Mahu Or The Material Robert Pinget,1966 Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower,2022-05-15

With the possible exception of Great Britain France can justifiably lay claim to possess the richest literary history of any country in Western Europe This book covers the authors and their works literary movements and philosophical and social developments that have had a direct impact on style or content and major historical events such as the two world wars the Franco Prussian War the Algerian War or the events of May 1968 that are directly reflected in a substantial body of imaginative writing Historical Dictionary of French Literature Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on individual writers and key texts significant movements groups associations and periodicals and on the literary reactions to major national and international events such as revolutions and wars This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about French literature The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason,2009-07-23

Postmodernist literature embraces a wide range of forms and perspectives including texts that are primarily self reflexive texts that use pastiche burlesque parody intertextuality and hybrid forms to create textual realities that either run in opposition to or in parallel with an external reality fabulations that develop both of these strategies texts that ironize their relationship to reality works that use the aspects already noted to more fully engage with political or cultural realities texts that deal with history as a fiction and texts that elude categorization even within the variety already explored For example in fiction a postmodernist novel might tell a story about a writer struggling with writing only perhaps to find that he is a character in a book by another writer struggling to write a book The A to Z of Postmodernist Literature and Theater examines the different areas of postmodernist literature and the variety of forms that have been produced This is accomplished through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on individual postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form By placing these concerns within the historical philosophical and cultural contexts of postmodernism this reference explores the frameworks within which postmodernist literature of the late twentieth and early twenty first century operates The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor,2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization The nouveau roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism Adam Guy,2019-12-05 The nouveau roman and Writing in Britain After Modernism recovers a neglected literary history In the late 1950s news began to arrive in Britain of a group of French writers who were remaking

the form of the novel In the work of Michel Butor Marguerite Duras Robert Pinget Alain Robbe Grillet Nathalie Sarraute and Claude Simon the hallmarks of novelistic writing discernible characters psychological depth linear chronology were discarded in favour of other aesthetic horizons Transposed to Britain's highly polarized literary culture the nouveau roman became a focal point for debates about the novel For some the nouveau roman represented an aberration and a pernicious turn against the humanistic values that the novel embodied For others it provided a route out of the stultifying conventionality and conformism that had taken root in British letters On both sides one question persisted given the innovations of interwar modernism to what extent was the nouveau roman actually new This book begins by drawing on publishers' archives and hitherto undocumented sources from a wide range of periodicals to show how the nouveau roman was mediated to the British public Of central importance here is the publisher Calder Boyars and its belief that the nouveau roman could be enjoyed by a mass public The book then moves onto literary responses in Britain to the nouveau roman focusing on questions of translation realism the end of empire and the writing of the project From the translations of Maria Jolas through to the hostile responses of the circle around C P Snow and onto the literary debts expressed in novels by Brian W Aldiss Christine Brooke Rose Eva Figs B S Johnson Alan Sheridan Muriel Spark and Denis Williams the nouveau roman is shown to be a central concern in the postwar British literary field

Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers' movements forms of writing and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature In addition important scholars journals and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross-referenced entries on postmodernist writers the important postmodernist aesthetic practices significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater

World-Games Christopher Nash, 2024-10-31 Contemporary readers face a literature that seems to speak for them yet they often struggle to say just how or why Out of the deluge of works from such writers as Barth Barthelme Beckett Borges Brooke Rose Burroughs Butor Calvino Cortázar Federman Fuentes Le Guin Márquez McElroy Nabokov O'Brien Pynchon Robbe Grillet Sanguinetti Sarraute Sollers Sukenick Tolkien Vonnegut new words and world models that demand understanding fill the air Yet they seem frequently beyond reach because the framework of ideas within which this often brilliant but seemingly bewilderingly disparate flood of discourses might make sense remains largely unexpressed Beginning with the first concisely concerted assessment in English of the premisses and practice of Realism as viewed by those who feel that there is no choice but to move on this book first published in 1987 confronts the vocabulary and rhetoric of current radical theory with the actual procedures of post war fiction In a spirit of challenging experiment it scrutinizes the themes motifs and strategies of contemporary narrative and reveals an unsuspected continuity of hitherto concealed premisses and dilemmas built into recent postmodern and poststructuralist thought As provocative as the literature it regards it proposes that anti Realism is no longer merely a movement that it has become a massive and equally conventionalized and problematical tradition living alongside Realism throughout the Western world B S Johnson and Post-War Literature M. Ryle,J. Jordan,2015-12-11 A collection of essays on the 1960s experimental writer B S Johnson this book draws together new research on all aspects of his work and in tracing his connections to a wider circle of continental British and American avant garde writers offers exciting new approaches to reading 1960s experimental fiction The Saqqara Necropolis through the New Kingdom Nico Staring,2022-11-28 This book is the first comprehensive monographic treatment of the New Kingdom 1539 1078 BCE necropolis at Saqqara the burial ground of the ancient Egyptian city of Memphis and addresses questions fundamental to understanding the site s development through time For example why were certain areas of the necropolis selected for burial in certain time periods what were the tombs spatial relations to contemporaneous and older monuments and what effect did earlier structures have on the positioning of tombs and structuring of the necropolis in later times This study adopts landscape biography as a conceptual tool to study the long time interaction between people and landscapes Robert Pinget Léonard A. Rosmarin,1995 In this first comprehensive study of Pinget published in English Leonard A Rosmarin argues that each of Pinget s novels plays and even narratives represents successive stages in an inner voyage of exploration As Pinget probes deeper and deeper into his imaginary universe its confines Rosmarin asserts seem to expand opening up innumerable perspectives bringing forth all kinds of disquieting paradoxes Rosmarin shows how Pinget s fascination with the subconscious explains at least in part his attraction to the Nouveau Roman Lucid control is a means to an end Rosmarin maintains with the end being the in depth exploration of the unfathomable riches hidden within the subconscious Because the subconscious contains an infinite variety of possibilities to explore Pinget has always found it necessary to devise a special tone for each novel he embarked on Ultimately Rosmarin observes that Pinget like his enigmatic protagonists has embarked on an endless search for a magical formula the essential truth or truths of his being that will make him whole again BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
