Range Of Faith Basic Questions For A Living Theology:

The Range of Faith Anthony Kelly, Tony Kelly, 1989-01-01      God and the Natural World Ted Peters, Marie Turner, 2020-05-01 This collection of essays is a fitting tribute to Denis Edwards who was one of Australia's leading theologians In exploring the most challenging questions of our time these essays canvas some of the great themes of Christian theology that were the focus of Edwards research Denis Edwards was a theologian of dialogue dialogue with our rich theological tradition dialogue with science dialogue with contemporary theologians The contributors to this volume enter into a dialogue with substantial parts of the theological output of Denis Edwards In the process they capture something of his humanity his love of creation and his concern for our common home The book demonstrates the commitment Denis Edwards had to a theology that is truly ecumenical and always learning from the insights of others The editors and authors have done a great service in helping many others to deepen reflection on Denis Edwards contribution to our understanding of God and the natural world      Key Questions about Christian Faith John Goldingay, 2010-11 A biblical theologian explores what the Old Testament says about twenty five important questions of the Christian faith drawing practical sensible applications for today's church      Australian Books in Print 1995 Thorpe, D. W., Staff, 1995-04 This unique reference provides detailed bibliographic information on over 60 000 in print books published in or about Australia or written by Australian authors There are also details on over 3 000 publishers distributors whose titles are represented as well as information on all trade associations literary awards more      The Trinity of Love Anthony Kelly, 1989      RIC., 1990      Modern Western Christian Theological Understandings of Muslims Since the Second Vatican Council Mahmut Aydin, 2002      Human Development and Faith (Second Edition) Felicity B. Kelcourse, 2015-07-28 This book now in its second edition brings together the best available understandings of human development from a multidisciplinary perspective Uniquely inclusive of the moral and faith dimensions of context and life cycle development Human Development and Faith examines the interplay of mind body family community and soul at every stage of development It addresses two central questions What are the good enough conditions of parenting family and community in each phase of life from birth to death which support growth and development What gives life adequate meaning as development proceeds If human development describes the normative and hoped for passages of life then faith provides the necessary component of meaning Throughout the various perspectives offered in this volume is the premise that faith is that quality of living that makes it possible to fully live The Journal of Pastoral Theology called the first edition of Human Development and Faith an excellent text for pastoral theology courses because it fulfills its ambitious goal of bringing a holistic faith perspective to the usual topics of development This second edition includes a new chapter on infancy updates reflecting our growing awareness of cultural diversity and a new preface      Christian Faith as Religion Paul E. Capetz, 2011-05-26 Christian Faith as Religion investigates the theologies of John Calvin and Friedrich Schleiermacher with respect to the questions What is Religion and What is

Christian Religion The author argues that the classical and liberal exemplars of Protestant theology are best compared when these two questions are thoroughly examined and calls into question the contention of neo orthodox theologians Karl Barth and Emil Brunner that Schleiermacher s theological use of the category religion signifies a departure from the tradition of the Reformation He offers a revised comparative framework that discloses the material and formal similarities between Calvin and Schleiermacher with respect to their employment of the categories religion and revelation and allows the historical theologian to delineate the trajectory that accounts for both continuity and discontinuity in the transition from classical to modern Protestant theology This allows the systematic hermeneutical question of a contemporary Protestant theology informed by the historical and philosophical study of religion to be taken up anew Bookbuyers' Reference

Book ,1993 The Ground Beneath the Cross Kevin F. Burke,2000-02-04 This book is the first comprehensive analysis of the thought of Ignacio Ellacur a the Jesuit philosopher theologian martyred for his work on behalf of Latin America s oppressed peoples While serving as president of the Jesuit run University of Central America in the midst of El Salvador s brutal civil war Ellacur a was also a prolific writer His advocacy on behalf of the country s persecuted majority provoked the enmity of the Salvadoran political establishment On November 16 1989 members of the Salvadoran military entered the university s campus and murdered Ellacur a along with five other Jesuit priests and two women Kevin F Burke SJ shows why Ellacur a is significant not only as a martyr but also as a theologian Ellacur a effectively integrated philosophy history anthropology and sociopolitical analysis into his theological reflections on salvation spirituality and the church to create an original contribution to liberation theology Ellacur a s writings directly address one of the most vexing issues in theology today can theologians account for the demands arising from both the particularity of their various social historical situations and also the universal claims of Christian revelation Burke explains how Ellacur a bases theology in a philosophy of historical reality the ground beneath the cross and interprets the suffering of the crucified peoples in the light of Jesus crucifixion Ellacur a thus inserts the theological realities of salvation and transcendence squarely within the course of human events and he connects these to the Christian mandate to take the crucified peoples down from their crosses Placing Ellacur a s thought in the context of historical trends within the Roman Catholic Church particularly Vatican II and the rise of liberation theology in Latin America Burke argues that Ellacur a makes a distinctive contribution to contemporary Catholic theology Our Distance from God James D. Herbert,2008-03-18 His argument unfolds over five case studies and spans four centuries the architecture and artworks that glorified Louis XIV at Versailles in the seventeenth century the interaction of libretto and music in Richard Wagner s Ring of the Nibelung Claude Monet s enormous and resplendent paintings of water lilies mounted at the Orangerie of Paris in 1927 the inaugural performance in 1962 of Benjamin Britten s War Requiem for the consecration of the new Anglican cathedral at Coventry and Robert Wilson s recent installation based on the Passion 14 Stations BOOK JACKET Contemporary Practice and Method in the Philosophy of Religion David Cheetham,Rolfe King,2008-05-27

