The Trans-Oceanic Marketing Channel Erdener Kaynak, 2014-05 This book applies marketing channel analysis to Africa's export agriculture and examines the opportunities problems and policies of the various channel members You'll find a fresh and long run view of export agriculture that is not entrapped in the current pessimism about downward trends in sub-Saharan Africa The Trans Oceanic Marketing Channel will open your eyes to vertical ocean straddling links between actors particularly the exporters and importers      The History of the Book in the West: 1914-2000 Alexis Weedon, 2017-03-02 This collection brings together published papers on key themes which book historians have identified as of particular significance in the history of twentieth century publishing It reprints some of the best comparative perspectives and most insightful and innovatively presented scholarship on publishing and book history from such figures as Philip Altbach Lewis Coser James Curran Elizabeth Long Laura Miller Angus Phillips Janice Radway Jonathan Rose Shafquat Towheed Catherine Turner Jay Satterfield Clare Squires Eva Hemmungs Wirtén It is arranged into six sections which examine the internationalisation of publishing businesses changing notions of authorship innovation in the design and marketing of books the specific effects of globalisation on creative property and the book in a multimedia marketplace Twentieth century book history attracts an audience beyond the traditional disciplines of librarianship bibliography history and literary studies It will appeal to publishing educators editors publishers booksellers as well as academics with an interest in media and popular culture      H. C. Bankole-Bright and Politics in Colonial Sierra Leone, 1919-1958 Akintola Wyse, 2003-12-11 This substantial and thoroughly documented book is a political biography of an important figure in Sierra Leone It is also a comment on two of the major themes of the country's history the relations between the Colony Krio Society and the protectorate the earlier inhabitants of the territory and more importantly the position of the imperial regime vis-à-vis its colonial subjects The author a Sierra Leonean and a Krio himself skillfully examines the country's recent history through the life of Dr H C Bankole Bright an important leader of the Krio people The Krio descendants of the freed slaves were the elite of Sierra Leone for more than a century but ultimately they failed to master mass electoral politics during the period of decolonization leading to independence Dr Bankole Bright's failure is seen as emblematic of the disappointed hopes of the Krio as a political group in Sierra Leone An underlying theme of the book is the misrepresentation of the Krio people in

