Mindfulness Skills for Trauma and PTSD: Practices for Recovery and Resilience Rachel Goldsmith Turow,2017-02-28 How mindfulness can help trauma survivors move to places of healing Trauma touches every life but the way that we hold our pain makes a difference Mindfulness Skills for Trauma and PTSD provides user friendly descriptions of the many facets of traumatic stress alongside evidence based strategies to manage trauma symptoms and build new strengths This book is a valuable resource for trauma survivors health professionals researchers mindfulness practitioners and others seeking new pathways to recovery and resilience It is normal to feel anxious or depressed after trauma and to have upsetting thoughts and memories Instead of fighting our feelings and blaming ourselves for what are actually common responses to trauma mindfulness practices can help us tolerate and decrease distress cultivate kindness towards ourselves and others make wise choices navigate attention improve relationships and relax capacities that reduce trauma symptoms and advance our overall well being Practicing the small stuff can help us with the big stuff As we learn to notice our breathing walking minor frustrations or daily activities with curiosity and care we build inner resources to skillfully handle past trauma as well as current and future challenges Mindfulness practices can transform self blame into self respect and self compassion We can also match specific mindfulness skills to particular trauma symptoms For example grounding with the five senses can help us when we feel overwhelmed or spaced out and loving kindness meditation can alleviate self criticism With this book you will explore scientifically supported mindfulness practices plus In their own words sections that illustrate the skills with personal stories demonstrating how mindfulness practices have helped others recover from trauma Research highlight sections showcase fascinating scientific studies that form the basis for the book s approaches As we practice effective strategies to handle a full range of experiences we can each find new sources of hope connection and peace

War Isn't Hell, It's Entertainment Fabian Virchow, Debra White-Stanley, 2009-02-27 Real war is a cruel theater of death yet it is also an exciting narrative exploited for national political and commercial purposes and turned into numerous films television shows computer games news stories and reenactment plays These essays examine the relationship between war visual media and entertainment from a number of academic perspectives Key topics include how war is used as an imaginary site to stage dramas how boundaries between war media and entertainment dissolve as new media alters the formal qualities of representation how entertainment is used to engage audiences and what effect products of war and entertainment have on consumers of popular culture

The Zen of Home Water Jerry Hamza, 2020-11-17 A Collection of Fishing Stories from Across the Globe by a Master Storyteller To the uninitiated it might be somewhat surprising to discover that fly fishermen tend to be rather contemplative sorts During those dark nights and long seasons when fishing is not a promising endeavor we settle down to the next best thing reading our vast libraries of ancient fishing lore interspersed with the odd philosophical tome And when we do we usually don't want to read proverbial stories about landing the big one or lengthy how to expositions on how to catch the aforementioned big one Rather we tend to prefer stories that place our beloved piscatorial pastime within the larger context of life and nature Stories that as Hamza describes sparks a light A light that is both familiar and comforting Such is The Zen of Home Water the latest angling book by Jerry Hamza Hamza is a John Volker for the new millennium His book is interspersed with stories about monster brook trout beautiful North woods streams and lakes quirky backwoods guides and legendary fly hatches Through it all he shows us one of the most profound truths of life that It takes the acquisition of wisdom to understand that a happy life is actually a mosaic of small and insignificant events we string together moments in life like pearls becoming a beautiful necklace The iridescent pearls that Hamza strings together are many and include the importance of freestyling that uncontrollable escape impulse that implores us to drop whatever we are doing and head to the stream any stream with fly rod in hand Another recurring theme is the need to unplug from the modern electronic world He instructs us how to trespass with bartered permission and fish those waters that look so inviting yet so out of reach to the usually law abiding His recipe for squirrel stew is not jealously guarded but freely shared And his stories of catching giant brook trout in the Maine North Woods allow the reader who usually can't participate in such acts of angling greatness to at least know that they are occurring to someone somewhere Hamza is a member of that peculiar subset of anglers the bamboo rod aficionado While acknowledging the cold hard fact that bamboo rods are nothing more than conglomerations of expensive blades of grass he also realizes that these handmade treasures passed down to us from previous generations will hopefully outlive us and our car doors and that we are merely their caretakers for a time Although the dreaded g word i.e. graphite does make a brief appearance Hamza is definitely one of those anglers who would rather hold an aged organic creation of the bamboo rod maker's art than the latest admittedly efficient chemical concoction straight from the laboratory This puts him squarely in the tradition of John Gierach although Hamza's writing is better and his stories more entertaining Hamza's own home waters are dual Maine's Grand Lake Stream area and the southern shore of the Lake Ontario region There are echoes of Thoreau's Maine Woods in his stories of remote lakes and plentiful trout And while he takes us all around the country when relating his angling exploits Kerouac's On the Road is a particular favorite of his it is evident that the concept of home water carries a lot of weight with him His beloved Zen Lake with its less than perfect history and many small fish could be the home water of any of us Tigers' Top Tens 1926-2015: Teamwork Dr John Davis, 2017-03-06 The author is one of Castleford's most dedicated supporters His personal experience following the club stretches back almost fifty years In addition he has endeavoured to educate himself about the early years of the team's fortunes not least the achievements of the 1930s and the doldrums of the 1950s
