Fennell,Richard C. Fennell D. D. Th. D.,2003 Sudan Africa has been torn by war between Christians and Muslims for 30 years It is 1985 and Sudan now finds herself in the middle of a devastating famine Under these extremely harsh conditions Richard Fennell accepts assignment as Field Supervisor for Arkel Talab to build roads for food deliveries to the remote regions of Sudan Nothing in his life has prepared him for the catastrophic situation of the Sudanese people Famine and disease are claiming lives by the thousands Richard dedicates himself to help these people but is challenged at every turn There is total disorganization between the Sudanese government and the many relief organizations After the ten year drought floods during the rainy season plague him and the people of Sudan Still he and his crew push onward to aid and abet the starving masses Gradually he begins to uncover clues that lead him to believe there is another much more subversive agenda behind Arkel Talab's relief operation The evidence becomes overwhelming as he faces the challenge of trying to stop them In a quest for adventure the author Richard Fennell

takes a job halfway around the globe knowing only his destination Khartoum Sudan Finding himself alone in a strange land that is ravished by famine he dedicates himself to helping the starving people of Sudan But is the famine relief effort what it seems to be Or is it just another cover up subversive operation by a foreign government

Ten Years' Captivity in the Mahdi's Camp 1882-1892 Josef Ohrwalder, F. R. Sir Wingate, 2021-04-25 Exploring the intersection of personal testimony and historical analysis Ten Years Captivity in the Mahdi's Camp 1882-1892 is an enlightening collection that captures a significant period of African colonial history Through a blend of narrative accounts and analytical observations this anthology documents the tumultuous experience of a decade spent within the Mahdist state offering a rare glimpse into the era's political and socio-cultural dynamics The anthology presents a tapestry of literary styles from vivid eyewitness narratives to incisive scholarly interpretations creating a comprehensive picture of captivity and survival in an African kingdom rife with revolution and change Contributors such as Josef Ohrwalder and F. R. Sir Wingate lend their distinct voices to the anthology shaping a multifaceted dialogue on themes of resilience identity and imperialism Ohrwalder with his firsthand experiences complements Wingate's military and administrative insights each enriching the text with their unique perspectives The anthology situates itself within the backdrop of late 19th century colonial encounters and Mahdism intersecting with broader historical movements and expanding the reader's comprehension of this complex time of conflict and transformation This collection offers readers a remarkable opportunity to immerse themselves in the diverse narratives and interpretations surrounding a pivotal historical epoch Its rich array of styles and perspectives serves as a powerful educational tool encouraging readers to engage deeply with both the microcosm of individual struggles and the macrocosm of global colonial dynamics By bridging personal narratives with broader socio-political analysis this anthology fosters a nuanced dialogue that is both intellectually compelling and profoundly illuminating making it an indispensable read for anyone interested in the era's history
