Maharanis New Wall And Other Poems:

The Maharani's New Wall and Other Poems ,1989

19852018 Paul Oppenheimer, 2020-03-31 This book offers a ground breaking exploration of the aesthetics of poetic freedom The range is broad from antiquity to the present and from Europe and the Middle East into the poetry of the English speaking world Revealing questions about the elusiveness of poetic freedom what does the term actually mean are repeatedly tested against the accomplishments of major poets such as Whitman Dickinson Rilke Dante and Virgil and their public yet intensely private originality The result is a fresh and well nigh revolutionary way of seeing literary and modern history or an initiation into the more striking gift of aesthetic freedom The Wesleyan Tradition Michael Collier, 2012-08-22 Since issuing its first volumes in 1959 the Wesleyan poetry program has challenged the reigning aesthetic of the time and profoundly influenced the development of American poetry One of the country's oldest programs its greatest achievement has been the publication of early works by yet undiscovered poetry who have since become major awarded Pulitzer and Bollingen prizes National Book Awards and many other honors At a time when other programs are being phased out Wesleyan takes this opportunity to celebrate its distinguished history and reaffirm its commitment to poetry with publication of The Wesleyan Tradition Drawing from some 250 volumes editor Michael Collier documents the wide ranging impact of these works In his introduction he describes the literary and cultural context of American poetics in more recent decades tracing the evolution of the Deep Image and Confessional movements of the 50s and 60s and exploring the emergence of the prose lyric style Although the success of the Wesleyan program has inspired its share of imitators no other program has had such a fundamental impact Works by the eighty six poets included her both document and celebrate that contribution Greatest hits, 1960-2004 David Ray, 2004 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets New Letters David Ray, 1989 Pequod ,1989 California Quarterly ,1988 The Publishers Weekly ,1911 The Poetry of Solitude Gail Levin, 1995 A collection of paintings by Edward Hopper and poems that they inspired Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1989 Men of Our Time Fred Moramarco, Al Zolynas, 1992-10-01 In this groundbreaking volume Fred Moramarco and Al Zolynas bring together a comprehensive and widely representative selection of poetry reflecting both the diversity and commodity of male experience in the United States today Since the beginning of the contemporary phase of the women s movement in the 1960s various anthologies devoted to the poetry of women have articulated and defined a distinctive sensibility attuned to the particularities of a woman's life in our time Although much has been written recently about the male role in our society as well the discussion generally has assumed a sociopsychological or mythic perspective Poetry Moramarco and Zolynas believe can reveal most about the nature of male life today especially the enormous changes men have experienced in recent years. As the editors state in their introduction A quiet revolution has been taking place in men s poetry over the past few decades

Poetry and Freedom: Discoveries in Aesthetics, as men have been chronicling the history of their hearts and have been examining those relationships central to their being in the world their connections to their fathers and mothers their own sense of fatherhood and of being sons and brothers their marriages divorces and other aspects of their love lives as well as the ways they conceive of maleness and femaleness The poems collected in Men of Our Time 257 from more than 170 poets include a wide mix of ethnic and racial perspectives that reflect the multicultural tenor of American life They reveal men s most intimate feelings about the loss of childhood sexual anxieties and fantasies aging self sufficiency and dependency and the perennial quest for a masculine identity Above all the poems are unapologetically grounded in a distinctly male experience or imagination Men of Our Time reclaims a poetry that is connected to and expressive of men's lives in the closing decade of the twentieth century Review .1989 The Southern California Anthology ,1999 The American Humanities Index Stephen H.
