Campbell, Donna Campbell, 1995 This new large format volume is a grand tribute to all of those who served in SAC from its inception in 1947 to its disestablishment in 1992 The great variety of aircraft and missile systems of Strategic Air Command are shown in over 800 color and black and white photographs making this volume one of the definitive pictorials on the subject

The Cold War Spencer C. Tucker, 2020-10-27 This sweeping reference work covers every aspect of the Cold War from its ignition in the ashes of World War II through the Berlin Wall and the Cuban Missile Crisis to the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 The Cold War superpower face off between the Soviet Union and the United States dominated international affairs in the second half of the 20th century and still reverberates around the world today This comprehensive and insightful multivolume set provides authoritative entries on all aspects of this world changing event including wars new military technologies diplomatic initiatives espionage activities important individuals and organizations economic developments societal and cultural events and more This expansive coverage provides readers with the necessary context to understand the many facets of this complex conflict The work begins with a preface and introduction and then offers illuminating introductory essays on the origins and course of the Cold War which are followed by some 1 500 entries on key individuals wars battles weapons systems diplomacy politics economics and art and culture Each entry has cross references and a list of books for further reading The text includes more than 100 key primary source documents a detailed chronology a glossary and a selective bibliography Numerous illustrations and maps are inset throughout to provide additional context to the material

King's Navy David Kohnen, 2024-11-28 An authoritative account of the rise and fall of American sea power between 1897 and 1947 and the definitive biography of Fleet Admiral Ernest J King Between 1897 and 1945 the US Navy rose to lofty heights with huge manpower a lavish roster of ships and a hard earned reputation for professionalism and potency By 1947 in the wake of the Second World War the Navy although still powerful had been significantly scaled down much of the senior leadership retired and the wartime edge gradually dulled This period from 1897 to 1947 was witnessed and to a large degree driven and determined by two admirals Ernest J King and King's mentor William S Sims These admirals were empowered by two giants of American political and military history Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Franklin D Roosevelt Through the lives of King Sims and the Roosevelts Naval War College historian David Kohnen has crafted a sweeping history of American sea power from 1897 to 1947 This epic work was made possible through 20 years of research and writing By accessing undiscovered and recently declassified source material along with the full cooperation of the King and Sims families the author has been able to tell new stories and draw fresh conclusions making this volume a must have for scholars of naval history

15 Minutes L. Douglas Keeney, 2011-02-01 Packed with startling revelations this inside look at the secret side of the Cold War exposes just how close America came to total annihilation During the Cold War a flight crew had 15 minutes to get their nuke laden plane in the air from the moment

Soviet bombers were detected 15 minutes between the earliest warning of an incoming nuclear strike and the first flash of an enemy warhead This is the chilling true story of the incredibly risky steps our military took to protect us from that scenario including Over two thousand loaded bombers that crossed American skies They sometimes crashed and at least nine times resulted in nuclear weapons being accidentally dropped A system that would use timers and rockets to launch missiles even after everyone was dead Disastrous atmospheric nuclear testing including the horrific runaway bomb that fooled scientists and put thousands of men in uniform in the center of a cloud of hot fallout A plan to use dry lake beds to rebuild and launch a fighting force in the aftermath of nuclear war Based on formerly classified documents military records press accounts interviews and over 10 years of research 15 Minutes is one of the most important works on the atom bomb ever written
