Long Walks And Intimate Talks:

Long Walks and Intimate Talks Grace Paley, 1991 This first collaboration of two long time feminist and antiwar activists is a wonderful melding of word and image that creates a powerful call for world peace Paley's poems and short fiction and William's vivid watercolors depict the beauty and dignity of ordinary lives from El Salvador to the Bronx from New Hampshire to Vietnam Scenes and stories of domestic life solitude and nature are interspersed with heart wrenching images of women widowed and children crippled by war and incarcerated by urban poverty Here too are stories and paintings of protest joyous and defiant

Pillow Talk Jason Alexander Ottley, 2010-09-03 If you are single chances are you are at a place where you are tired of settling and you are finally ready to find the man or woman of your dreams However is your approach getting you closer to your goal or are you just spinning your wheels Pillow Talk exposes methods singles employ in their attempt to secure lasting love And while the dating game is nothing new the rules of engagement have become much more complex In his book Ottley exposes the futile paradox of enlisting short term approaches to long lasting love Carefully exposing hidden thought patterns and motives of the heart Ottley dismantles the faulty premise that dating is built upon Then like a master craftsman Ottley carefully and candidly lays bare the steps towards how singles can develop a fulfilling rewarding and reciprocal relationship that is well worth the wait

Literary Sisterhoods Deborah Heller, 2005-02-11 Building on scholarship such as feminist criticism that has contributed to an awareness of the distinctive perspectives on female experience revealed in women's writing Heller reveals how women authors construct their female protagonists' quests for creative self expression By situating these narrative journeys in their own times and cultures Literary Sisterhoods shows how they contribute to a common tradition that speaks to readers today

Begin Again Grace Paley, 2014-07-15 The collected poems some never previously published of one of our best loved most respected authors Combining Grace Paley's four previous collections and new unpublished work Begin Again traces the career of this direct attentive never predictable poet Whether she describes the vicissitudes and pleasures of life in New York City or the hard beauty of her adoptive rural Vermont whether she celebrates the blessings of friendship or protests against social injustice her poems brim with the compassion and tough good humor that have made her stories and essays famous

The Politics of Motherhood Alexis Jetter, Annelise Orleck, Diana Taylor, 1997 Essays and interviews explode the myth of apolitical motherhood by showing how 20th century women have politicized their role as mothers in a wide range of social contexts

War No More: Three Centuries of American Antiwar & Peace Writing (LOA #278) Lawrence Rosenwald, 2016-06-14 A powerful collection of essential American antiwar writings from the Revolution to the war on terror featuring over 150 eloquent provocative voices for peace Library of America presents an unprecedented tribute to a great American literary tradition War has been a reality of the American experience from the founding of the nation and in every generation there have been dedicated and passionate visionaries who have responded to this reality with vital calls for peace Spanning from the American Revolution to the war on terror War No More gathers the essential texts of this uniquely American antiwar tradition in one volume for the first time Classic expressions of conscience like Thoreau s seminal Civil Disobedience lay the groundwork for such influential modern theorists of nonviolence as David Dellinger Thomas Merton and Barbara Deming The long arc of the American antiwar movement is vividly traced in the urgent appeals of activists made in soaring oratory and galvanizing song and in dramatic dispatches from the front lines of antiwar protests The voices of veterans from the Civil War to the Iraq War are prominently represented as is the firsthand testimony of conscientious objectors Contemporary writers including Barbara Kingsolver Jonathan Schell Nicholson Baker and Jane Hirshfield demonstrate the ongoing richness of this literature in the years since September 11 2001 Featuring more than 150 eloquent and provocative writers in all War No More is a bible for activists a go to resource for scholars and students and an inspiring and fascinating story for every reader interested in the crosscurrents of war and peace in American history LIBRARY OF AMERICA is an independent nonprofit cultural organization founded in 1979 to preserve our nation s literary heritage by publishing and keeping permanently in print America s best and most significant writing The Library of America series includes more than 300 volumes to date authoritative editions that average 1 000 pages in length feature cloth covers sewn bindings and ribbon markers and are printed on premium acid free paper that will last for centuries Conversations with Grace Paley Grace Paley,1997 With firm authority Paley discusses topics of wide range many of which she describes as personal discoveries She includes politics and environmentalism the family and human relationships the impact of background and education the moral importance of community feminism and women s liberation the sexual self and role enforcement America s need for communality and women s creative response to it the art of teaching and the importance of friendship The Freedom Formula David Finkel,2019-09-03 Building a successful company and career doesn t mean sacrificing your family health or life You check email the moment you lift your head off the pillow in the morning You bring work with you on vacation sneak glances at your smart phone during family dinners and take business calls and texts at your kid s sports games It s as if you ve been forced to make a choice between your company or your life sacrificing time for yourself and family for the sake of career success But it doesn t have to be that way The most successful business leaders have learned to bust through the direct one to one relationship between hours worked and value created by refocusing their company department or team s best talent and attention on their highest value activities generating hundreds even thousands of hours of value in the process In The Freedom Formula Wall Street Journal bestselling author and successful entrepreneur David Finkel will help you operationalize working smarter No fluff no theory Finkel shares the detailed blueprint to create maximum value for your company without working nights weekends or while on vacation You ll learn Why working longer and harder doesn t pay off and what actually does Why the 80 20 principle doesn t go far enough and how to take it to its most productive extreme How to escape the Time and Effort Economy How to structure your day and week so that you reclaim five or more hours each week in usable blocks of your best time How to leverage the five Freedom Accelerators to get your life back faster And much more Whether you re a business owner top executive key manager or aspire to be one The Freedom Formula offers a radical new approach to structuring your time and priorities and your team s in order to reclaim hours of your day and the freedom to live your life not just your job

