Random Access 2 Pavel Büchler, Nikos Papastergiadis, 1996 Is culture in crisis Are the political conditions of modern creative work transforming contemporary culture What anxieties and desires define modern art Random Access 2 poses these and other questions on art practice and cultural developments and considers the relationship between practice and criticism in contemporary culture Essays from celebrated artists and thinkers cover topics ranging from criminality among the British urban poor to art teaching art as memory interpretation of dance to the death of Bohemia Mapping the Megalopolis Glen David Kuecker, Alejandro Puga, 2017-12-22 Mapping the Megalopolis Order and Disorder in Mexico City brings the humanities and the social sciences into a conversation about Mexico City in its social political and aesthetic manifestations Through a shared exploration of the order and disorder that mutually constitute the city contributing authors engage topics such as the privatization of public space challenges to existing conceptualizations of the urban form and variations on the flâneur and other urban actors Mexico City is truly a city of versions and Mapping the Megalopolis celebrates the intersection of the image of the city and the lived experience of it Readers will find substantive entries on a great variety of Mexico City's monumental and counter-monumental spaces as well as some of its pivotal contemporary debates and cultural products The volume serves both as supplemental reading on the world city or the Latin American city and as a central text in a multidisciplinary study of Mexico City Love & Eroticism Mike Featherstone, 1999-09-20 This major collection explores the contested nature of love and eroticism examining the ways in which erotic bodily pleasures have become central to contemporary consumer culture It investigates the spatial dimension of erotic life through considerations of Bohemian love the gay city and the ways in which the urban landscape and everyday life have become sexualized issues which have become central to the emergence of queer as a new form of gender politics and more general questions of sexual citizenship Drawing on the work of feminists sociologists and cultural theorists this book contains a wide ranging and accessible set of contributions to contemporary debates on sexuality love and eroticism Love Eroticism & Queer Constellations Dianne Chisholm, Queer Constellations investigates the dreams and catastrophes of recent urban history viewed through new queer narratives of inner city life The gay village gay mecca gai Paris the lesbian flâneur the lesbian bohème these and other urban phantasmagoria feature paradoxically in this volume as figures of revolutionary utopia and commodity spectacle as fossilized archetypes of social transformation and ruins of haunting cultural potential Dianne Chisholm introduces readers to new practices of walking seeing citing and remembering the city in works by Neil Bartlett Samuel Delany Robert Gluck Alan Hollinghurst Gary Indiana Eileen Myles Sarah Schulman Edmund White and David Wojnarowicz Reading these authors with reference to the history sociology geography and philosophy of space particularly to the everyday avant-garde production and practice of urban space Chisholm reveals how and how effectively queer narrative documentary resembles and reassembles Walter Benjamin's constellations of Paris capital of the nineteenth century

Considering experimental queer writing in critical conjunction with Benjamin's city writing the book shows how a queer perspective on inner city reality exposes contradictions otherwise obscured by mythic narratives of progress. If Benjamin regards the Paris arcade as a microcosm of high capitalism wherein the unmaking of industrial society is perceived retrospectively in contemporary queer narrative we see the sexually charged and commodity entranced space of the gay bathhouse as a microcosm of late capitalism and as an exemplary site for excavating the contradictions of mass sex. In Chisholm's book we discover how looking back on the ruins of queer mecca queer authors return to Benjamin to advance his dialectics of seeing how they cruise the paradoxes of market capital, blasting a queer era out of the homogeneous course of history.

Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Stephen Morton, 2003-09-02 Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak offers an overtly political challenge to the way we think about literature and culture. As she highlights the many legacies of colonialism she redefines the ethical horizons of contemporary critical thought. This volume focuses on her key theoretical concepts, intellectual context and critical reception, providing an accessible introduction to one of the most important thinkers of our time. Stephen Morton introduces Spivak's crucial work through an analysis of such issues as methodology and Spivak's difficult style, deconstructive strategies, third world women, the concept of the subaltern and the critique of western feminism, re-reading Marx for the global capitalist era, Spivak's contribution to colonial discourse studies and postcolonial theory. Having examined the ways in which Spivak has transformed contemporary cultural theory and in particular feminist and postcolonial thought, Morton concludes with a guide to reading Spivak's work and that of her critics. Essential for students of literature or cultural studies, this volume is the ideal companion for a first encounter with Spivak's remarkable texts.

