Multicultural Counseling Toward Ethnic Cultural Relevance In Human Encounters:

Multicultural Counseling John M. Dillard,1983 Multicultural Counseling with Teenage Fathers Mark S. Kiselica,1995-08-03 An unplanned pregnancy in adolescence can be a crisis not only for young unmarried mothers but also for unmarried fathers of the same age group This landmark volume is the first in depth practical guide to counselling teenage fathers Taking a multicultural perspective the volume addresses issues that may have a bearing on a young man s adjustment to fatherhood such as his relationships with his parents his child the mother of his child her parents and his peers

Multicultural Counseling John M. Dillard,1983 Counseling Persons of African Descent Thomas A. Parham,2002-03-19 Though important strides have been made in the last three decades in the research efforts on African Americans there continues to be a lack of significant new understanding about the impact of the African American culture on the therapy process and dynamics This volume provides an in depth analysis of the counseling literature pertaining to African American clients Specifically the analysis includes a review of the different variables client counselor counseling process and assessment that have received the bulk of research attention This sets the stage for the presentation of a counseling model for African American clients The authors discuss philosophical premises upon which the model is based and suggest specific counseling strategies and interventions related to the model Case study material is integrated throughout the chapters focusing on individual and group approaches This volume is an important work for counseling professionals as well as for students in social work and counseling programs Minority Children and Adolescents in Therapy Man Keung Ho,1992-02-04 This comprehensive examination of therapy with children from ethnic minorities introduces a culturally relevant theoretical framework to aid appropriate assessment and therapeutic guidelines for work with such clients After an introductory discussion of principles to be considered with ethnic minority children and adolescents the author systematically applies these principles to therapy Distinctive cultural values of child development and family functioning of each ethnic group discussed are explored To illustrate cultural specific intervention strategies Ho includes several case vignettes

Black Issues in the Therapeutic Process Isha McKenzie-Mavinga,2009-01-15 The impact of slavery and colonialism still reverberates in black and ethnic minority communities but counsellors are often given little training on how to respond effectively to the profound effects on their clients Inspired by the author s own research this book explores creatively how the therapeutic relationship with people of African or Caribbean heritage can better take account of such deep seated intercultural issues Offering real life stories examples and poetry extracts the author reflects on students and practitioners understanding of their own connections with black issues and draws on layers of experience to give practical advice Filled with thoughtful and supportive guidance the book Provides direct techniques to assist empathic therapeutic work with the hurt of racism Explores questions that have been asked by practising and trainee therapists Develops readers understanding of key issues in a global and historical context Encourages practitioners to broaden their experience of working with black issues This unique and engaging book offers invaluable insight for all students counsellors and health care professionals who are seeking better understanding in their work with people of black African Caribbean origin Multiple Minority Identities Reginald Nettles,Rochelle Balter,2011-09-16 V ery few texts cover such a broad range of diversity and intersecting identities PsycCRITIQUES This important volume chronicles a shift from the old multicultural paradigm that depicts members of a minority group as being limited to racial and ethnic categories to a modern definition of minorities Moreover many of these stigmatized individuals belong to more than one minority group resulting in stigmatization not only outside of their identified primary group but also within it Seeking to address the complex problems of individuals who claim more than one minority identification the volume culls the accumulated wisdom of leaders in the field of minority research and practice and integrates the three major areas of multicultural and diversity studies in a single volume It addresses social identity power and privilege AIDS multiculturalism as it relates to gender as well as ethnicity It also discusses therapeutic approaches supervisory issues and interpersonal issues for practitioners It provides self administered inventories to help clinicians assess their need for additional supervision or training Key Features Integrates ethnic and racial minority issues gender and sexual orientation studies and disability studies all in one volume Addresses diversity within and between cultural and minority groups Presents the latest findings from experts in minority research and practice Establishes a new paradigm for understanding the impact of membership in a minority group Offers practical advice bolstered by case studies Multiple AIDS-related Loss David Nord,1997 The aim of this book is to legitimize the pain experienced by many of the survivors of AIDS by normalizing the abnormal experience of survivors It argues that multiple AIDS related loss means not only losing one loved one to AIDS but also has Handbook of Racial/ethnic Minority Counseling Research Joseph G. Ponterotto,J. Manuel Casas,1991 Counseling Across Cultures Paul Pedersen,1989 New edition of a standard text for graduate students incorporates the latest research in the field Among new topics added are racism gender ethics legal and illegal immigration Specific problems of various ethnic groups including refugees are highlighted Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Contemporary Ethnic Families in the United States Nijole Vaicaitis Benokraitis,2002 Designed to increase readers awareness of healthful family processes across and within ethnic households this book features 45 accessible non technical articles on 9 substantive family related issues Organized by topics rather than ethnic groups it features selections that examine the intersections of social class age sexual orientation gender differences and intragroup variations It provides selections that are representative of the increasing heterogeneity of diversity of contemporary ethnic families in the U S Features representative articles on five ethnic groups African Americans including African and Caribbean families Latinos including Cuban Americans Mexican Americans and Puerto Rican Americans Asian Americans including Korean Americans Japanese Americans Chinese Americans Filipino Americans Pacific Islanders Vietnamese Americans Cambodian Americans Indian Americans and Laotian Americans American Indians and Middle Eastern Americans including

Arab Americans and Muslim families Explores the ethnic families characteristics variations and dynamics in terms of socialization gender roles marriage and communication parenting work and discrimination social class violence and other family crises separation and divorce and family caregiving and aging For professionals in healthcare and practitioners who work with ethnic families

Multicultural Issues in Counseling Courtland C. Lee, 2018-08-22 With an emphasis on direct application to practice this graduate level text offers strategies for working with diverse client groups in a variety of settings Introductory chapters build a foundation for cross cultural counseling with discussions on current theory the ongoing pursuit of multicultural competence and the complexities of intersecting identities Next 15 chapters designed to help counselors develop their knowledge about and skills with the following populations are presented African Americans American Indians Arab Americans Asian and Pacific Islanders Economically disadvantaged clients Immigrants Latinx LGBTQ clients Men Military personnel Multiracial individuals Older adults People with disabilities White people of European descent Women Detailed case studies in this section illustrate real world perspectives on assessment and treatment for an increased understanding of culturally responsive counseling The final section of the book focuses on ethics and social justice issues Requests for digital versions from ACA can be found on www.wiley.com To purchase print copies please visit the ACA website Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to publications@counseling.org
