Maid To Order In Hong Kong An Ethnography Of Filipina Workers:

Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 1997 The forms of discipline range from physical abuse to intrusive regulations including restrictions on hair length and the prohibition of lipstick Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 2017-12-15 Middle class Chinese women in the global city of Hong Kong have entered the workforce in unprecedented numbers over the past three decades and the demand for foreign domestic workers has soared A decade ago some foretold the decline in foreign workers and the influx of mainland workers But today over 120 000 women from the Philippines over 90 000 from Indonesia and thousands more from other parts of South and Southeast Asia serve as maids on two year contracts in Hong Kong sending much needed remittances to their families abroad Nicole Constable tells their story by updating Maid to Order in Hong Kong with a focus on the major changes that have taken place since Hong Kong's reunification with mainland China in 1997 the Asian financial crisis of the late 1990s and the outbreak of SARS in 2002 2003 Interweaving her analysis with the women's individual stories she shows how power is expressed in the day to day lives of Filipina domestic workers and more recent Indonesian arrivals Human Rights and Migrant Domestic Work Maria Deanna P. Santos, 2005-09-01 On a general level this research project concerns ways in which the domestic and international laws relating to the situation of migrant domestic workers MDWs are shaped by broader socio political and economic factors More specifically this dissertation examines the human rights situation of Filipina MDWs who participate in Canada's Live in Caregiver Program LCP It attempts to meet these objectives in part by undertaking a limited comparison of the situation of these Filipina MDWs and the Filipina MDWs in Hong Kong The comparison is meant to further test and validate the arguments and proposals presented in this dissertation regarding the socio legal status of Filipina MDWs under Canada's LCP This is done through an analysis of existing data on Filipina MDWs and a consideration of the ways in which the relevant laws and policies in these two jurisdictions affect create and or perpetrate the status quo in this area of social life The main explanatory theoretical framework that is deployed is the Third World Approaches to International Law the TWAIL theory

Filipino Crosscurrents Kale Bantigue Fajardo, How migrant Filipino seamen navigate alternative masculinities in the global shipping industry Worker-Mothers on the Margins of Europe Leyla J. Keough, 2016-02-01 Unravels complex gendered moral economies that guide migratory practices and choices of female domestic workers from Gagauz Yeri to Istanbul Olena Fedjuk Anthropology of East Europe Review Following Moldovan women who commute for six to twelve months at a time to work as domestics in Istanbul Worker Mothers on the Margins of Europe explores the world of undocumented migrants from a postsocialist state Leyla J Keough examines the gendered moral economies that shape the perspectives of the migrants their employers in Turkey their communities in Moldova and the International Organization for Migration She finds that their socialist past continues to color how the women view their labor and their roles within their families even as they are affected by the same shifts in the global economy that drive migration elsewhere Keough puts scholarship on gender and migration into dialogue with postsocialist studies and offers a critical assessment of international anti trafficking efforts Anyone interested in the phenomenon of migration particularly the gender dynamics of international migration and the politics of trafficking in an era of globalization will find this book an invaluable contribution This is ethnography at its best Kristen Ghodsee Bowdoin College

A Handbook of Economic Anthropology, Second Edition James G. Carrier, 2012-01-01 Acclaim for the first edition The volume is a remarkable contribution to economic anthropology and will no doubt be a fundamental tool for students scholars and experts in the sub discipline Mao Mollona Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute This excellent overview would serve as an excellent text for advanced undergraduate and graduate level classroom use Because of the clarity conciseness and accessibility of the writing the chapters in this volume likely will be often cited and recommended to those who want the alternative and frequently culturally comparative perspective on economic topics that anthropology provides Highly recommended All academic levels libraries K F Rambo Choice The first edition of this unique Handbook was praised for its substantial and invaluable summary discussions of work by anthropologists on economic processes and issues on the relationship between economic and non economic areas of life and on the conceptual orientations that are important among economic anthropologists This thoroughly revised edition brings those discussions up to date and includes an important new section exploring ways that leading anthropologists have approached the current economic crisis Its scope and accessibility make it useful both to those who are interested in a particular topic and to those who want to see the breadth and fruitfulness of an anthropological study of economy This comprehensive Handbook will strongly appeal to undergraduate and post graduate students in anthropology economists interested in social and cultural dimensions of economic life and alternative approaches to economic life political economists political scientists and historians