An important collection of essays from a range of philosophers from different backgrounds focusing on the growing importance of the philosophy of religion in providing a multi perspective approach to the subject area     Sport and Religion in the Twenty-First Century Brad Schultz, Mary L. Sheffer, 2015-12-16 This book examines the relationship between sport and religion with regard to twenty first century topics such as race fandom education and culture The contributors provide new insights into the people movements and events that define the complex relationship between sport and religion around the world A wonderful addition to any academic course on religion sports ethics or culture as a whole     Tri-Faith America Kevin M. Schultz, 2013-01-15 In Tri Faith America Kevin Schultz explains how the United States left behind the idea that it was a Protestant nation and embraced the notion that Protestants Catholics and Jews were Americans all Schultz describes how the tri faith idea surfaced after World War I and how by the end of World War II the idea was becoming widely accepted During the Cold War the public religiosity spurred by the fight against godless communism led to widespread embrace of the tri faith idea     Making a Personal Faith William Fraser McDowell, 1924     Theological Reflection: Methods, 2nd Edition Elaine Graham, Heather Walton , Frances Ward , 2019-02-27 Theological Reflections Methods offers a comprehensive collection of models of theological reflection By bringing this diverse collection together in one place the editors create a unique reference work that allows a clear and visible contrast and comparison as each model is treated formally and in a standard format Throughout each chapter the distinguishing features of the model are examined the genealogy and origins are discussed worked examples of the model applied to contemporary theology are provided and critical commentary future trends and exercises and questions are provided Now firmly established as an essential text on theological reflection this new edition has been revised and updated with a new introduction updated examples and refreshed bibliographies     Renewing Philosophy of Religion Paul Draper, J. L. Schellenberg, 2017-11-17 This book is animated by a shared conviction that philosophy of religion needs to change thirteen new essays suggest why and how The first part of the volume explores possible changes to the focus of the field The second part focuses on the standpoint from which philosophers of religion should approach their field In the first part are chapters on how an emphasis on faith distorts attempts to engage non western religious ideas on how philosophers from different traditions might collaborate on common interests on why the common presupposition of ultimacy leads to error on how new religious movements feed a naturalistic philosophy of religion on why a focus on belief and a focus on practice are both mistaken on why philosophy s deep axiological concern should set much of the field s agenda and on how the field might contribute to religious evolution The second part includes a qualitative analysis of the standpoint of fifty one philosophers of religion and also addresses issues about humility needed in continental philosophy of religion about the implausibility of claiming that one s own worldview is uniquely rational about the Moorean approach to religious epistemology about a Spinozan middle way between insider and outsider perspectives and about the unorthodox lessons we could learn from scriptures like the book of Job if we could get past the confessional turn in recent philosophy of religion The goal of the volume is to identify new paths for philosophers of religion that are distinct from those travelled by theologians and other scholars of religion Otto Peters on Distance Education Desmond Keegan,2013-10-28 Otto Peters is widely recognised as one of the world's leading authorities on distance education His theory of distance education as the most industrialized form of education is the most original and far reaching analysis of distance education yet produced This book brings together the best of Peters work most of which has not been previously available in the English language Drawing on German sociologists and philosophers of education from Weber and Tonnies to Heimann and Schultz Peters builds up an impressive analysis of the advantages and defects of the industrialization of education The essays in this collection cover the historical development of teaching and learning at a distance from the correspondence schools of the 1950s through to distance education in the post industrial societies of today The book also includes a fascinating account of Peters central role in the foundation and running of the FernUniversitat the German Open University Faith stories Anna Hickey-Moody,2023-04-25 Faith stories is an investigation of faith and belief systems in Australia and England Drawing on ethnography interviews focus groups for adults and arts based workshops for their children Hickey Moody takes a community based approach to examining belonging attachment faith belief and what really matters in diverse areas Each of the book's research sites is geographically and culturally specific in ways that shape residents experiences of community and belonging but they are united by enduring threads relating to colonisation diaspora and negotiating belonging in culturally diverse contexts Examining faith reveals that there are striking similarities between seemingly different cultures Understanding these connections can reduce conflict and promote cohesion in communities that are often struggling to adapt to huge changes This book provides rich resources for those who wish to explore faith and belief in complex social circumstances either as research or as community engagement In such increasingly divided times work like this is needed now more than ever
