English as a Second Language in the Mainstream Constant Leung,Christine Davison,Bernard Mohan,2014-07-15 Since it was first established in the 1970's the Applied Linguistics and Language Study series has become a major force in the study of practical problems in human communication and language education Drawing extensively on empirical research and theoretical work in linguistics sociology psychology and education the series explores key issues in language acquisition and language use English as a Second Language learners are now a considerable and increasing part of the mainstream of urban schools in English speaking countries Beyond the learning of English this development raises broader questions of language as a medium of education in a multilingual multicultural environment Drawing on their experience as researchers and educators in Australia Canada and England the authors of English as a Second Language in the Mainstream present an up to date account of advances in theory and practice Their analysis of system wide provision however suggests that a truly responsive educational vision is lacking government policy is inadequate educational practices for ESL students are either underdeveloped or poorly coordinated with practices for other students and the rhetoric of reform fails to engage significantly with issues of teaching and resources The authors argue towards a more comprehensive vision which can acknowledge the relation between issues concerning ESL students and issues concerning the educational system as a whole which can coordinate reforms in ESL education with general reforms which can explicitly and systematically integrate language learning and content learning and which can build more positively on the multilingual and multicultural nature of modern education for all students

The Machinery of School Internationalisation in Action
 Laura C. Engel, Claire Maxwell, Miri Yemini, 2019-10-21 Drawing on scholarship from the field of internationalisation in higher education and other theoretical influences in education policy comparative education and sociology of education this edited collection offers a much needed extension of discussion and research into the compulsory schooling context In this book established and emerging scholars provide an authoritative set of conceptual tools for researchers in the field of internationalisation of compulsory schooling It provides an overview of the current knowledge base and ways in which future research could engage with gaps in understandings Through detailed case studies of the multiple forms of internationalisation present within schools and schooling systems the volume considers why and how processes of internationalisation are shaping compulsory schooling today This book will offer scholars and educators a clearer more coherent set of conceptual frameworks within which to position their work in sociology of education and international and comparative education helping to develop a more comprehensive understanding of the many ways compulsory schooling is being internationalised and with what consequences
