Ralph the Heir. with 17 Illus. by F.A. Fraser, by Anthony Trollope a Novel Anthony Trollope, F. A. Fraser, 2016-06-13 Ralph the Heir is a novel by Anthony Trollope originally published in 1871 Although Trollope described it as one of the worst novels I have written it was well received by contemporary critics More recently readers have found it noteworthy for its account of a corrupt Parliamentary election an account based closely on Trollope's own experience as a candidate The title character is Ralph Newton the nephew of Squire Gregory Newton of Newton Priory The squire has never married he has an illegitimate son also named Ralph Newton whom he loves dearly However the estate is entailed and after his death will go to his nephew Ralph he cannot leave it to his natural son Ralph the heir is a spendthrift and has run himself deep into debt There are two ways in which he can extricate himself by raising money on his future interest in the Newton estate or by marrying Polly Neefit the daughter of a wealthy breeches maker who is one of his major creditors Neither choice is a good one for him the first might lead to the estate's being seized by his creditors upon the old squire's death the second would mean allying himself to a family of a much lower social class thus putting his own social standing at risk The squire anxious to obtain full possession of the estate so that he can pass it to his son offers to buy the heir's reversion Ralph vacillates hesitatingly proposes to and is rejected twice by Polly Neefit and eventually accepts his uncle's offer. However, before the transaction can be completed, the squire is killed in a hunting accident and his nephew comes into full possession of the property and its large income. Now safe from his creditors, the new squire is nevertheless harassed by Polly Neefit's father, who threatens him with legal action and embarrassing publicity if he does not continue seeking his daughter's hand. The matter is eventually resolved by Polly, who accepts the oft-repeated proposals of Ontario Moggs, son of a prosperous bootmaker, and induces her father to consent to the marriage despite his preference for the squire. In the meantime, Ralph the squire has proposed to and been rejected by Mary Bonner, the beautiful niece and ward of Sir Thomas Underwood. Soon after this, she accepts an offer of marriage from the illegitimate Ralph. The novel also describes a Parliamentary election in the fictional borough of Percycross, in which Sir Thomas, a Conservative, and Moggs, a Radical, are two of the four candidates for the two available seats. Both are eager that the election be conducted fairly and honestly. The other two candidates, one a Conservative and one a Liberal, are the incumbents; they see nothing wrong with the buying and selling of votes that has been traditional at Percycross. Sir Thomas and his fellow Conservative win the election, but it is annulled on petition, and the borough is disfranchised by Parliament because of its pervasive corruption.

Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts (1) We have not used OCR (Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. (2) In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches, etc., we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.
