Pagans and the Law Dana D. Eilers, 2003-06-13 Dana D Eilers now brings her legal education and experience to the Pagan community with this new book A 1981 cum laude graduate of New England School of Law with a history of private civil practice for 17 years in the states of Missouri and Illinois Dana has written an informative and educational resource to help Pagans understand the law and how it works This book touches upon constitutional law employment discrimination family law land use landlord tenant issues and other areas of the law that are of interest to Pagans It helps you understand your rights as a Pagan It also provides an overview of the American court system and how it works with some hints on finding and working with attorneys Additionally Dana presents a historical perspective on religion and government so that the modern Pagan can truly appreciate the unique moment in history in which we live

The Dawning Terry MacKinnell, 2011-03-09 The Dawning is a radically different and innovative approach to the astrological ages including the Age of Aquarius providing a fascinating insight into past ages our current turbulent times and what might be in store for our world over the next few thousand years Terry MacKinnell takes us on a journey into the astrological ages and with periscopic detail presents an entertaining and thought provoking read that challenges astrological assumptions MacKinnell proposes that an oversight made by the ancients inadvertently impacted conventional astrological calculations and he explores the popular belief that the Age of Aquarius has already arrived when according to conventional astrology it is not due for many centuries to come He argues that the real Aquarian Age has indeed already arrived and did so in the 15th Century the same century historians claim as the beginning of modernity Continuing the journey he dives into our present and our future This fascinating book will appeal to astrologers archeo astronomers historians and everyone looking for a new perspective on the past the present and the future

Political Economy, Linguistics and Culture Jürgen Backhaus, 2007-12-21 During the late 19th and throughout the 20th century social sciences in general and economics in particular have undergone enormous progress This has led to something of an embarrassment of riches While certain topics have been fully researched to the point where the marginal benefit from further research is approaching zero others have remained largely under researched or were being ignored altogether It is this discrepancy which prompted the research paradigm of Crossing Bridges For this volume ten authors have joined forces to address the problem of under researched topics focussing in particular on gaps in interdisciplinary research between economics and other social sciences such as linguistics art and cultural history Making use of interdisciplinary methods and approaches the book makes a case for stronger bonds between the different fields of social science
