A Look Through My Eyes Dawn Vandenberg, 2012-11-09 This book begins with the story of a young boy Rem Vandenberg who was born in 1937 in the Netherlands just before the onslaught of the Second World War His youth was a struggle to exist under the German occupation and in combating the depravation of poverty Added to these hardships was the ongoing personal battle he fought daily in accepting the doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church which were heavily imposed on him by the uncompromising adult belief of the time His authoritarian father loaded with the responsibility of caring for the large family was staunch in upholding his strong principles and instilling them into his children Of a less serious nature and with a strong desire to be free of the bonds restricting him from freedom of expression and thought Rem was often on the punitive end of the discipline rod both at school and home Opposing this oppression was the endless love and compassion of his mother who through the strength of her faith was able to engulf the whole family under her mantle of love and bind them together into a caring family unit At a young age Rem had to begin work to help support the family What he was expected to do for a few cents per week was beyond the capability of this small undernourished lad His father insisted on strength of character and allowed him to be pushed to the limit of his endurance Held by the love of his family but tormented with the urge to be free of restrictions Rem finally took his life in his own hands At the age of sixteen driven by the spirit of adventure he left home and joined the merchant navy His first voyage was on a whaling ship to the South Pole which was followed by voyages throughout the world for the next few years On sailing into his first Australian port his desire to stay in Australia took over He jumped ship and went inland where he took a job on the railway After six months as gang worker he was finally picked up by the law and experienced a short jail sentence before being deported back to Holland His love for Australia was strong and within two years he returned as a legal migrant and still lives in his beloved land today The New Physics and Cosmology Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho, Arthur Zajonc, Zara Houshmand, 2004 What happens when the Dalai Lama meets with leading physicists and a historian This book is the carefully edited record of the fascinating discussions at a Mind and Life conference in which five leading physicists and a historian David Finkelstein George Greenstein Piet Hut Arthur Zajonc Anton Zeilinger and Tu Weiming discussed with the Dalai Lama current thought in theoretical quantum physics in the context of Buddhist philosophy A contribution to the science religion interface and a useful explanation of our basic understanding of quantum reality couched at a level that intelligent readers without a deep involvement in science can grasp In the tradition of other popular books on resonances between modern quantum physics and Zen or Buddhist mystical traditions notably The Dancing Wu Li Masters and The Tao of Physics this book gives a clear and useful update of the genuine correspondences between these two rather disparate approaches to understanding the nature of reality Just What the Cowboy Needed Teresa Southwick, 2018-01-01 When a rancher opens his home to a nanny for his young daughter he finally opens his heart to love and happily ever after Never fall in love Never get married Logan Hunt knows all the things he doesn't want But his daughter needs a summer nanny and darn if Grace Flynn doesn't fit the bill and then some The sweetly alluring kindergarten teacher is showing the die hard bachelor a thing or two about fatherhood It's her effect on his libido and heart that's keeping him up nights Did Grace really think her crush on Logan would magically vanish when she moved in with him and his adorable little girl Still she never thought the brooding rancher with the intense baby blues would turn out to be the cowboy of her dreams All she ever wanted was a real home Could her place to belong be with this unexpected family man