Sierra Leone historiography      Kwame Nkrumah Ebenezer Obiri Addo,1997 Comprises a study of Ghana s first post colonial prime minister and president Kwame Nkrumah 1909 1972 focusing on his use of religion in the development of national integration and modernization among other political goals The author offers a historical account of religion and politics in Ghana draws on social political and anthropological theories to evaluate Nkrumah s leadership from several different angles and finally assesses Nkrumah s legacy Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Cultural Representations of Massacre Sabrina Parent,2014-07-10 In this book Parent puts together a history of representations of the 1944 mutiny in Senegal Combining firsthand analysis of the works and their intertextual interactions as well an external perspective Parent engages with history literature film poetics and politics and highlights the importance of remembering the past      The Nigeria-Biafra War, OAU and the Politics of Diplomatic Recognition of Biafra, 1967 - 1970 Nwobi Obiora Isaac, A historical methodology of analysis that is thematic chronological and descriptive was adopted in this study of the Nigeria Biafra war of 1967 1970 particular regarding the Organization of African Unity OAU and the Politics of Recognition given to Biafra during the Civil War The focus of this book is to unearth the factors that propelled the four African states to declare support and accord de facto recognition to the Biafran regime against the OAU s position The nature dimension significance and the implications of such recognition were also analyzed The title of the work is not only interesting but inviting It spans across the diverse disciplines of History International Relations Political Science and International Law The results indicate as follows i Diplomatic recognition of Biafra by four African state became an elixir to the prolongation of the Nigeria Biafra war ii The credibility of the Organization of African Unity OAU appeared severely tarnished given the contradictions inherent in its charter vis a vis the national interests and dispositions of some of its member nations iii Nigeria s insistence that the conflict was its internal affairs also presented another contradiction as by so doing Nigeria purported to be a judge in its own cause by way of adjudication and negotiations iv The blockade and quarantine of Biafran territory meant to emasculate the economy and society of the secessionist enclave inadvertently succeeded in galvanizing international sympathy for the Biafran cause besides giving a lie to the aforementioned mantra of Nigeria s internal affairs as mentioned earlier v Despite the enormous humanitarian question raised and sustained by the war power politics and international realist perspective prevailed at the end      The Dance of Death Dubem Okafor,1998 Christopher Okigbo 1932 1967 was one of Africa s foremost poets until his life was cut short by the Biafran civil war This work analyses his poetry and considers its importance as prophecy in the light of the current concern about the direction of the Nigerian government      New Perspectives on the Sierra Leone Krio Mac Dixon-Fyle,Gibril Raschid Cole,2006 The ex slave Krio population of Freetown Sierra Leone an amalgam of ethnicities drawn from several parts of the African continent is a fascinating study in hybridity creolization European cultural penetration the retention of African cultural values and the interface between New World returnees and autochthonous populations of West Africa Although its Nigerian connections are often acknowledged insufficient attention has been paid to the indigenous Sierra Leonean roots of this community This anthology addresses this problem while celebrating the complexities of Krio identity and Krio interaction with other ethnic groups and nationalities in the British colonial experience Ibss Poli Sci 29 1980 "International Committee For Social Sciences Documentation",2013-10-15 The International Bibliography of the Social Sciences IBSS is an essential tool for librarians academics and researchers wishing to be kept up to date with the published literature in the social sciences IBSS is compiled in four divisions Anthropology Sociology Economics and Political Science This is Volume XXIX of the International bibliography of political science as of 1980 An Ethnographic Approach to Peacebuilding Gearoid Millar,2014-04-24 This book aims to outline and promote an ethnographic approach to evaluating international peacebuilding interventions in transitional states While the evaluation of peacebuilding and transitional justice efforts has been a growing concern in recent years too often evaluations assess projects based on locally irrelevant measures reinforce the status quo distribution of power in transitional situations and uncritically accept the implicit conceptions of the funders planners and administrators of such projects This book argues that evaluating the effects of peacebuilding interventions demands an understanding of the local and culturally variable context of intervention Throughout the book the author draws on real world examples from extensive fieldwork in Sierra Leone to argue that local experiences should be considered the primary measure of a peacebuilding project s success An ethnographic approach recognizes diversity in conceptions of peace justice development and reconciliation and takes local approaches and local critiques of the international agenda seriously It can help to empower local actors hold the international peacebuilding industry accountable to its supposed beneficiaries and challenge the Western centric ideas of what peace entails and how peacebuilding is achieved This book will be of much interest to students and scholars of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies transitional justice African politics ethnography International Relations and security studies as well as practitioners working in the field Zones of Peace in the Third World Arie Marcelo Kacowicz,1998-01-01 Provides a critique and an extension of the democratic peace theory by focusing on the regional level and by offering alternative explanations for the maintenance of democratic and non democratic zones of peace Who Influenced Whom? Dale C. Tatum,2002 Urging the rejection of the realist paradigm of international relations that rested upon assumptions of balance of power concepts the author examines eight case studies from the Cold War as a move towards setting international relations concepts with more utility in influencing other countries Superpower relations with Syria Turkey Ethiopia and Guinea are explored in terms of strategic relationship concepts Taiwan and Cuba were chosen as cases in which superpowers established a relationship to a small country in order to protect it from an ideological rival Finally the cases of Yugoslavia and Uganda were selected as being examples where a superpower established a relationship with a country in order to gain at the expense of the other superpower Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR International Relations in Contemporary Africa Michael O. Anda,2000 Although developing countries far outnumber fully industrialized states they are often neglected in the study of international relations especially with respect to the development of foreign policy theory International Relations in Contemporary Africa attempts to fill this void in the literature on comparative international relations while at the same time providing a detailed analysis of the economic development and integration of West African countries Michael Anda specifically focuses on the members of the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS and their policies which encourage coordination on issues ranging from science and technology to diplomacy and mutual defense Tracing the diplomatic history of West Africa from independence to the present he assesses the various dimensions of cooperation among the smaller and less developed states of West Africa while revealing the precarious nature of the economy and security in the region Both detailed and comprehensive International Relations in Contemporary Africa represents a significant contribution to African studies that appeal to those with an interest in the foreign policy of smaller states

Title to Territory in Africa Malcolm Nathan Shaw, 1986 The territorially based view of international law remains the fundamental model and is subscribed to by third world states This study analyzes the colonial acquisition of African territory with particular reference to the evolution of the principles of self determination and its impact upon the law relating to territory

Dynamics of Asymmetric Territorial Conflict U. Resnick, 2013-07-12 This book provides a comprehensive study of asymmetric territorial conflict combining game theory statistical empirical analysis and historiographic analysis Using the Israeli Palestine conflict as a case study it tests the model on a database of almost four hundred territorial conflicts

The Novels of Peter Abrahams and the Rise of Nationalism in Africa Robert Ensor, 1992

Equality, the Third World, and Economic Delusion P. T. Bauer, Péter Tamás Bauer, 1981 Even in impoverished countries lacking material and human resources P T Bauer argues economic growth is possible under the right conditions These include a certain amount of thrift and enterprise among the people social mores and traditions which sustain them and a firm but limited government which permits market forces to work Challenging many views about development that are widely held Bauer takes on squarely the notion that egalitarianism is an appropriate goal He goes on to argue that the population explosion of less developed countries has on the whole been a voluntary phenomenon and that each new generation has lived better than its forebears He also critically examines the notion that the policies and practices of Western nations have been responsible for third world poverty In a major chapter he reviews the rationalizations for foreign aid and finds them weak while in another he shows that powerful political clienteles have developed in the Western nations supporting the foreign aid process and probably benefiting more from it than the alleged recipients Another chapter explores the link between the issue of Special Drawing Rights by the International Monetary Fund on the one hand and the aid process on the other Throughout the book Bauer carefully examines the evidence and the light it throws on the propositions of development Although the results of his analysis contradict the conventional wisdom of development economics anyone who is seriously concerned with the subject must take them into account
