Maiden Castle:

Maiden Castle N M Sharples, 2013-04-15 This report discusses the results of a programme of research in 1985 and 1986 into the history of the hillfort of Maiden Castle English Heritage Book of Maiden Castle Niall M. Sharples, 1991 Maiden Castle is Britain's largest hillfort Based partly on the author's own excavations this book provides a survey of this monument placing it in the context of the surrounding area and relating it to significant regional and national developments from the same period Maiden Castle is written by Niall Sharples who is an archaeologist and was Director of the Maiden Castle project Death in England Peter C. Jupp, Clare Gittings, 1999 Death in England provides the first ever social history of death from the earliest times 500 000 BC to Diana Princess of Wales The book reveals how attitudes practices and beliefs about death have undergone constant change how why and at what ages people died plagues and violence wills and deathbeds funerals and memorials beliefs and bereavement Richly illustrated striking and often very powerful images In time with the spirit of the age and coming Millenium key scholars in their field write on their respective periods With the recent upturn of popular interest in death through films TV books and newspapers this book will prove stimulating to the general reader to students of archaeology art history medicine and sociology Hillforts and the Durotriges Dave Stewart, Miles Russell, 2017-11-20 This volume sets out the results of a detailed programme of non intrusive geophysical survey conducted across hillforts of Dorset UK generating detailed subsurface maps of archaeological features in the hope of better resolving the phasing form and internal structure of these iconic sites MAIDEN CASTLE John Cowper Powys, 1936 The Antiquary, 1886 Christianity and Islam Under the Sultans Frederick William Hasluck, 1929 In the spring of 1913 he the author visited Konia the ancient Iconium There he became interested in the interplay of Christianity and Islam within the Turkish empire The result of his researches is this work the first comprehensive study of Turkish folk lore and its relations with Christianity Editor's note Building Britannia Steven Parissien, 2023-11-16 An ambitious history of Britain told through the stories of twenty five notable structures from the Iron Age fortification of Maiden Castle in Dorset to the Gherkin Building Britannia is a chronicle of social political and economic change seen through the prism of the country's built environment but also a sequence of closely observed studies of a series of intrinsically remarkable structures some of them beautiful or otherwise imposing some of them more coldly functional all of them with richly fascinating stories to tell Steven Parissien tells both a national story tracing how a growing sense of British nationhood was expressed through the country's architecture and also examines how these structures were used by later generations to signpost mythologise or remake British history Rubbing shoulders with some expected building choices the Roman baths at Aquae Sulis the early Gothic splendour of Lincoln Cathedral and the Tudor jewel that is Little Moreton Hall are some striking inclusions that promise to open doors into what will be for many readers less familiar areas of social history these include The Briton's Protection a Regency pub close in Manchester city centre and the Edwardian Baroque Electric Cinema in Notting Hill one of the country's oldest working cinemas Thus as well as identifying the relevance of certain iconic structures to the unfolding of the national story Building Britannia finds fascination and meaning in the everyday and the disregarded Transactions of the Cumberland & Westmorland Antiquarian & Archeological Society Cumberland and Westmorland Antiquarian and Archeological Society,1881 List of members included in each volume except v 1 Interpreting Landscapes Christopher Tilley,2016-06-03 This book takes a new approach to writing about the past Instead of studying the prehistory of Britain from Mesolithic to Iron Age times in terms of periods or artifact classifications Tilley examines it through the lens of their geology and landscapes asserting the fundamental significance of the bones of the land in the process of human occupation over the long dur e Granite uplands rolling chalk downlands sandstone moorlands and pebbled hilltops each create their own potentialities and symbolic resources for human settlement and require forms of social engagement Taking his findings from years of phenomenological fieldwork experiencing different landscapes with all senses and from many angles Tilley creates a saturated and historically imaginative account of the landscapes of southern England and the people who inhabited them This work is also a key theoretical statement about the importance of landscapes for human settlement Time Detectives Brian Fagan,1996-03-15 The focus of archeology has changed from collecting artifacts to using advanced technology to learn more about how our ancestors lived Roman Imperial Artillery Alan Wilkins,2024-05-30 Fully revised and expanded for a new Third Edition this book traces the Greek origins of torsion catapults describes the machines used from the time of Sulla and Caesar the Roman improvements in their design and power and their importance in the defence of the Roman Empire The Roman Emperors of Britain Tony Sullivan,2024-05-02 This book provides a unique take on the history of Roman Britain from Julius Caesar s first invasion to the end of Roman authority In 55 BC on a stretch of beach near Deal in East Kent the Romans first invasion was in great danger of being pushed back into the sea by a host of Britons defending the beach The eagle bearer of the Tenth Legion jumped into the surf and urged his comrades to follow him a pivotal moment in Julius Caesar s first invasion It was to be another ninety years before Claudius finally subdued part of the island and paraded in triumph into the stronghold at Camulodunum Roman authority quickly expanded from Vespasian s dramatic campaign against the hillforts of southern Britain to Hadrian s famous Wall in the north This book will cover not the reign of Emperors but what posts they held in Britain prior to their achieving the throne Titus served as a tribune directly after the Boudiccan revolt Pertinax served in three posts equestrian tribune of the Sixth Legion praefectus of an auxiliary unit and finally as a governor of Britannia It will cover the civil war between Clodius Albinus and Septimius Severus and the later campaigns into Scotland The upheavals of the third century and the breakaway regimes of Postumus and Caraius the pirate king In the fourth century Britain continued to produce usurpers and tyrants but only one managed to unite the empire Constantine I His namesake Constantine III was to be the last emperor to lead troops from Britain to Gaul leaving the province to fend for itself into the fifth century Archaeologia Cambrensis ,1927 Creating Prehistory Adam Stout,2009-04-22 Creating Prehistory deals even handedly and sympathetically with the creation of several different sorts of prehistory during the volatile period between the two World Wars. Investigates the origins of professional archaeology in Britain during the inter war period. Brings to life many fascinating and controversial personalities and their creeds including the archaeologists O G S Crawford, Mortimer Wheeler and Gordon Childe, Grafton Elliot Smith and W H R Rivers of Regeneration fame, Alfred Watkins and The Old Straight Track and the thunderous George Watson Macgregor Reid who brought the Druids back to Stonehenge. Examines the production of archaeological knowledge as a social process and the relationship between personalities, institutions, ideology and power. Addresses the ongoing debates of the significance of sites such as Stonehenge, Avebury and Maiden Castle.

Journal of the British Archaeological Association British Archaeological Association, 1872 Castles Charles Oman, 1926 This book is the result of two most interesting if rather laborious journeys devoted to castle seeking one in 1924 covering Wales and the English counties along the Welsh border the other in 1925 devoted to Somerset, Devon and Cornwall. Of eighty castles described in full, all but six were carefully inspected and recorded by my own note book and my son's photographs. The object of this book is to explain the historical and architectural interest of each castle so that the visitor may appreciate its meaning.
