Desmond,1902 Becoming Noise

Music Stephen Graham, 2023-01-12 Becoming Noise Music tells the story of noise music in its first 50 years using a focus on the music's sound and aesthetics to do so. Part One focuses on the emergence and stabilization of noise music across the 1980s and 1990s whilst Part Two explores noise in the twenty-first century. Each chapter contextualizes the story of the music under discussion before describing and interpreting its sound and aesthetic. Stephen Graham uses the idea of becoming to capture the unresolved dialectical tension between noise disorder and musical order in the music itself, the experiences listeners often have in response, and the overarching story of becoming of the genre that has taken place in this first fifty or so years. The book therefore doubles up on becoming: it is about both the becoming it identifies in and the larger genre-making process of the becoming of noise music. On the latter count, it is the first scholarly book to focus in such depth and breadth on the sound and story of noise music as opposed to contextual questions of politics, history, or sociology. Relevant to both musicology and noise audiences, Becoming Noise Music investigates a vital but analytically underexplored area of avant-garde musical practice.

Detecting Women Philippa Gates, 2011-04-22 Finalist for the 2012 Edgar Award in the Best Critical Biographical Category presented by the Mystery Writers of America. In this extensive and authoritative study of over 300 films, Philippa Gates explores the woman detective figure from her pre-cinematic origins in nineteenth-century detective fiction through her many incarnations throughout the history of Hollywood cinema. Through the lens of theories of gender, genre, and stardom, and engaging with the critical concepts of performativity, masquerade, and feminism, Detecting Women analyzes constructions of the female investigator in the detective genre and focuses on the evolution of her representation from 1929 to today. While a popular assumption is that images of women have become increasingly positive over this period, Gates argues that the most progressive and feminist models of the female detective exist in mainstream film's more peripheral products such as 1930s B pictures and 1970s blaxploitation films. Offering revisions and new insights into peripheral forms of mainstream film, Gates explores this space that allows a fantasy of resolution of social anxieties about crime and, more interestingly, gender in the 20th and early 21st centuries. The author's innovative, engaging, and capacious approach to this important figure within feminist film history breaks new ground in the field of gender and film studies.

Sight and Sound, 2006 Women Who Love Men Who Kill Sheila Isenberg, 2021-10-19 The engrossing, thoroughly researched look at women who are in romantic relationships with incarcerated men, fully updated with twenty-first-century cases. Publishers Weekly. In 1991, Sheila Isenberg's classic study Women Who Love Men Who Kill asked the provocative question: Why do women fall in love with convicted murderers? Now Isenberg returns to the same question in the age of smart phones, social media, mass shootings, and modern prison dating. The result is a compelling psychological study of prison passion in the new millennium. Isenberg conducts extensive interviews with women who seek relationships with convicted killers, as well as conversations with psychiatrists, social workers, and prison officials. She shows that many of these women know exactly what they are getting into yet they are willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of a love without hope.

promise or consummation This edition of Women Who Love Men Who Kill includes gripping new case studies and an absorbing look at how the digital age is revolutionizing this phenomenon Meet the young women writing fan fiction featuring America's most sadistic murderers the killer serving consecutive life sentences for strangling his wife and smothering his toddler daughters and the women who visit him in prison the high powered journalist who fell in love and risked it all for Pharma Bro Martin Shkreli and many other women absorbed in online and real life dalliances with their killer men
