The Golden Age of Preaching Dr. Robert Henry,2005-08-15 To measure the impact of a minister's preaching one must first examine the societal context in which the ministry took place For example what would lead a minister of the Gospel to roar from the pulpit as did Joseph Parker of City Temple London God damn the Sultan The first section of The Golden Age of Preaching is given to the study of the times in which nine prominent British preachers ministered Understanding the times helps one to comprehend why crowds flocked to hear these men preach and why their sermons were printed in newspapers on Monday Furthermore to assess the preaching of a man one needs to take into account the life and manner of the man himself The Men Who Moved the Masses includes biographical sketches of nine selected preachers Alexander McLaren Robert William Dale Henry Parry Liddon at St Paul's London Joseph Parker Charles Haddon Spurgeon Alexander Whyte Frederick Brotherton Meyer John Henry Jowett and George Campbell Morgan These were men though hampered by various medical problems and personality shortcomings who led thousands to faith in their day The final section attempts to answer the question Why by identifying those homiletical characteristics of their preaching which they had in common resulting in such uncommon impact upon the masses Those qualities are not confined to their era alone They are perpetual applicable to any age to any culture Preachers and seminarians who dare to sit at the feet and learn from these preaching giants of the past will find their own preaching power lifted onto a new plain to the benefit of all who hear them The fat of the land Maria Soltera,1888 Serapion and Other Stories Francis Stevens,2021-05-28 Serapion and Other Stories 1920 is a collection of stories by Francis Stevens Using her well known pseudonym Gertrude Barrows Bennett published some of the twentieth century's greatest science fiction stories and novels Serapion been recognized as a powerful tale of dark fantasy for investigation of demonic possession and the occult and remains central to Stevens reputation as a pioneering author of fantasy and science fiction Get Get out adjured that brutally vulgar voice Then it changed to a whining female treble You are young Clayton Barbour young and soft to the soft cruel hand that would mold you You are easy to mold as clay clay Clayton clay Evil hangs over you black evil Flee from the damned Clayton Barbour Go home you Against his better judgment Clay Barbour ignores the advice of his friend Nils Berquist and attends a séance at the home of well known spiritualists James and Alicia Moore In the dim candlelit room a fifth presence named Serapion reveals himself to Barbour claiming to offer happiness and success to the young man Terrified at first Barbour soon welcomes Serapion into his life unwittingly opening the door to disaster for himself and his loved ones Presented alongside some of Stevens lesser known tales of science fiction and occult inquiry Serapion is a masterpiece of dark fantasy and a cautionary tale that continues to haunt a century after it appeared in print With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Francis Stevens
