Commentary on the Book of Hours of the Master of Charles V Carla Rossi, 2025-02-25

The Book of Hours known as the Master of Charles V's Book of Hours is a rare and precious work produced between 1530 and 1538 in Flanders. Based on the studies conducted here by Professor Carla Rossi, this manuscript not only represents an extraordinary testament to the art of its time but also sheds light on the personal history of one of the most cultured and powerful noblewomen of the European Renaissance: Marchioness Mencía de Mendoza (1508–1554), to whom, as Rossi has discovered through archival research, it was originally destined. The manuscript was commissioned by Marchioness Mencía de Mendoza, one of the most educated and influential ladies in Europe, a refined collector of artworks who was in contact with the greatest painters, illuminators, and goldsmiths of her time. It was intended as a gift for her husband, Hendrik III of Nassau-Dillenburg, Viscount of Antwerp and Lord of Breda, a confidant and chamberlain of Emperor Charles V of Habsburg on the occasion of one of her pregnancies. This small-sized codex with an exceptionally refined iconographic apparatus consists of 58 individual folios with no textual continuity between them, as the binding was arranged solely based on aesthetic principles. It features an incomplete calendar, 12 miniatures framed within a simulated wooden border, along with as many illustrations of zodiac symbols, 14 full-page miniatures enclosed in an arched wooden frame bordered on three sides by architectural or floral elements set against a gold background, 32 smaller miniatures each framed in a wooden border, and 43 decorated initials of varying sizes. Every folio is adorned with wide borders enriched with floral motifs, insects, exotic animals, or architectural ornaments. The miniatures' execution demonstrates the mastery of the Flemish artists from the workshop of Simon Bening, a renowned Flemish illuminator who lived between the 15th and 16th centuries. The manuscript likely remained in Valencia for at least four centuries after its patron's death and was probably sold during the Spanish Civil War. In the 19th century, it was owned by Léon Gruel, a famous Parisian bookbinder, as evidenced by the inscription GRUEL in red capital letters on the title page. Consequently, the binding is not original but a later addition, as was often the case at the time. It was executed in Paris in the second half of the 19th century by the renowned Gruel bindery. The manuscript later came into the possession of Peter

Mari in New York City Henry Walters of Baltimore acquired it from George Richmond a New York bookseller between 1903 and 1931 the year it became part of the museum collection
