process which took time In the 1930s Betjeman's work was tinted with modernism and traditionalism He found Victorian buildings funny and wrote much in praise of the Bauhaus style even though his early poetry was peppered with Victorian references This leaning was incorporated into a greater sense of purpose during World War 2 when he transformed himself from precious humorist into propagandist The resulting sense of cohesion grew when the dangers of post war urban redevelopment heightened the need to critique the present via the poetics of the past a mood which continued up to and beyond his gaining the Laureateship in 1972 This duty proved to be a millstone so the official poems are thus explored by the author more fully than hitherto The conclusion of looks back to Betjeman's 1960 verse autobiography Summoned by Bells which is seen as the apogee of his achievement and a snapshot of his identity Included here is the first critical appreciation of the lyrics embodied within the text which are taken as a map of the young poet's literary growth Larkin's 1959 question What exactly is Betjeman then leads to a final appraisal of his originality as evidenced by his glances towards postmodernism feminism and post colonialism The fact is that Betjeman never quite fits in anywhere He is always a square peg in a round hole or a round peg in a square hole often for the sheer enjoyment of so being In a sense his desire to be as non conformist as a Quaker meeting house makes him a radical rather than the reactionary that his interests imply He was a champion of beauty and the British Isles and clearly did much to make us see the worth of our Victorian forebears Greg Morse's book highlights this important facet of his work

Britain's Railways Through the Seasons David Goodyear, 2023-01-31 The four seasons pass by like a gliding ship each signalled by a transformation of changing colors and hues of light thus providing a form of marker to these passages of time Living in the temperate zone we experience four distinct seasons The railway scene reflects such in its own special character cold winter air enhances the bountiful steam escaping from the hissing steam locomotive impatiently awaiting its departure while autumn enchants with trees that exude a variety of hues which embellish any image of even the most mundane suburban train Springtime blossom and wild flowers bestow railway cuttings with a bounty of generous bright colors while coastal railways often look most inviting on warm sunny days as they pass alongside azure seas and golden beaches The seasons each add their own dimension for the photographer to encapsulate and railways passing through the ever changing landscape provide their own tribute to this inspirational tapestry As readers travel through each season so they are invited to share this awe and constant source of inspiration from nature's kaleidoscope of color Photographs are provided with captions and reflective commentary to enlighten the knowledgeable rail enthusiast alongside those who equally enjoy such a portrait of landscape and scenery through the seasons The range of photographs ranges from the mid 1980's to the present with the majority from the last two decades
