

The background of the cover is a painting. In the upper left, a bush is engulfed in bright orange and yellow flames. Within the branches of the burning bush, a human face with a beard and a turban is visible, looking out. In the foreground, a pair of simple, light-brown leather sandals with straps lies on a dark, rocky path. The path leads towards the burning bush. The overall style is that of a religious or historical illustration.

Worshipful James C. Howell, 2017-02-08 What does it look and feel like to be worshipful Can we find a way to worship in such a robust thoughtful way that when we aren't in worship the worship might linger and invigorate us Is it possible to live in the world doing the dishes listening to music being stuck in traffic enmeshed in a thicket of meetings at work with a serene abiding sense of God's presence despite all the racket that we might do whatever we do for God and sense God's presence And maybe more importantly could all we do between Sundays grocery shopping paying bills listening to music taking a walk visiting aging parents actually enrich and inform what we do on Sunday morning making worship itself more vigorous profound just plain real and memorable and thus heightening the likelihood that the worship will linger through the rest of the week This book is about living a worshipful life understanding why we do what we do in Sunday morning worship and then re-enacting those moods and actions all week long
