Social Studies for the Twenty-First Century Jack Zevin, 2013-08-21 Social Studies for the Twenty First Century Third Edition weaves theory, curriculum, methods and assessment into a comprehensive model to guide middle and secondary teachers in setting objectives, planning lessons, units and courses, choosing classroom strategies and constructing tests for some of the field's most popular and enduring programs It offers practical, interesting, exciting ways to teach social studies and a multitude of instructional and professional resources for teachers The text includes separate chapters on teaching each of the major areas of the social studies curriculum Its reflective and integrative framework emphasizes building imagination, insight and critical thinking into everyday classrooms encourages problem solving, attitudes and behavior and provokes analysis, reflection and debate Throughout the text all aspects of curriculum and instruction are viewed from a tripartite perspective that divides social studies instruction into didactic, factual, reflective, analytical and affective/judgmental components These three components are seen as supporting one another, building the groundwork for taking stands on issues past and present At the center is the author's belief that the heart and soul of social studies instruction perhaps all teaching lies in stimulating the production of ideas, looking at knowledge from others' viewpoints and formulating for oneself a set of goals, values and beliefs that can be explained and justified in open discussion New in the Third Edition: Summaries of recent research particularly in history education that have been published since the last edition Increased attention to social studies standards as well as those for civics, economics and history An enriched view of teaching history and social studies with a wide array of sources ranging from material objects through primary sources on to art, music and literature Tightening of the text to make it shorter and more pointed including a few provocative new ideas

More and better organized ideas for classroom group and individual activities and cooperative learning Expanded appendices on instructional resources include the rapidly growing use of websites New visuals that are better integrated into the text and which teachers can use in their classrooms as lessons in visual literacy and Continued efforts to inject a bit of humor and self criticism into a field of education most students view as a sizeable trunk of dead and deadly facts Social Studies for the Twenty First Century Third Edition is a primary text for secondary and middle social studies methods courses Rural Education for the Twenty-first Century Kai A. Schafft,Alecia Youngblood Jackson,2010 A collection of essays examining the various social cultural and economic intersections of rural place and global space as viewed through the lens of education Explores practices that offer both problems and possibilities for the future of rural schools and communities in the United States and abroad Provided by publisher Comprehensive Multicultural Education in the 21st Century Brandi Hinnant-Crawford,C. Spencer Platt,Christopher Newman,Adriel A. Hilton,2019-04-01 Multicultural education has become its own discipline developed on the shoulders of the work of giants who argued its merit during the attacks of opponents who believed assimilation was the purpose of state sponsored education In an age of rising populism and nationalism throughout the Western world again questioned is the merit of multicultural education In the shadows of Brexit and an America First agenda where migration patterns across the world have led to demographic shifts it is evident even in the richest countries in the world that gaps in opportunity and subsequently achievement still exist Disparities in achievement lead some to question whether multicultural education works and others to revert to old notions that ethnically and linguistically marginalized students are in fact deficient The scholars here believe in the untapped potential of all children and illuminate how educational structures have muffled the cultivation of that potential Contributors argue the goals of multicultural education have not been achieved in part due to the piecemeal application of its tenants The scholarship in this volume illustrates the state of multicultural education and articulates what educators committed to equity inclusion and a more just society must do to ensure the goals of multicultural education survive in the current age The authors of these chapters bridge foundational knowledge with contemporary understandings making the work both accessible for novices and beneficial for the authorities on multicultural education With the diverse cast of contributors and topics ranging from mathematics instruction to discipline practices this volume provides thoughtful discourse on issues of access access to curricular content access to opportunities to learn as well as impediments to access Containing chapters that speak to discipline specific pedagogical practices the structures of schooling teacher education and research methodologies the collected work encourages scholars and practitioners to not be discouraged in the age of retrenchment Globalization, Nationalism, and Music Education in the Twenty-First Century in Greater China Wai-Chung Ho,2025-10-01 Globalization Nationalism and Music Education in the Twenty First Century in Greater China examines the recent developments in school education and music education in Greater China Mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan and the relationship between and integration of national cultural identity and globalization in their respective school curriculums Regardless of their common history and cultural backgrounds in recent decades these localities have experienced divergent political cultural and educational structures Through an analysis of the literature official curriculum documents approved music textbooks and a survey questionnaire and in depth interviews with music teachers this book also examines the ways in which policies for national identity formation and globalization interact to complement and contradict each other in the context of music education in respect to national and cultural values in the three territories Wai Chung Ho s substantive research interests include the sociology of music China s education system and the comparative study of East Asian music education Her research focuses on education and development with an emphasis on the impact of the interplay between globalization nationalization and localization on cultural development and school music education

DomNwachukwu, 2019-05-13 Multicultural Education in an Age of Globalization Compelling Issues for Engagement starts out with a discussion of western colonization of the 19th and 20th centuries and the residual effects of colonialism in the forms of colonial mindset of power dominance and white racial superiority that have continued to challenge the hopes of a peaceful and more harmonious exchange and interaction in the 21st century global communities Issues such as white privilege and cultural humility are discussed in depth Subsequently the idea of globalization and the concept of global citizenship are also addressed in light of their implications for multicultural education curriculum and practice in the 21st century classrooms The book identifies and discusses compelling issues that must be carefully addressed as we undertake multicultural education in the 21st century educational setting whether in the K 12 or higher education setting Such issues include Affirmative Action Gender Equity issues Religion in the public school setting and the problem of Poverty in the 21st century societies

TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY DYNAMICS OF MULTICULTURALISM Martin Guevara Urbina, 2014-09-19 In the twenty first century few studies have delineated the U S multiculturalism story beyond black and white to include the truths and realities of other Americans over time resulting in highly skewed academic publications While the white experience and to a lesser extent the black experience has been well documented the brown experience for instance has been neglected minimized or excluded from the pages of history Clearly there has been a great need for researchers to examine the multiple intertwining forces of historical and contemporary movements defining shaping and governing the everyday experience of America s people In the face of centuries of manipulation exploitation oppression and sometimes brutal violence blacks browns reds yellows and others are still here fighting not only for ethnic and racial tolerance but also for equality justice respect and human dignity In fact despite the long legacy of hate violence and oppression against America s most disadvantaged communities particularly undocumented people the minority population will continue to grow and with pressing demographic shifts ethnic and racial minorities will soon become the new face of America In delineating the dynamics of multiculturalism over the years contributing authors illustrate that the United States is nowhere near a post racial society and thus we must prioritize equality justice and multiculturalism if the U S is in fact going to have a balanced system Globally the United States must actively engage in significant and positive social transformation in the new millennium if the U S is going to be situated and reflective of a post racial society in the twenty first century Twenty First Century Dynamics of Multiculturalism will be of benefit to professionals in the fields of sociology history minority studies Mexican American Chicano studies ethnic Latino studies law political science and also those concerned with sociolegal issues
