The Limits of Empire: European Imperial Formations in Early Modern World History William Reger,2016-03-03 This volume published in honor of historian Geoffrey Parker explores the working of European empires in a global perspective focusing on one of the most important themes of Parker's work the limits of empire which is to say the centrifugal forces sacral dynastic military diplomatic geographical informational that plagued imperial formations in the early modern period 1500 1800 During this time of wrenching technological demographic climatic and economic change empires had to struggle with new religious movements incipient nationalisms new sea routes new military technologies and an evolving state system with complex new rules of diplomacy Engaging with a host of current debates the chapters in this book break away from conventional historical conceptions of empire as an essentially western phenomenon with clear demarcation lines between the colonizer and the colonized These are replaced here by much more fluid and subtle conceptions that highlight complex interplays between coalitions of rulers and ruled In so doing the volume builds upon recent work that increasingly suggests that empires simply could not exist without the consent of their imperial subjects or at least significant groups of them This was as true for the British Raj as it was for imperial China or Russia Whilst the thirteen chapters in this book focus on a number of geographic regions and adopt different approaches each shares a focus on and interest in the working of empires and the ways that imperial formations dealt with or failed to deal with the challenges that beset them Taken together they reflect a new phase in the evolving historiography of empire They also reflect the scholarly contributions of the dedicatee Geoffrey Parker whose life and work are discussed in the introductory chapters and we are proud to say in a delightful chapter by Parker himself an autobiographical reflection that closes the book

Time Gifts Zoran Zivkovic,2000-08-22 Zoran Zivkovic weaves four mysterious encounters around philosophical questions at the core of human existence Provocative and original Time Gifts is a meditation on the nature of time and especially on the nature of those at its mercy City of Ash Eugenijus Ališanka,2000 Although the title of this sensitive collection refers to Vilnius the capital of Lithuania City of Ash serves as a universal geography of the contemporary soul in an urban context Through his poetry Eugenijus Alisanka searches for personal and historical meaning within the framework of time recognizing both the demands of the self and the impossibility of avoiding what came before whether human or cultural 1993 Patt Leonard,Rebecca Routh,1996 Journal articles books book chapters book reviews dissertations and selected government publications on East Central Europe and the former Soviet Union published in the United States and Canada Home and the World in Slovak Writing Katarina Gephardt,Charles Sabatos,Ivana Taranenková,2025-03-04 Literatures of small nations represent a minuscule portion of the global literary marketplace where books written in English outnumber translated works The struggle for visibility in relation to dominant languages and cultures is not new in Slovakia a nation of five million whose literary history has been shaped by the influence of more widely spoken languages including Hungarian Czech and Russian Home and the World in Slovak Writing brings Slovak literature out of this isolation to tell the story of how a nation s literature can survive and thrive despite a small domestic audience and relatively limited circulation in English translation The book demonstrates how historic events such as the post Stalin Thaw the Prague Spring and the Velvet Revolution moulded the Slovak canon and situates contemporary Slovak literature in broader regional and global contexts Through case studies of the transformations and adaptations of Slovak literature contributors examine the changing social roles of writers the tensions between tradition and innovation and the dynamic interactions between influences from the outside world and domestic sources of inspiration Home and the World in Slovak Writing maps the relationship between geopolitical destiny and literary production at a critical moment As relations between the East and the West are destabilized by war the question of cultural identity has again become a matter of national survival in Central Europe The Fortress Meša Selimović,1999 The Fortress is one of the most significant and fascinating novels to come out of the former Yugoslavia Ahmet Shabo returns home to eighteenth century Sarajevo from the war in Russia numbed by the death in battle or suicide of nearly his entire military unit In time he overcomes the anguish of war only to find that he has emerged a reflective and contemplative man in a society that does not value and will not tolerate the subversive implications of these qualities Materada Fulvio Tomizza,Russell Scott Valentino,2000 Francesco Koslovic even his name straddles two cultures And during the spring of 1955 in the village of Materada on the Istrian Peninsula his two worlds are coming apart Materada the first volume of Fulvio Tomizza s celebrated Istrian Trilogy depicts the Istrian exodus of the hundreds of thousands who had once thrived in a rich ethnic mixture of Italians and Slavs Complicating Koslovic s own departure is his attempt to keep the land that he and his brother have worked all their lives A picture of a disappearing way of life a tale of feud and displacement and imbued with the tastes tales and songs of his native Istria Koslovic s story is a testament to the intertwined ethnic roots of Balkan history The American Bibliography of Slavic