The Futures of the City Region Michael Neuman, Angela Hull, 2013-09-13 Does the city region constitute a new departure in urbanisation If so what are the key elements of that departure The realities of the urban in the 21st century are increasingly complex and polychromatic The rise of global networks enabled by supranational administrations both governmental and corporate strongly influences and structures the management of urban life How we conceive the city region has intellectual and practical consequences First in helping us grasp rapidly changing realities and second in facilitating the flow of resources ideas and learning to enhance the quality of life of citizens Two themes interweave through this collection within this broad palette First are the socio spatial constructs and their relationship to the empirical evidence of change in the physical and functional aspects of urban form Second is what they mean for the spatial scales of governance This latter theme explores territorially based understandings of intervention and the changing set of political concerns in selected case studies In efforts to address these issues and improve upon knowledge this collection brings together international scholars building new data driven cross disciplinary theories to create new images of the city region that may prove to supplement if not supplant old ones The book illustrates the dialectical interplay of theory and fact time and space and spatial and institutional which expands on our intellectual grasp of the theoretical debates on city regions through practical knowing citing examples from Europe the United States Australasia and beyond This book was originally published as a Special Issue of Regional Studies Domestic Service and the Formation of European Identity Antoinette Fauve-Chamoux,2004 Before the Servant Project began its activities on the initiative of the editor of this book the long term history of domestic service was still in its beginning stage This volume is the first wide ranging attempt to determine the role of domestic workers both in past and present times Domestic service was of major importance in the multi secular process of urbanization and socio economic development of European societies Today domestic workers mainly women represent an important component of international labour migrations to Western countries Instead of disappearing as expected for a long time paid domestic work is currently experiencing a kind of resurgence The contributions assembled in this volume analyze the situation of domestic workers and contribute to improve knowledge concerning their individual characteristics gender ethnic group religion origin motivation and cultural identity relationship with their own families and those of the employers Further topics are connections with the home country and place of destination legal status rights and duties in order to understand the current globalization of domestic work The Filipino Migration Experience Mina Roces,2021-10-15 Winner of the New South Wales Premier s History Awards General History Prize 2022 The Filipino Migration Experience introduces a new dimension to the usual depiction of migrants as disenfranchised workers or marginal ethnic groups Mina Roces suggests alternative ways of conceptualizing Filipino migrants as critics of the family and cultural constructions of sexuality as consumers and investors as philanthropists as activists and as historians They have been able to transform fundamental social institutions and well entrenched traditional norms as well as alter the business economic and cultural landscapes of both the homeland and the host countries to which they have migrated Mina Roces tells the story of the Filipino migration experience from the perspective of the migrants themselves drawing on underused primary sources from the migrant archives and more than seventy interviews Bringing together migration studies and Filipina o x American studies The Filipino Migration Experience explores how these migrants have profoundly reshaped the status quo Figures of Southeast Asian Modernity Joshua Barker,Erik Harms,Johan A. Lindquist,2013-07-31 We live in a world populated not just by individuals but by figures those larger than life people who in some way express and challenge our conventional understandings of social types This innovative and collaborative work takes up the wide range of figures that populate the social and cultural imaginaries of contemporary Southeast Asia some familiar only in specific places others recognizable across the region and even globally It puts forward a series of ethnographic portraits of figures that represent and give voice to something larger than themselves offering a view into social life that is at once highly particular and general They include the Muslim Television Preacher in Indonesia Miss Beer Lao the Rural DJ in Thailand the Korean Soap Opera Junkie in Burma the Filipino Seaman and the Photo Retoucher in Vietnam Figures of Southeast Asian Modernity brings together the fieldwork of over eighty scholars and covers the nine major countries of the region Burma Myanmar Cambodia Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam An introduction outlines important social transformations in Southeast Asia and key theoretical and methodological innovations that result from ethnographic attention to the study of key figures Each section begins with an introduction by a country editor followed by short essays offering vivid and intimate portraits set against the background of contemporary Southeast Asia The result is a volume that combines scholarly rigor with a meaningful up to date portrayal of a region of the world undergoing rapid change A reference bibliography offers suggestions for further reading Figures of Southeast Asia Modernity is an ideal teaching tool for introductory classes to Southeast Asia studies anthropology and geography

Life Interrupted Denise Brennan, 2014-03-18 Having spent nearly a decade following the lives of formerly trafficked men and women Denise Brennan recounts in close detail their flight from their abusers and their courageous efforts to rebuild their lives Life Interrupted is a riveting account of life in and after trafficking and a forceful call for meaningful immigration and labor reform

Women on the Verge Karen Kelsky, 2001-11-21 Explores issues of gender race and national identity in Japan by taking up for critical analysis an emergent national trend in which some urban Japanese women turn to the West through study abroad work abroad and romance with Westerners in order

The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory Lisa Disch, Mary Hawkesworth, 2018-02-01 The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory provides a rich overview of the analytical frameworks and theoretical concepts that feminist theorists have developed to analyze the known world Featuring leading feminist theorists from diverse regions of the globe this collection delves into forty nine subject areas demonstrating the complexity of feminist challenges to established knowledge while also engaging areas of contestation within feminist theory Demonstrating the interdisciplinary nature of feminist theory the chapters offer innovative analyses of topics central to social and political science cultural studies and humanities discourses associated with medicine and science and issues in contemporary critical theory that have been transformed through feminist theorization The handbook identifies limitations of key epistemic assumptions that inform traditional scholarship and shows how theorizing from women s and men s lives has profound effects on the conceptualization of central categories whether the field of analysis is aesthetics biology cultural studies development economics film studies health history literature politics religion science studies sexualities violence or war

