Rosenberg explores Latin American artistic production concerned with the possibility of justice after the establishment rise and ebb of the human rights narrative around the turn of the last century Prior to this key literary and artistic projects articulated Latin American modernity by attempting to address and supplement the state's inability to embody and enact justice Rosenberg argues that since the topics of emancipation identity and revolution no longer define social concerns Latin American artistic production is now situated at a point where the logic and conditions of marketization intersect with the notion of rights through which subjects define themselves politically Rosenberg grounds his study in discussions of literature film and visual art novels of political re foundations fictions of truth and reconciliation visual arts based on cases of disappearance films about police violence artistic collaborations with police forces and judicial documentaries In doing so he provides a highly original examination of the paradoxical demands on current artistic works to produce both capital value and foster human dignity

Espectros Alberto Ribas-Casasayas, Amanda L. Petersen, 2015-12-24 Espectros is a compilation of original scholarly studies that presents the first volume length exploration of the spectral in literature film and photography of Latin America Spain and the Latino diaspora In recent decades scholarship in deconstructionist hauntology trauma studies affect in image theory and a renewed interest in the Gothic genre has given rise to a Spectral Studies approach to the study of narrative Haunting the spectral and the effects of the unseen carry a special weight in contemporary Latin American and Spanish cultures referred to in the book as Transhispanic cultures due to the ominous legacy of authoritarian governments and civil wars as well as the imposition of the unseen yet tangible effects of global economics and neoliberal policies Ribas and Petersen's detailed introductory analysis grounds haunting as a theoretical tool for literary and cultural criticism in the Transhispanic world with an emphasis on the contemporary period from the end of the Cold War to the present The chapters in this volume explore haunting from a diversity of perspectives in particular engaging haunting as a manifestation of trauma absence and mourning The editors carefully distinguish the collective cultural dimension of historical trauma from the individual psychological experience of the aftermath of a violent history always taking into account unresolved social justice issues The volume also addresses the association of the spectral photographic image with the concept of haunting because of the photograph's ability to reveal a presence that is traditionally absent or has been excluded from hegemonic representations of society The volume concludes with a series of studies that address the unseen effects and progressive deterioration of the social fabric as a result of a globalized economy and neoliberal policies from the modernization of the nation state to present

A Companion to Latin American Women Writers Brigida M. Pastor, Lloyd Hughes Davies, 2012 This volume offers a critical study of a representative selection of Latin American women writers who have made major contributions to all literary genres and represent a wide range of literary perspectives and styles This volume offers a critical study of a representative selection of Latin American women writers who have made major contributions to all literary genres and represent a wide range of literary perspectives and styles Many of these women have attained the highest literary honours Gabriela Mistral won the Nobel Prize in 1945 Clarice Lispector attracted the critical attention of theorists working mainly outside the Hispanic area others have made such telling contributions to particular strands of literature that their names are immediately evocative of specific currents or styles Elena Poniatowska is associated with testimonial writing Isabel Allende and Laura Esquivel are known for the magical realism of their texts others such as Juana de Ibarbourou and Laura Restrepo remain relatively unknown despite their contributions to erotic poetry and to postcolonial prose fiction respectively The distinctiveness of this volume lies in its attention to writers from widely differing historical and social contexts and to the diverse theoretical approaches adopted by the authors Br gida M Pastor teaches Latin American literature and film at the University of Glasgow Her publications include Fashioning Cuban Feminism and Beyond El discurso de Gertrudis G mez de Avellaneda Identidad Femenina y Otridad and Discursos Caribenhos Historia Literatura e Cinema Lloyd Hughes Davies teaches Spanish American Literature at Swansea University His publications include Isabel Allende La casa de los esp ritus and Projections of Peronism in Argentine Autobiography Biography and Fiction At the Edge of History José De Piérola, 2007 Armed Actors Kees Koonings, Dirk Kruijt, 2013-04-04 In this volume Latin Americanist scholars explore the recent evidence relating to the ways in which partial state failure in the continent is interacting with new types of organized violence thereby undermining the process of democratic consolidation that has characterized Latin America over the past two decades This new violence stems as this book's case studies from Colombia Peru Argentina Venezuela Brazil and other countries including El Salvador show from a heterogeneous variety of social actors including drug mafias peasant militias and urban gangs collectively referred to as actores armados as well as state related actors like the police military intelligence agencies and paramilitary forces These armed actors are reproducing organized social and political violence beyond the confines of democratic politics and civil society The results as the authors warn include both governance voids domains where the legitimate state is effectively absent in the face of armed actors prevailing by force and an erosion of the capacity and willingness of state officials themselves to abide by the rule of law These tendencies in turn pave the way for a possible reinstallation of authoritarian regimes under the control of politicized armies or at the very least the spread of state violence in one form or another Why these tendencies need to be taken so seriously is the authors argue because of the deeper social roots underlying them notably the failure of neoliberal economic policies and weakened state structures to deliver the jobs standards of living and social services every democratic citizenry has a right to expect The Argentinian collapse and persistent Colombian and Venezuelan crises receive special attention in this regard Estudios críticos sobre la novela colombiana, 1990-2004 Alvaro Pineda Botero, 2005 SPANISH 22XB and XC (la MULTITUD ERRANTE) Maria Ester Rincon Calero, 2018-01-19 La multitud errante Laura Restrepo, 2016-08-01 Cuando el nivel de la escritura llega hasta donde lo lleva Laura Restrepo hay que quitarse el sombrero Jos Saramago Literature, Testimony and Cinema in Contemporary Colombian Culture Rory O'Bryen, 2008 The first in depth examination of a representative range of contemporary Colombian cultural engagements with the conflicts known simply as La Violencia that began in Colombia in the late 1940s Guerras y paz en Colombia Carmiña Navia Velasco, 2005 Human Rights in Colombian Literature and Cultural Production Carlos Gardeazábal Bravo, Kevin G. Guerrieri, 2022-04-28 This volume explores how Colombian novelists artists performers activists musicians and others seek to enact to perform to stage to represent human rights situations that are otherwise enacted discursively that is made public or official in juridical and political realms in which justice often remains an illusory or promised future In order to probe how cultural production embodies the tensions between the abstract universality of human rights and the materiality of violations on individual human bodies and on determined groups the volume asks the following questions How does the transmission of historical traumas of Colombia's past through human rights narratives in various forms inform the debates around the subjects of rights truth and memory remembrance and forgetting and the construction of citizenship through solidarity and collective struggles for justice What are the different roles taken by cultural products in the interstices among rights laws and social justice within different contexts of state violence and states of exception What are alternative perspectives sources and micro histories from Colombia of the creation evolution and practice of human rights How does the human rights discourse interface with notions of environmental justice especially in the face of global climate change regional neo extractivism the implementation of megaprojects and ongoing post accord thefts and re appropriations of land

