indicative pieces as guideposts and pathways through the complex varied and cross disciplinary and vast landscape of scholarship that constitutes Ritual Studies today and points to developments in the future

Unstable Images Brenda Johnson Clay, 2005-07-31 The subject of colonialism encompasses a multitude of analytic concerns about the nature and extent of political controls economic inequalities and social hierarchies Underlying the varied conditions of power and subordination are the diverse sometimes contested representations of human difference that motivate support or question colonial practices and projects Unstable Images concentrates a critical gaze on this discursive side of colonialism through close readings of a series of Western texts on the people of New Ireland from the 1870s to the 1930s when the status of the New Ireland New Britain region changed from precolonial to German control and finally to a League of Nations mandated Australian administration

Androgynous Objects Maureen A. MacKenzie, 2019-01-25 Androgynous Objects explores the way meaning is encoded in material culture by focusing on the androgynous symbolism of the looped string bag or bilum of the Telefol people of Central New Guinea The web of meanings woven into the bag is shown to extend beyond women's lives and bodies It is open to manipulation and reformation in a variety of contexts and is used by both Telefol women and men to explore and so explain the complexities and ambiguities inherent in their social life Austronesian Soundscapes Birgit Abels, 2011 Birgit Abels is a cultural musicologist with a primary specialization in the music of the Pacific and Southeast Asian islands I Am Dynamite Nigel Rappaport, 2004-03-01 Power is conventionally regarded as being held by social institutions We are taught to believe that it is these social structures that determine the environment and circumstances of individual lives In I Am Dynamite the anthropologist Nigel Rappaport argues for a different view Focusing on the lives and works of the writer and Auschwitz survivor Primo Levi refugee and engineer Ben Glaser Israeli ceramicist and immigrant Rachel Sibley Stein artist Stanley Spencer and philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche he shows how we can have the capacity and inclination to formulate life projects It is in the pursuit of these life projects that is making our life our work that we can avoid the structures of ideology and institution The Lihir Destiny Nicholas A. Bainton, 2010-10-01 The people of the Lihir Islands in Papua New Guinea have long held visions of a prosperous new future often referred to by local leaders as the Lihir Destiny When large scale gold mining activities commenced on the main island of Lihir in 1995 many hoped that this new world had finally arrived The Lihir Destiny provides a nuanced account of the social structural and cultural transformations engendered by large scale resource extraction Tracing the history of Lihirian engagement with outside forces from the colonial period through to recent mining activities this book brings new light to bear on the bigger question of what development means in contemporary Melanesia The Lihir Destiny explores how Lihirian leaders devised future plans for a cultural revolution based upon the maximisation of mining activities and the influential philosophies of the Personal Viability movement However reaching the Lihir Destiny is no simple affair and many Lihirians find themselves negotiating divergent formulations of culture sociality and economic engagement The Lihir Destiny will appeal to readers interested in the social impacts of large scale resource development the processes of cultural continuity and change and the ways in which modernity is configured in local terms Biomedical Entanglements Franziska A. Herbst, 2016-10-01 Biomedical Entanglements is an ethnographic study of the Giri people of Papua New Guinea focusing on the indigenous population's interaction with modern medicine In her fieldwork Franziska A Herbst follows the Giri people as they circulate within and around ethnographic sites that include a rural health center and an urban hospital The study bridges medical anthropology and global health exploring how the biomedical is imbued with social meaning and how biomedicine affects Giri ways of life Election 2007 R.J. May, Ray Anere, Nicole Haley, Katherine Wheen, 2013-09-23 Papua New Guinea's general election in 2007 attracted particular interest for several reasons Not only did it follow what was widely acknowledged as the country's worst election ever in 2002 in which elections in six of the country's 109 electorates were declared to be failed elections it was the first general election to be held under a new limited preferential voting system It also followed the first full parliamentary term under the Organic Law on the Integrity of Political Parties and Candidates which had been introduced in 2001 in an attempt to strengthen political parties and create a greater degree of stability in the national parliament and was the first to embrace a whole of government approach to electoral administration through an Interdepartmental Electoral Committee This volume provides an analysis of the 2007 election drawing on the work of a domestic monitoring team organized through the National Research Institute and several visiting scholars It addresses key issues such as voter education electoral administration election security the role of political parties women as candidates and voters the shift to limited preferential voting and HIV transmission and provides detailed accounts of the election in a number of open and provincial electorates It is generally agreed that the election of 2007 was an improvement on that of 2002 But problems of electoral administration and voting behaviour remain These are identified in this volume and recommendations made for electoral reform

Ways of Baloma Mark S. Mosko, 2017-11-15 Bronislaw Malinowski's path breaking research in the Trobriand Islands shaped much of modern anthropology's disciplinary paradigm Yet many conundrums remain For example Malinowski asserted that baloma spirits of the dead were responsible for procreation but had limited influence on their living descendants in magic and other matters claims largely unchallenged by subsequent field investigators until now Based on extended fieldwork at Omarakana village home of the Tabalu Paramount Chief Mark S Mosko argues instead that these and virtually all contexts of indigenous sociality are conceived as sacrificial reciprocities between the mirror worlds that baloma and humans inhabit Informed by a synthesis of Strathern's model of dividual personhood and Lévy Bruhl's theory of participation Mosko upends a century of discussion and debate extending from Malinowski to anthropology's other leading thinkers His account of the intimate interdependencies of humans and spirits in the cosmic generation and coordination of life, momova and death kaliga strikes at the nexus of anthropology's received wisdom and Ways of Baloma will inevitably lead practitioners and students to reflect anew on the discipline's multifold theories of personhood ritual agency and sociality

Hoarding New Guinea Rainer F. Buschmann, 2023-07 Hoarding New Guinea provides a new cultural history of colonialism that pays close attention to the millions of Indigenous artifacts that serve as witnesses to Europe's colonial past in ethnographic museums Rainer F Buschmann investigates the roughly two hundred thousand artifacts extracted from the colony of German New Guinea from 1870 to 1920 Reversing the typical trajectories that place ethnographic museums at the center of the analysis he concludes that museum interests in material culture alone cannot account for the large quantities of extracted artifacts Buschmann moves beyond the easy definition of artifacts as trophies of colonial defeat or religious conversion instead employing the term hoarding to describe the irrational amassing of Indigenous artifacts by European colonial residents Buschmann also highlights Indigenous material culture as a bargaining chip for its producers to engage with the imposed colonial regime In addition by centering an area of collection rather than an institution he opens new areas of investigation that include non professional ethnographic collectors and a sustained rather than superficial consideration of Indigenous peoples as producers behind the material culture Hoarding New Guinea answers the call for a more significant historical focus on colonial ethnographic collections in European museums
