of a Sportsman Any one who has had occasion to pass from the Bolkhoff district to the Zhizdrin district has in all probability been struck by the sharp difference between the races of people in the Governments of Orel and Kaluga The Orel peasant is small of stature round shouldered surly gazes askance from beneath his brows lives in miserable huts of ash lumber discharges husbandry service for the lord of the manor does not occupy himself with trading eats bad food and wears plaited slippers of linden bark the Kaluga peasant who pays the lord of the manor a quit rent in lieu of personal husbandry service is tall of stature his gaze is bold and merry he is clean and white of face he deals in butter and tar and wears boots on festival days An Orel village we are speaking of the eastern part of the Orel Government is generally situated in the midst of tilled fields near a ravine somehow converted into a filthy pond About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Memoirs of a Sportsman
