Loving Man:

The Power of a Loving Man Jeff Jernigan, 2006-01-01 It may not sound macho but the world needs men who will love in ways that bring positive change to everything they touch The Power of a Loving Man affirms masculinity as part of being made in God's image and bravely embraces and applies the teachings found in I Corinthians 13:4-8 helping men learn to love as God intended As a result families friendships marriages and more can be greatly strengthened forever The Loving Person Ed D'Angelo, 2007-07-26 What is a loving person This book attempts to answer this question in two major sections The first part deals with the nature of loving different conceptions of love types of love stroking and a review of the ideas of Erich Fromm Leo Buscaglia and John Gray The second part deals with the relationship of love to sex marriage friendship and death The special quality of this volume is the combination of informative content current research dialogue autobiographical material open ended questions and humorous incidents that are presented in a clear style of writing Loving Arms Karen Schneider, 2014-07-15 Loving Arms examines the war related writings of five British women whose works explore the connections among gender war and story telling While not the first study to relate the subjects of gender and war it is the first within a growing body of criticism to focus specifically on British culture during and after World War II Evoking the famous St Crispin's Day speech from Henry V and then her own father's account of being moved to tears on V J Day because he had been too young to fight Karen Schneider posits that the war story has a far reaching potency She admits perhaps for all of us that such stories had powerfully shaped my consciousness in ways I could not completely resist How a story is narrated and by whom are matters of no small importance As widely defined and accepted war stories are men's stories If we are to hear an other story of war then we must listen to the stories women tell Many of the war stories written by women insist that war is not the condition of men but rather the condition of humanity beginning with relations between the sexes For the five women whose work is examined in Loving Arms Stevie Smith Katharine Burdekin Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen and Doris Lessing this latter point was particularly relevant Their positions as women within a patriarchal militarist culture that was externally threatened by an overtly fascist one led to an acute ambivalence says Schneider Though all five women perceived the war from substantially different perspectives each in her own way exposed and critiqued the seductive power of war and war stories with their densely interwoven tropes of masculinity and nationalism Yet these writers conflicting impulses of loyalty to England and resistance to the war betray their ambivalence Loving Arms will interest students of twentieth century British literature and culture gender studies and narratology Even today we maintain an unabated love affair with the war story But unless we listen to what the women had to say fifty years ago we are doomed to hear only the same old story On God J. KRISHNAMURTI, On God is one of a series of theme books put together from the talks and writings of J Krishnamurti The book contemplates our search for the sacred Sometimes you think life is mechanical and at other times when there is sorrow and confusion you revert to faith looking to a supreme being for guidance and help

Krishnamurti explores fully the futility of seeking knowledge of the unknowable and shows that it is only when we have ceased seeking with our intellects that we may be radically free to experience Reality Truth or bliss He presents the religious mind as one that directly perceives the sacred rather than adhering to religious dogma THE ART OF LOVING FOLORUNSHO MEJABI,2015-11-13 To love is nothing to be loved is something but to love and to be loved by the one you love that is everything There are many things in life that your husband cannot control but one he can control is effort It brings him great pleasure to work hard and see the results To directly control and be the man responsible for creating something from nothing thrills him Encourage his great work ethic by understanding and be a help in what he needs When a man serves his wife he wants her to recognize it A simple thank you is all he needs Love is like a game of football nobody will appreciate your skill until you display it Likewise your husband will not know how much you love him until you demonstrate it The Complete Works of Gertrude Stein.
