Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates, Dianne L. Hall Mark, 2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature However standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse Cultural Journeys introduces pre service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity More than just an annotated list of books for children Pamela S Gates and Dianne L Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K 8 At the same time the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography this book is a valuable resource that pre service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods Around the World with Historical Fiction and Folktales Beth Bartleson Zarian, 2004 As more school districts undergo the painstaking task of curriculum integration resources that offer children an opportunity to live vicariously in times and places they cannot experience any other way become increasingly necessary Whether two teachers are covering the same topic in separate classes e g English and history or designing a thematic unit with the school librarian this book will assist all parties in the selection of high quality literature In this handy guide to nearly 800 award winning historical fiction for Kindergarten through 8th grade Beth Zarian literally spans the globe Entries are first divided into three sections American history world history and myths and folklore then chronologically from prehistoric times to present day and finally by grade level Each entry is accompanied by a short annotation For anyone wishing to teach historical facts in an entertaining way Around the World with Historical Fiction and Folktales is the only way to travel

Naked Agency Naminata Diabate, 2020-03-06 Across Africa mature women have for decades mobilized the power of their nakedness in political protest to shame and punish male adversaries This insurrectionary nakedness often called genital cursing owes its cultural potency to the religious belief that spirits residing in women's bodies can be unleashed to cause misfortune in their targets including impotence disease and death In Naked Agency Naminata Diabate analyzes these collective female naked protests in Africa and beyond to broaden understandings of agency and vulnerability Drawing on myriad cultural texts from social media and film to journalism and fiction Diabate uncovers how women create spaces of resistance during socio political duress including such events as the 2011 protests by Ivoirian women in Cote d'Ivoire and Paris as well as women's disrobing in Soweto to prevent the destruction of their homes Through the concept of naked agency Diabate explores fluctuating narratives of power and victimhood to challenge simplistic accounts of African women's helplessness and to show how they exercise political power in the biopolitical era
