believed that He is the Son of God At a mature age James wrote his memoirs from the first time he met Jesus to the time he was preparing to leave on his first missionary trip to preach the Way Although the miracle of feeding the crowd happened almost one year before Jesus was crucified and resurrected the novel is developed to present to the reader other important events that happened prior to that miracle Prophecies of the Old Testament were incorporated in the body of the story as they were being fulfilled The Bible events in the novel are real James is an imaginary figure whom the author followed in his growth in the love and knowledge of Jesus Christ Atonement and Personality Robert Campbell Moberly,1907

Sennefelt, 2025-09-23 From children's visions of angels to the cancerous belly of a king this book shows how the body was at the centre of religious experience in seventeenth century Lutheran culture It explores what it was like to live in a body that was situated between the heavenly and earthly realms in the century following the Reformations how faith shaped the experience of the body and how the body shaped religious experience Lutherans fasted and fortified their bodies through asceticism or exposure to harsh conditions People of all types could feel the Holy Spirit entering their bodies and follow its movement within Early modern Lutherans used their bodies to understand the complexities of their world and by knowing about their physiology we come closer to grasping it Based on a varied set of sources from the expansive Swedish empire with connections from Lapland to the North American colonies this book shows how spiritual experience played out in relation to gender and age revealing the powerful resemblances that connected bodies spiritually politically socially and emotionally This book challenges received notions that Lutheranism implied a removed corporeality mediated by an abstracted faith and offers new insights into studying early modern corporeality The Word Made Flesh will be of interest to scholars and students in history religion history of medicine gender and body studies A Kite in the Wind Andrea

Barrett, Peter Turchi, 2011-03-01 A Kite in the Wind is an anthology of essays by 20 veteran writers and master teachers While the contributors offer specific practical advice on such fundamental aspects of craft as characterization character names the first person point of view and unreliable narrators they also give extended thoughtful consideration to more sophisticated topics including imminence or the power of a sense of beginning creating and maintaining tension lushness and the deliberate manipulation of information to create particular effects The essays in A Kite in the Wind begin as personal investigations attempts to understand why a decision in a particular story or novel seemed unsuccessful to define a quality or problem that seemed either unrecognized or unsatisfactorily defined to understand what despite years of experience as a fiction writer resisted comprehension and to pursue haunting even unanswerable questions Unlike a how to book the anthology is less an instruction manual than it is an intimate visit with twenty very different writers as they explore topics that excite intrigue and even puzzle them Each discussion uses specific examples and illustrations including both canonical stories and novels and writing less frequently discussed from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries by both American and international authors The contributors share their hard earned insights for beginning and advanced writers with humility wit and compassion The first section of the book focuses on narration with particular attention paid to various kinds of narrators the second on strategic creation and presentation of character the third on some of the roles of the visual beginning with establishing setting and the fourth on structural and organizational issues from movement through time to the manipulation of information to create mystery and suspense
