Nuremberg Interviews:

The Nuremberg Interviews Leon Goldensohn, 2007-12-18 During the Nuremberg trials Leon Goldensohn a U S Army psychiatrist monitored the mental health of two dozen German leaders charged with carrying out genocide These recorded conversations went largely unexamined for more than fifty years until Robert Gellately one of the premier historians of Nazi Germany made them available to the public in this remarkable collection Here are interviews with the likes of Hans Frank Hermann Goering Ernst Kaltenbrunner and Joachim von Ribbentrop the highest ranking Nazi officials in the Nuremberg jails Here too are interviews with lesser known officials essential to the inner workings of the Third Reich Candid and often shockingly truthful The Nuremberg Interviews is a profound addition to our understanding of the Nazi mind and mission

The Nuremberg Interviews Leon Goldensohn, 2004 Annotation In 1946 with the Nuremberg trials underway Leon Goldensohn a U S army psychiatrist was given the task of interviewing the two dozen German leaders who were under indictment as well as many of the defense and prosecution witnesses The conversations were then left largely unexamined for more than 50 years Now Robert Gellately one of the premier historians of Nazi Germany has transcribed edited and annotated 33 of the interviews and makes them available to the public for the first time in this volume Here are interviews with the highest ranking Nazi officials in the Nuremberg jails including Hans Frank Hermann Goering Ernest Kaltenbrunner and Joachim von Ribbentrop Here too are interviews with the lesser known officials who were nonetheless essential to the workings of the Third Reich Goldensohn was a particularly astute interviewer his training as a psychiatrist leading him to probe the motives the rationales and the skewing of morality that allowed these men to enact an unfathomable evil Often shockingly candid these interviews are deeply disturbing in their illumination of an ideology gone mad Each interview is annotated with biographical information and footnotes that place the man and his actions in their historical context They are a profoundly important addition to our understanding of the Nazi mind and mission

The Nuremberg Interviews Leon Goldensohn, 2007 In 1946 with the Nuremberg trials underway Leon Goldensohn a US army psychiatrist was given the task of interviewing the German leaders who were under indictment Here each interview is presented placing the man and his actions in their historical context providing insights into the Nazi mentality and the nature of evil

War Criminals on Trial Damien Scalia, 2025-10-16

This book critically examines the practice of international criminal justice based on the experience of war criminals who have been tried for their crimes Presenting the perspectives of those commonly referred to as genocidaires war criminals or criminals against humanity this book presents their experience of international criminal justice and its impact on them By presenting their points of view and their feelings about justice it becomes possible to describe the way in which this branch of justice is apprehended by the perpetrators of mass crimes to produce testimony about the lived penal experience and to analyse the functioning of this institution through a new prism that of the persons standing trial From this perspective a new analysis of international justice is produced one that reveals its aporias as it demonstrates the difficulties international criminal justice faces insofar as the justifications that support it are not all confirmed and as some of the expectations placed on it are shown to be difficult to reach if not clearly unattainable Based on over 60 interviews carried out over a period of twelve years with persons tried by the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda this book offers a unique analysis of the working of international criminal justice This interdisciplinary book will appeal to those with relevant interests in law criminology sociology and criminology The Nazi and the Psychiatrist Jack El-Hai,2013-09-10 NOW THE MAJOR MOTION PICTURE NUREMBERG In 1945 an improbable relationship between the fallen Reichsmarschall Hermann Goering and ambitious US Army physician Douglas Kelley becomes a hazardous quest into the nature of evil amid the devastation of Europe at the end of World War II In 1945 after his capture at the end of the Second World War Hermann G ring arrived at an American run detention center in war torn Luxembourg accompanied by sixteen suitcases and a red hatbox Joining him in the detention center were fifty one senior Nazis of whom G ring was the dominant figure To ensure that the captives were fit for trial at Nuremberg the US army sent an ambitious army psychiatrist Captain Douglas M Kelley to supervise and evaluate them To Kelley it was the professional opportunity of a lifetime to discover a distinguishing trait among these arch criminals that would mark them as psychologically different from the rest of humanity But Kelley s quest would prove to be a dangerous one The more he spoke with the Nazi captives the more he began to understand and appreciate their perspective and the more he would fall for their charms Ethical Rehabilitation After the Holocaust Paul E. Wilson,2024-08-29 Genocide murders innocents in a society and it leaves behind moral corruption and societal twistedness A genocide like the Holocaust can happen only if the normative ethical commitments to honor the fundamental right to life are compromised or abandoned When a society lives through a genocide the moral imagination of peoples and collectives their ethical behaviors and even the underlying social contract become twisted and broken Societies and individuals caught within a genocide need an ethical rehabilitation to move a post genocidal society out of its ethical degradation This book discusses the steps of transitional justice as ethical ways to move individuals and societies away from lingering injustices and toward an equilibrium of justice A History of the Laws of War: Volume 2 Alexander Gillespie,2011-10-07 This unique new work of reference traces the origins of the modern laws of warfare from the earliest times to the present day Relying on written records from as far back as 2400 BCE and using sources ranging from the Bible to Security Council Resolutions the author pieces together the history of a subject which is almost as old as civilisation itself The author shows that as long as humanity has been waging wars it has also been trying to find ways of legitimising different forms of combatants and ascribing rules to them protecting civilians who are either inadvertently or intentionally caught up between them and controlling the use of particular classes of weapons that may be used in times of conflict Thus it is that this work is divided into three substantial parts Volume 1 on the laws affecting combatants and captives Volume 2 on civilians and Volume 3 on the law of arms control This second book on civilians examines four different topics The first topic deals with the targetting of civilians in times of war This discussion is one which has been largely governed by the developments of technologies which have allowed projectiles to be discharged over ever greater areas and attempts to prevent their indiscriminate utilisation have struggled to keep pace The second topic concerns the destruction of the natural environment with particular regard to the utilisation of starvation as a method of warfare and unlike the first topic this one has rarely changed over thousands of years although contemporary practices are beginning to represent a clear break from tradition The third topic is concerned with the long standing problems of civilians under the occupation of opposing military forces where the practices of genocide collective punishments and or reprisals and rape have occurred The final topic in this volume is about the theft or destruction of the property of the enemy in terms of either pillage or the intentional devastation of the cultural property of the opposition As a work of reference this set of three books is unrivalled and will be of immense benefit to scholars and practitioners researching and advising on the laws of warfare It also tells a story which throws fascinating new light on the history of international law and on the history of warfare itself

Visualizing Atrocity Valerie Hartouni, 2012-08-20 Taking Hannah Arendt's account of the 1961 trial of Nazi official Adolf Eichmann as its point of departure this book reassesses the myths that shape our understanding of the Nazi genocide as well as totalitarianism's broader features These myths are tied to the atrocity imagery that emerged with the liberation of the concentration camps and played an evidentiary role in the post war trials of perpetrators At the 1945 Nuremberg Tribunal particular practices of looking were first established and later institutionalized through Eichmann's trial in Jerusalem as part of the fabric of historical fact These ways of seeing have come to constitute a visual rhetoric that drives contemporary mythmaking about how we know genocide and what is permitted to count as such In contrast Arendt's claims about the banality of evil work to disrupt this visual rhetoric Hitler's war in the East, 1941-1945 Rolf-Dieter Müller, 2009
