The Sound of Distant Drums Chuck Knox,2005-05-09 The Heroes of this book are the veterans and their families whose stories span 140 years in protecting our country Their stories are history filled with the mundane events of service life the fear of combat the horror that front line infantrymen faced the tension that air crews and pilots faced the vastness of the Pacific that confronted sailors the strain on the mind and bodies of Prisoners of War and humor viewed through the eyes of the veterans As you read their stories listen to the voices of these veterans and picture in your mind an aging color guard from a local veterans post visualize them marching into the mist to the sound of distant drums and the muted bugles call along with the men and women who have gone before There are no large marble memorials to these individual veterans their monument is a free United States I am left with one thought about the experience of speaking with these people God bless the United States of America and all who serve her U.S.M.C. - University of Science Music and Culture OR Uncle Sams Misguided Children Chas Romeo,2019-05-30 This book is a small record of how things were done in a particular time period in the Marine Corps training history In order to win you have to put the best team together for that period or era In the 60s the techniques and tactics worked for the events that were going on at that time What didn t work were the procedures we had to follow that were given to us by the politicians who knew nothing about the work we had to do I m sure they ve changed in the last sixty years and will continue to evolve until they are no longer needed I mean no disrespect to my beloved corps then now or in the future If I were to criticize their procedures then and now I would say that back then they took the so called bad boys and now they want you with no flaws so that they don't have to waste time taking the errant behavior out of the individual in order to put their wants and needs and desires into him. They don't want to do the heavy lifting anymore. We haven't won a war since the middle forties so I wouldn't know but I've been told by people who were there that in the end it is the individual marine with a rifle and fixed bayonet who closes with and kills his enemy. That takes a bad boy who is used to doing the heavy lifting and the dirty work but we have special units in almost every branch of the service that are trained specifically to do the heavy lifting and the dirty work.