Public Art (Now) Claire Doherty, 2015-03-09 Public Art Now: Out of Time, Out of Place is the first survey of progressive public art from around the world. It presents some of the most significant artworks in the public realm from the last decade, challenging preconceptions about where, when and how public art takes place. The face of public art is changing. For decades, art in the public realm has been characterized by the landmark sculpture or spectacular outdoor event that helps to define or brand a place. But in recent years, a new wave of international artists and producers has rejected the monumental scale and mass appeal of such artworks. Instead, these individuals and groups favour unconventional forms that unsettle rather than authenticate a place's identity, disrupt rather than embellish a particular location and contest rather than validate the design and function of public space. Performed interactions, collaborative social movements and small-scale subversive acts are just some of the unorthodox approaches taken by these artists. Their works challenge preconceived ideas about the role of art in place-making as they seek to remake places through radical forms and practices. Public Art Now: Out of Time, Out of Place presents the artists who have been redefining the practice of public art over the past decade. They directly address the most pressing issues of our time, including the encroachment of corporate concerns on public space, the implications of global migration and the isolation of the individual and the potential of collective action to share the future of our towns and cities. Some forty key works from around the world are organized into five sections Displacement Intervention Disorientation Occupation and Perpetuation with detailed descriptions and dozens of installation and process shots Interviews and quotes from practitioners commissioners and commentators reveal the impetus and context for the projects while the editor's introduction sets out the conceptual practical and ethical issues raised by the works Bringing together the most significant artworks in the public realm of the last ten years from ephemeral interventions to long term ongoing projects this dynamic survey is an essential reference for anyone interested in the ideas issues and impulses behind progressive public art and an accessible introduction to one of the most vibrant areas of contemporary art

Digital Aesthetics Sean Cubitt,1998-10-15 The aesthetic nature and purposes of computer culture in the contemporary world are investigated in this book Sean Cubitt casts a cool eye on the claims of cybertopians tracing the globalization of the new medium and enquiring into its effects on subjectivity and sociality Drawing on historical scholarship philosophical aesthetics and the literature of cyberculture the author argues for a genuine democracy beyond the limitations of the free market and the global corporation Digital arts are identified as having a vital part to play in this process Written in a balanced and penetrating style the book both conveniently summarizes a huge literature and sets a new agenda for research and theory Choice ,1997 Scottish Literary Journal ,1997 Art & Outrage John A. Design City Melbourne Leon van Schaik, 2006-05-26 Melbourne is now coming to the fore as a design hotspot With three and a half million inhabitants it is on a scale that is livable and diverse Its rich and varied cultural intimacy has enabled it to build up a unique dynamism which is set to shift the entire design agenda of the world much like Barcelona did in the 1980s and Antwerp did in the 1990s Melbourne is to be the city of the noughties The intense plurality of Melbourne s recent design culture is due to have a vast impact on the way in which we think about city regions and living in them This is a story of wonderful spaces in civic and institutional buildings in galleries bars clubs and restaurants in one of the world s tallest residential apartment buildings in beach houses and mountain shacks in workshops and studios and in international sports venues As Melbourne hosts the Commonwealth games in 2006 a vast influx of visitors will be experiencing these spaces for the first time Through luscious photography and an accessible text Design City Melbourne is devised not only to illustrate a wide range of fascinating interiors and their architectual matrices but also to describe the people behind them and how these spaces support the vital culture of this uniquely mixed and cosmopolitan city A metropolis that is situated in the same time zone as China and which is pioneering in its European colonial matrix the admixture of new Asian urban forms Design Issues, 1999