Through a wide range of disciplinary lenses the different chapters explore counter hegemonic concepts of human rights decolonial options struggling against oppression and market logic and alternative discourses of human dignity and emancipation within the pluriverse

El ethos de las víctimas de desplazamiento en la narrativa colombiana Tatiana Saavedra Flórez, María Cristina Sánchez León, James Cortés Tique, Adriana Arias Henao, Óscar Herrera Erazo, 2022-09-02

La investigación El ethos de las víctimas de desplazamiento en la narrativa colombiana es una confirmación de la importancia de la creación de ficciones que permitan nombrar lo innombrable a propósito del reconocimiento de la experiencia de desplazamiento como un quiebre una desgarradura colectiva que nos reclama como sociedad Somos una nación desplazada y esa es la cara que nos devuelven las cinco obras narrativas estudiadas en esta investigación El exilio interior y el desplazamiento como cautiverio la errancia como representación de la crisis de identidad del sujeto el cuerpo como lugar político y el destierro sin desplazamiento la experiencia del desalojo como renuncia y resistencia como una forma de vaciar el escenario de la guerra la delgada línea que separa las víctimas y los victimarios en un país en el que la violencia estructural y la violencia cultural alimentan las violencias directas son algunas de las imágenes que encarnan los personajes de estas obras Con horror y con dolor estas historias construyen una poética del desplazamiento en Colombia en la que las víctimas son ubicadas entre lo aberrante y lo natural entre lo anormal y lo regular entre lo monstruoso y lo extraordinario

The Oxford Handbook of the Latin American Novel Juan E. De Castro, Ignacio López-Calvo, 2023 The Latin American novel burst onto the international literary scene with the Boom era led by Julio Cortázar Gabriel García Márquez Carlos Fuentes and Mario Vargas Llosa and has influenced writers throughout the world ever since García Márquez and Vargas Llosa each received the Nobel Prize in literature and many of the best known contemporary novelists are inspired by the region's fiction. Indeed, magical realism, the style associated with García Márquez, has left a profound imprint on African American, African Asian, Anglophone Caribbean, and Latinx writers. Furthermore, post-Boom literature continues to garner interest from the novels of Roberto Bolaño to the works of César Aira and Chico Buarque to those of younger novelists such as Juan Gabriel Vásquez, Alejandro Zambra, and Valeria Luiselli. Yet for many readers, the Latin American novel is often read in a piecemeal manner, delinked from the traditions, authors, and social contexts that help explain its evolution. The Oxford Handbook of the Latin American Novel draws literary, historical, and social connections so that readers will come away understanding this literature as a rich and compelling canon. In forty-five chapters by leading and innovative scholars, the Handbook provides a comprehensive introduction helping readers to see the region's intrinsic heterogeneity; for only with a broader view can one fully appreciate García Márquez or Bolaño. This volume charts the literary tradition of the Latin American novel from its beginnings during colonial times, its development during the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth century, and its flourishing from the 1960s onward. Furthermore, the Handbook explores the region's representations of identity, narrative trends, and authors that make this literature so diverse and fascinating, reflecting on the Latin American novel's position in world literature.

The aim is to provide a unique, thorough scholarly survey of women writers and their works in Latin America.