Intimate Encounters Lieba Faier, 2009-08-10 This groundbreaking study explores the recent dramatic changes brought about in Japan by the influx of a non Japanese population Filipina brides Lieba Faier investigates how Filipina women who emigrated to rural Japan to work in hostess bars where initially they were widely disparaged as prostitutes and foreigners came to be identified by the local residents as ideal traditional Japanese brides Intimate Encounters an ethnography of cultural encounters unravels this paradox by examining the everyday relational dynamics that drive these interactions Faier remaps Japan the Philippines and the United States into what she terms a zone of encounters showing how the meanings of Filipino and Japanese culture and identity are transformed and how these changes are accomplished through ordinary interpersonal exchanges Intimate Encounters provides an insightful new perspective from which to reconsider national subjectivities amid the increasing pressures of globalization thereby broadening and deepening our understanding of the larger issues of migration and diaspora Uneasy Reunions Nicole DeJong Newendorp, 2008 This book is about the migrations for family reunion that have taken place in post 1997 Hong Kong between mothers and children living in mainland China and their long absent husbands and fathers residents of Hong Kong

Racism and Cultural Studies Epifanio San Juan, 2002-03-26 A historical critique of practices in multiculturalism and cultural studies Globalization and Third World Women Ligaya Lindio-McGovern, Isidor Wallimann, 2016-04-22 Adopting the notion of third world as a political as well as a geographical category this volume analyzes marginalized women's experiences of globalization It unravels the intersections of race culture ethnicity nationality and class which have shaped the position of these women in the global political economy their cultural and their national history In addition to a thematically structured and highly informative investigation the authors offer an exploration of the policy implications which are commonly neglected in mainstream literature The result is a must have volume for sociological academics social policy experts and professionals working within non governmental organizations In Camps Jana K. Lipman, 2020-06-02 Robert Ferrell Book Prize Honorable Mention 2021 Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations Book Award for Outstanding Achievement in History Honorable Mention 2022 Association for Asian American Studies After the US war in Vietnam close to 800 000 Vietnamese left the country by boat survived and sought refuge throughout Southeast Asia and the Pacific This is the story of what happened in the camps In Camps raises key questions that remain all too relevant today Who is a refugee Who determines this status And how does it change over time From Guam to Malaysia and the Philippines to Hong Kong In Camps is the first major work on Vietnamese refugee policy to pay close attention to host territories and to explore Vietnamese activism in the camps and the diaspora This book explains how Vietnamese were transformed from de facto refugees to individual asylum seekers to repatriates Ambitiously covering people on the ground local governments teachers and corrections officers as well as powerful players such as the UN High Commissioner for Refugees and the US government Jana Lipman shows that the local politics of first asylum sites often drove international refugee policy Unsettling most accounts of Southeast Asian migration to the US In Camps instead emphasizes the contingencies inherent in refugee policy and experiences The Heart of Helambu Tom O'Neill, 2016-05-12 Over the course of the last twenty five years Tom O'Neill has traveled frequently to Kathmandu and the Helambu region of Nepal to undertake ethnographic fieldwork with the Yolmo business owners and carpet weavers of the area The Heart of Helambu is an evocative and touching account of his experiences working in Nepal during those turbulent times In his autoethnographic memoir O'Neill reflects on the complex relationships he developed with his research participants the carpet weavers their families and others in the communities which he studied A compelling account of ethnographic fieldwork's personal dimension and the ethical and emotional challenges that come with maintaining relationships across substantial social distances The Heart of Helambu illustrates an important aspect of anthropological research through O'Neill's engaging story Decentering Citizenship Hae Yeon Choo, 2016-06-08 Decentering Citizenship follows three groups of Filipina migrants struggles to belong in South Korea factory workers claiming rights as workers wives of South Korean men claiming rights as mothers and hostesses at American military clubs who are excluded from claims unless they claim to be victims of trafficking Moving beyond laws and policies Hae Yeon Choo examines how rights are enacted translated and challenged in daily life and ultimately interrogates the concept of citizenship Choo reveals citizenship as a language of social and personal transformation within the pursuit of dignity security and mobility Her vivid ethnography of both migrants and their South Korean advocates illuminates how social inequalities of gender race class and nation operate in defining citizenship Decentering Citizenship argues that citizenship emerges from negotiations about rights and belonging between South Koreans and migrants As the promise of equal rights and full membership in a polity erodes in the face of global inequalities this decentering illuminates important contestation at the margins of citizenship
