Ramona Johnny John Heinz, 2002-06 Race Mixture in Nineteenth-Century U.S. and Spanish American Fictions

Debra J. Rosenthal, 2005-10-12 Race mixture has played a formative role in the history of the Americas from the western expansion of the United States to the political consolidation of emerging nations in Latin America Debra J Rosenthal examines nineteenth century authors in the United States and Spanish America who struggled to give voice to these contemporary dilemmas about interracial sexual and cultural mixing Rosenthal argues that many literary representations of intimacy or sex took on political dimensions whether advocating assimilation or miscegenation or defending the status quo She also examines the degree to which novelists reacted to beliefs about skin differences blood taboos incest desire or inheritance laws Rosenthal discusses U S authors such as James Fenimore Cooper Catharine Maria Sedgwick Walt Whitman William Dean Howells and Lydia Maria Child as well as contemporary novelists from Cuba Peru and Ecuador such as Gertrudis Gomez de Avellaneda Clorinda Matto de Turner and Juan Leon Mera With her multinational approach Rosenthal explores the significance of racial hybridity to national and literary identity and participates in the wider scholarly effort to broaden critical discussions about America to include the Americas Mixing Race, Mixing Culture Monika Kaup, Debra Rosenthal, 2002-08-15 Over the last five centuries the story of the Americas has been a story of the mixing of races and cultures Not surprisingly the issue of miscegenation with its attendant fears and hopes has been a pervasive theme in New World literature as writers from Canada to Argentina confront the legacy of cultural hybridization and fusion This book takes up the challenge of transforming American literary and cultural studies into a comparative discipline by examining the dynamics of racial and cultural mixture and its opposite tendency racial and cultural disjunction in the literatures of the Americas Editors Kaup and Rosenthal have brought together a distinguished set of scholars who compare the treatment of racial and cultural mixtures in literature from North America the Caribbean and Latin America From various angles they remap the Americas as a multicultural and multiracial hemisphere with a common history of colonialism slavery racism and racial and cultural hybridity THE MAN SHE'LL MARRY Susan Fox, Hiroko Fukuhara, 2015-01-01 Tracey a beautiful heiress is saved from a strange predicament by the handsome cowboy Ty In order to repay him she ends up working for him As they spend time together she finds that she s slowly becoming attracted to him But Tracey isn t all she seems She has a past she s kept hidden and she fears Ty will stop loving her if it ever comes to light Guernsey Breeders' Journal , 1985
