First In, Last Out John D Howard, 2023-06-14 A Vietnam veteran recounts his experience through two tours of duty early in the conflict and then in its final stages Fresh out of West Point John Howard arrived for his first tour in Vietnam in 1965 the first full year of escalation when U S troop levels increased dramatically from 23 000 to 184 000 When Howard returned for a second tour in 1972 troop strength stood at 24 000 and would dwindle to a mere fifty the following year He thus participated in the very early and very late stages of American military involvement in the Vietnam War Howard s two tours the first as a platoon commander and member of an elite counter guerrilla force and the second as a senior advisor to the South Vietnamese provide a fascinating lens through which to view not only one soldier s experience in Vietnam but also the country s US Army Long-Range Patrol Scout in Vietnam 1965-71 Gordon L. Rottman, 2013-02-20 The Vietnamese knew the Long Range Patrol Scouts as the men with green faces a reference to the camouflage paint that they used Operating in patrols of four to six men these men were like ghosts scouting far behind enemy lines This book examines the Long Range Patrol Scout s superior stealth movement techniques camouflage and concealment tracking counter tracking observation and other fieldcraft skills It also examines the occasions they participated in small scale direct actions including ambushes and raids Written by a Special Forces Vietnam veteran this book not only depicts the remarkable lives of these scouts when on campaign but also details the training and conditioning that it took to become one of these shadow warriors