Pow-Wow Ishmael Reed,2009-01-27 Using the yardstick that a short story is any fiction under 15 000 words Ishmael Reed with the assistance of Carla Blank has assembled an anthology that reexamines the history of the form across a broader more inclusive spectrum The result is a collection that stretches the boundaries of the American literary landscape including work ranging from animal stories of the Northwest Coast Eyaks to African American folklore to reflections on the American Muslim experience Pow Wow is the sequel to Reed s From Totems to Hip Hop A Multicultural Anthology of Poetry Across the Americas 1900 2002 a volume that included both Tupac Shakur and T S Eliot and was named one of the best poetry anthologies of 2003 by Library Journal Its fiction focused follow up once again demonstrates the broad range of American writing from such stellar names as Langston Hughes Gertrude Stein Russell Banks and Alejandro Murgu to newly discovered writers of all races genders and backgrounds By presenting many different sides to the American story the fiction of these writers challenges official history shatters accepted myths and provides alternatives to mainstream notions of personal and national identity Gathering these voices together Pow Wow offers a fascinating and vital opportunity to traverse the fault lines that separate distinguish and define a nation made of many Americas

When Tenants Claimed the City Roberta Gold,2014-02-15 In postwar America not everyone wanted to move out of the city and into the suburbs For decades before World War II New York s tenants had organized to secure renters rights After the war tenant activists raised the stakes by challenging the newly dominant ideal of homeownership in racially segregated suburbs They insisted that renters as well as owners had rights to stable well maintained homes and they proposed that racially diverse urban communities held a right to remain in place a right that outweighed owners rights to raise rents redevelop properties or exclude tenants of color Further the activists asserted that women could participate fully in the political arenas where these matters were decided Grounded in archival research and oral history When Tenants Claimed the City The Struggle for Citizenship in New York City Housing shows that New York City s tenant movement made a significant claim to citizenship rights that came to accrue both ideologically and legally to homeownership in postwar America Roberta Gold emphasizes the centrality of housing to the racial and class reorganization of the city after the war the prominent role of women within the tenant movement and their fostering of a concept of community rights grounded in their experience of living together in heterogeneous urban neighborhoods

The Family Track Constance Coiner,Diana Hume George,1998 At a time when the academy is an ever more demanding arbiter and shaper of the lives of those it employs this book discusses the challenges and benefits of balancing a rewarding professional life with the competing needs to nurture children care for aging parents and engage in other personal relationships
