Nehaniv, 1999-04-28 This volume brings together the work of researchers from various disciplines where aspects of descriptive mathematical computational or design knowledge concerning metaphor and analogy especially in the context of agents have emerged The book originates from an international workshop on Computation for Metaphors Analogy and Agents CMAA held in Aizu Japan in April 1998 The 19 carefully reviewed and revised papers presented together with an introduction by the volume editor are organized into sections on Metaphor and Blending Embodiment Interaction Imitation Situated Mapping in Space and Time Algebraic Engineering Respecting Structure and a Sea Change in Viewpoints Apart from the Crowd Anna McPartlin, 2008-08-12 In a little Irish town like Kenmare there's no need to worry whether people will discover your secrets They already have For Mary that means being remembered for her tragic losses even if she'd rather get on with her life For her cousin Ivan as close as a brother the gossip is all about how his wife took the kids and ran off with her new lover For Mary's friend Penny it's an old romance that didn't work out quite right and a current affair with a bottle of vodka Then Sam Sullivan rents the cottage next door to Mary and within hours the whole town is talking about the film star handsome American When Sam hurts his back while helping his new neighbor and spends the next week confined to a mattress on her floor gossip runs rampant But neither Kenmare nor Mary know about the secrets Sam is so successfully hiding For Mary's circle of friends Sam's arrival marks more than one change And Mary whose unlucky history has kept her apart from the crowd much of her life has finally found a man with whom she feels she might truly connect But so long as both are captive to memories they dare not reveal the past is a barrier that will keep them forever alone In this powerful novel Anna McPartlin perfectly captures the drama the emotion and the laughter of a small Irish community for those who fit in and those who don't Apart from the Crowd mixes wit and insight to create an engrossing tale that will keep you reading to the very last page Pack Up the Moon Anna McPartlin,2011-07-01 Critically acclaimed in Ireland Pack Up the Moon is an emotionally engaging romantic novel about a young Dublin woman who rebuilds her life after a tragic event Fresh insightful and moving this novel tackles serious topics with an enchanting blend of honesty and humor Splinters of Light Rachael Herron,2015-03-03 From the acclaimed author of Pack Up the Moon comes a poignant and beautiful novel about love loss and the unbreakable bonds of family particularly those between mothers daughters and sisters Ten years ago Nora Glass started writing essays about being a single mother of a six year old daughter Her weekly column made her a household name and over the years her fans have watched Ellie grow from a toddler to a teenager But now Nora is facing a problem that can't be overcome Diagnosed with a devastating disease that will eventually take away who she is she is scared for herself but even more frightened about what this will mean for her sixteen year old daughter Now Nora has no choice but to let go of her hard won image as a competent self assured woman and turn to the one person who has always relied on her her twin sister Mariana Nora and Mariana couldn't be more different from one another and they've always had a complicated relationship But now the two sisters will have to summon the strength to help them all get through a future none of them could have ever imagined while uncovering the joy and beauty that was always underneath Writing in Action Paul Mills,1996 Writing in Action provides a step by step practical guide to the process of writing Although the emphasis is on creative writing fiction poetry and drama it also covers autobiographical writing and the writing of reports and essays Because this is a book about process rather than product Writing in Action also looks at the practice of adaptation and editing This book is crammed with practical suggestions and self evaluation exercises as well as invaluable tips on style sentence structure punctuation and vocabulary It is an ideal course text for students and an invaluable guide to self study Pack Up the Moon Rachael Herron,2014 Stylistics and the Teaching of Literature H.G. Widdowson,2014-06-06 This volume forms part of the Applied Linguistics and Language Study collection that looks at the field of analysing and appreciating literary texts First published in 1975 this text makes a considerable contribution to extending our view of the principles underlying language teaching and curriculum design The author begins by distinguishing the idea that discipline from the pedagogic subject in order to demonstrate that stylistics is Janus like in the way it can be treated for example at school or university as a way from linguistics to literary study or the reverse To understand this bidirectionality he explains distinctions between the linguist's text and the critic's messages by introducing the concept of discourse as a means through which to understand the communicative value of passages of language Stylistics in a Second Language Context Rubina Kamran,2009-06 In most institutions the study of second language literary works has become a dead exercise of learning facts figures and critical opinions about those works The author feels that the judicious use of approaches suggested in stylistics would help second language students to judge things for themselves in a context not naturally attuned to the underlying assumptions of that literature These things would include the use of language thus helping the ESL learner to develop an understanding of the dynamics of the language The Door of Death Wide Open Jules Guyard,1925 Poetic Discourse S. D. S. Chhibber,1987 Colpetty People Ashok Ferry,2017-04-17 In this extraordinary debut Ashok Ferry chronicles in a gently probing voice the journeys of characters seeking something beyond the barriers of nations and generations His tales of social climbing Sri Lankans of the pathos of immigration of rich people with poor taste of ice cream karma of innocent love eternity and more take us to Colombo s nouveau riche hoity toity returnees ladies with buttery skin and square fingernails old fashioned aristocrats and the poor mortals trapped between them Ferry s stories comprise characters that are serious and fine and upstanding and infinitely dull but also others like young John John who loses his childhood somewhere high up in the air between Asmara and Rome the maid Agnes of God whose mango sucking teeth fly out at you like bats out of the mouth of a cave Ashoka the immigrant who embodies his Sri Lankan identity only on the bus ride between home and work and Professor Jayaweera who finds sterile freedoms caged in the unbending straight lines of Western Justice Absurd sad scathing and generous but mostly wickedly funny Colpetty People presents modern Sri Lankans as they navigate worlds between Ceylon and the West San Toy, Or, The Emperor's Own Sidney Jones,1899 Love in the Tsunami Ashok Ferrey,2012 The Newberry House Magazine ,1893 25 Plays from The Fire This Time Festival Kelley Nicole Girod,2022-02-10 While the past decade proved to be some of the most tumultuous times in modern US history the Black community has been resilient opening up dialogues and sustaining advocacy Nowhere has this been more apparent than at the Obie Award winning The Fire This Time Festival in New York City Since being founded in 2009 this theater festival has become the destination for emerging and early career playwrights from the African diaspora Inequality in education and healthcare skewed and negative images of Black people in mainstream media racism in policing widespread gentrification and its effects on multi generational Black neighbourhoods and the growth of Black love these conversations have been happening in the US and The Fire This Time Festival has borne witness 25 Plays from The Fire This Time Festival A Decade of Recognition Resistance Resilience Rebirth and Black Theater reflects this fantastic legacy containing 25 ten minute plays originally produced by the eponymous festival Together these pieces bookend the Black experience in the US from 2009 to the present day from the hope for further progress and equity under the Obama administration to the existential threat faced by Black people under the Trump presidency Edited and curated by Kelley Nicole Girod the anthology divides the plays into seven thematic sections concerning multi faceted aspects of the Black experience featuring work by seminal writers such as Katori Hall Antoinette Nwandu Dominique Morisseau C A Johnson and Marcus Gardley Both timely and timeless 25 Plays from The Fire This Time Festival presents an exciting eclectic mix of 21st century theater that is perfect for study performance and reflection Poems & Songs Thomas McCavour,2020-09-23 Poems Songs Old New is a collection of 120 songs and 55 poems by a writer that clearly adores them There is a lot of love in the reproduction of so many songs and poems that people remember and appreciate including such classic songs as Bohemian Rhapsody Hey Jude Hotel California November Rain Let
