Foy, 1998 To appreciate the value of the concept of the townland the best course for us is to examine in detail every aspect of one or more of them in terms of our own existence In local history studies we concentrate on the community that has lived in the townland This publication will introduce the reader to the documentary sources that survive in archives and explain how they can be related to the traditions the artefacts and the oral evidence It will provide a framework plus numerous worked examples for those with an interest in studying the townland where their ancestors lived Set as a basis upon which further research could be undertaken this important study begins by choosing eight townlands across Ulster providing a variety of concepts ideas and observations which will interest the family and local historian alike Indeed the editors in their introduction observe that just as local historians not just those with a special interest in local and family history to appreciate the significance of the townland in Irish history The townlands covered in this study include Forttown Co Antrim Scolboia Co Antrim Ballymagee Co Down Cranfield Co Down Drumskinny 3 Gallan Co Tyrone Holly hill Co Tyrone and Owenreagh Co Londonderry In casting their net wide the contributors have managed to build up a picture of townlands across the country and have ensured that this book is representative of the whole of Ulster and not any single part or even merely the eight townlands under study
