For every silent heart every hidden love and every story left untold Images of Sex and Desire in Renaissance Art and Modern Historiography Angeliki Pollali, Berthold Hub, 2017-12-06 Studies on gender and sexuality have proliferated in the last decades covering a wide spectrum of disciplines This collection of essays offers a metanarrative of sexuality as it has been recently embedded in the art historical discourse of the European Renaissance It revisits canonical forms of visual culture such as painting sculpture and a number of emblematic manuscripts The contributors focus on one image either actual or thematic and examine it against its historiographic assumptions Through the use of interdisciplinary approaches the essays propose to unmask the ideologies of representation of sexuality and suggest a richer image of the ever shifting identities of gender The collection focuses on the Italian Renaissance but also includes case studies from Germany and France London Magazine Enlarged and Improved, 1748 Love Triumphant Frederic Lawrence Knowles, 1904

Martha Friedrich von Flotow, 1867 Language and Desire in Seneca's Phaedra Charles Segal, 2017-03-14 This close reading of Seneca's most influential tragedy explores the question of how poetic language produces the impression of an individual self a full personality with a conscious and unconscious emotional life Originally published in 1986 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Triumph of Love Edmond Holmes, 1902 Treatise on the Love of God: Treatise on the Priesthood Saint John of Avila, 2014-10-24 I invite everyone to look to Saint John of Avila hoping that the word and the example of this outstanding pastor will enlighten all priests and those who look forward to the day of their priestly ordination With these words Pope Benedict XVI at the 2011 World Youth Day celebration in Madrid announced his intention to declare Saint John of Avila a Doctor of the Universal Church This small book is in some sense an answer to the Pope's desire to look to this great saint by introducing us to two of his most important treatises On the Love of God and On the Priesthood This present volume wants to bring this still unknown saint closer to the English speaking world thus helping the people of God especially their priests inflame their spiritual lives Echoes and Reflections SunHee Kim Gertz, 2021-11-01 This study examines tales from The Metamorphoses by the Roman poet Ovid 43 BC 18 AD and from The Lais by the French poet Marie de France fl mid to late twelfth century to explore a paradox how can a vibrant complex and timeless vision be conveyed in convention informed and time bound language Marie plays against Ovid's tales to probe the dilemma thereby echoing Ovid who does the same to the canonical literary monuments of his day Both poets suggest that poetry can avoid the flattening effect of monumental canonizing not only by the creative use of literary echoes but also by shifting perspectives on the conventional which in turn can encourage readers to see reflections of many stories in any given tale Ovid and Marie suggest and encourage in this manner by presenting literary love s topoi and traditional lovers from a variety of metaliterary perspectives thereby eliciting active readerly memory as well as providing the opportunity to see the conventional afresh activity that allows even canonical texts to become living memorials
