Ranulph Higden Ars Componendi Sermones Dallas Medieval Texts And Translations 2:

Ars Componendi Sermones Ranulf Higden, 2003 Ranulph Higden monk of St Werburgh's Abbey and well known author of the Polychronicon and other treatises penned a concise and user friendly Art of Preaching about 1346 His Ars componendi sermones follows a schematic common to many members of this genre and includes attributes desirable or necessary in the preacher methods for piquing an audience's interest the process of effective repetition and suggestions for creating rhythmic patterns in prose Its major focus however is the clear and comprehensive discussion of each thematic sermon part the theme or scriptural text its development in protheme and introduction its division subdivision and embellishment In structure and content Higden's prescriptive manual has affinities to contemporary rhetorical texts especially the artes poeticae and dictaminis and displays an analogous relationship with Ciceronian dispositio as developed in the De Inventione and Rhetorica ad Herennium A few of the many items of interest scattered throughout the text are Ranulph's insistence that preaching be separate from university exercises and his comments about various subjects like direct entry into heaven post mortem the scope of medieval optics what and who compose the church and the quadruple levels of scriptural exegesis

The Art of Preaching Siegfried Wenzel, 2013 Based on his wide ranging knowledge of late medieval Latin sermons from England as well as his editorial experience with medieval Latin texts Siegfried Wenzel offers critical editions of five instruction manuals on the art of preaching dating from 1230 to the fifteenth century Four of the texts are edited and translated for the first time the fifth is re edited from all extant manuscripts Each of the five sermons is accompanied by a facing page translation into English The book aims to stimulate interest and new research in a field that still awaits closer analysis of the relationships among existing treatises and of their historical development

The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric Lynée Lewis Gaillet, Winifred Bryan Horner, 2010-03-15 Through two previous editions The Present State of Scholarship in Historical and Contemporary Rhetoric has not only introduced new scholars to interdisciplinary research but also become a standard research tool in a number of fields and pointed the way toward future study Adopting research methodologies of revision and recovery this latest edition includes all new material while still following the format of the original and is constructed around bibliographical surveys of both primary and secondary works addressing the Classical Medieval Renaissance and eighteenth through twentieth century periods within the history of rhetoric The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric doesn't simply update but rather recasts study in the history of rhetoric The authors experienced and well known scholars in their respective fields redefine existing strands of rhetorical study within the periods expand the scope of rhetorical engagement and include additional figures and their works The globalization and expansion of rhetoric are demonstrated in each of these parts and seen clearly in the inclusion of more female rhetors discussions of historical and contemporary electronic resources and examinations of rhetorical practices falling outside the academy and the traditional canon New to this edition is a cumulative review of twentieth century rhetoric along with a thematic index designed to facilitate interdisciplinary or specialized study and scholarly research across the traditional historical periods. As programs incorporating rhetorical studies continue to expand at the university level, students and researchers are in need of up-to-date bibliographical resources. No other work matches the scope and approach of The Present State of Scholarship in the History of Rhetoric, which carries scholarship on rhetoric into the twenty-first century.

A Benedictine Reader Hugh B. Feiss, Ronald Pepin, Maureen M. O'Brien, 2019-02-12. A Benedictine Reader 530. 1530 has been more than twenty years in the making. A collaboration of a dozen scholars, this project gives as broad and deep a sense of the reality of the first one thousand years of Benedictine monasticism as can be done in one volume using primary sources in English translation. The texts included are drawn from many different genres and from several languages and areas of Europe. The introduction to each of the thirty-two chapters aims to situate each author and text and to make connections with other texts and studies within and outside the Reader. The general introduction summarizes the main ideas and practices that are present in the Rule of Saint Benedict and in the first thousand years of Benedictine monasticism while suggesting questions that a reader might bring to the texts.
