Molidor, 2012-05-29 How acting a little crazy and thinking outside of the box can get you the job you want Ever hear of a job candidate stretching out on the interviewer's floor to fill out an application Or an applicant who sees nothing wrong with texting during the interview Securing a job interview is a golden opportunity The crazy bad behavior described above will not net a job offer Crazy Good Interviewing shows readers that crazy good behavior however can make an applicant stand out favorably in a sea of mediocrity Take the candidate who created a keynote presentation on his iPad to show what he could bring to the job or the one who created a DVD highlighting her abilities Crazy Good Interviewing is a book geared toward those who are looking for work in this tough economy Addresses how slightly eccentric behaviors can tip the scales in the applicant's favor Delves into how to access your three key strengths how to use body language effectively how to prepare a five sentence history that builds a bridge to the interviewer and more Turn just plain crazy into crazy good and land the job at your next interview

Self Contained Emma John, 2021-05-06 There is a piece of cod wisdom regularly dispensed to single women romance will arrive when you least expect it I had assumed it would also make its own travel arrangements too Emma John is in her 40s she is neither married nor partnered with child or planning to be In her hilarious and unflinching memoir Self Contained she asks why the world only views a woman as complete when she is no longer a single figure and addresses what it means to be alone when everyone else isn't In her book she captures what it is to be single in your forties from sharing a twin room with someone you've never met on a group holiday because the couples have all the doubles with ensuite to coming to the realisation that maybe your singleness isn't a temporary arrangement that maybe you aren't pre-married at all and in fact you are self contained The book is an exploration of being lifelong single and what happens if you don't meet the right person don't settle down with the wrong person and realise the biggest commitment is to yourself
