Mainstreaming Gender in World Bank Lending Josette Murphy, 1997-01-01 Med spansk og fransk referat
Mainstreaming Gender and Development in the World Bank Caroline O. N. Moser, Annika Tornqvist, Bernice van Bronkhorst, 1999 Extrait de l'introduction This report presents the main findings of a recently completed desk study undertaken for the Social Development Family of the World Bank's Environmentally and Socially Sustainable Development ESSD Network The primary objectives of the review are to a identify the current rationale language and underlying policy approach to Gender and Development GAD adopted by the World Bank b evaluate the extent to which these are shared across the institutions and c make recommendations concerning future steps toward mainstreaming gender in the World Bank Although the origins of the review relate to needs specifically identified by ESSD the issues raised go beyond social development and are relevant to all Bank staff concerned with mainstreaming gender and development into World Bank lending and nonlending operations at the policy program and project level Mainstreaming Gender in World Bank Lending Author, Mainstreaming Gender in World Bank Lending : an Update World Bank. Operations Evaluation Department, 1997
Evaluating a Decade of World Bank Gender Policy, 1990-99, 2005-01-01 Annotation As part of the Bank's poverty reduction mandate the Bank's 1994 Operational Policy on Gender Dimensions of Development aimed to reduce gender disparity and increase the participation of women in the economic development of their countries This evaluation examines the relevance and results of this policy Mainstreaming Gender in Debt and Development Resource Management Dinesh Dodhia, Tina Johnson, 2005 This handbook highlights the linkages between debt and gender and discusses policies and action taken by international agencies and bilateral donors to promote and integrate gender issues in the provision of development assistance China, 2005 Since opening to the outside world and embarking on an economic reform programme in 1978 China has had one of the highest rates of sustained economic growth and poverty reduction in the world However during the 1990s several challenges emerged in relation to levels of inequality and environmental degradation This evaluative report on the relative effectiveness of World Bank assistance to China focuses on the period 1993-2002 although it includes some references to developments in earlier and more recent years also Findings include that the World Bank has made important contributions to economic reform poverty reduction infrastructure development and environmental protection but has fallen short of its objectives in promoting fiscal and financial reforms to reduce inequality and risk Brazil, Forging a Strategic Partnership for Results, 2004-01-01 This title evaluates the World Bank assistance program to Brazil for the period 1990-2002 Information Infrastructure Alain Barbu, Rafael Dominguez, William H. Melody, 2001-01-01 This publication follows up on the 1993 review of the Bank's experience in telecommunications it assesses how their assistance has influenced the development of information infrastructure in developing countries It finds that the recommendations from 1993 have generally been heeded with the adoption of a new private sector led agenda and increasing the share of IFC in total Bank Group funding commitments However the ability to play a global policy leadership role has been hampered by a benign neglect of the sector at both the strategic and country management level

IDA's Partnership for Poverty Reduction Catherine Gwin,2002-01-01 During its 40 year history the International Development Association IDA has worked to improve global welfare by allocating resources to growth and poverty reduction programs In 1990 a new framework for IDA s poverty reduction efforts was created which resulted in significant structural change to its programs The focus of the programs became one of labor intensive growth and expanded access to social services and safety nets to improve incomes levels among the poor Additionally the IDA agenda was expanded to include gender the environment and governance as facets of the poverty reduction framework This report evaluates IDA s performance from 1994 through 2000 against the three specific replenishment commitments of the period While finding the performance level only partially satisfactory the review suggests ways to improve the effectiveness of IDA programs replenishment process and its ability to match corporate and country priorities

Power for Development Fernando Reyes Manibog,Rafael Dominguez,Stephan Wegner,2003-01-01 This publication evaluates the performance of the World Bank Group WBG during the 1990s in promoting private sector development in the electric power sector in 80 countries Main findings include that where countries showed a commitment to advancing reforms in promoting private sector development and where programmes were properly implemented the expected benefits were delivered However quality of outcomes depended on the objectives pursued and on types of assistance provided with most countries remaining in the early stages of reform

Putting Social Development to Work for the Poor ,2005 This publication examines the effectiveness of aid agency projects in relation to social development work which are based on four key concepts of social sectors safety nets inclusion equity and empowerment and social relations The report draws on recent and ongoing OED evaluations supplemented by other data including a portfolio review a literature review individual surveys and a review of country assistance strategies Four main recommendations are made to improve policy outcomes including the need to ensure that stated Bank or policy priorities receive adequate treatment across regions and countries with better strategic planning to address current skills and monitoring and evaluation gaps

Maintaining Momentum to 2015? ,2005-01-01 This report addresses the issue of what publicly supported programs and external assistance from the Bank and other agencies can do to accelerate attainment of targets such as reducing infant mortality by two thirds The evidence presented here relates to Bangladesh a country which has made spectacular progress but needs to maintain momentum in order to achieve its own poverty reduction goals The report addresses the following issues 1 What has happened to child health and nutrition outcomes and fertility in Bangladesh since 1990 Are the poor sharing in the progress which is being made

Tunisia Fareed M. A. Hassan,2005-01-01 Annotation The Latin American Development Forum promotes debate and disseminates knowledge and analysis on economic and social development issues in Latin America and the Caribbean The Institutional Sponsors of this series are the World Bank United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean ECLAC and Inter American Development Bank IADB This book evaluates the effectiveness of Bank assistance to The Republic of Tunisia

2003 Annual Review of Development Effectiveness ,2004-01-01 ARDE 2003 examines the effectiveness of Bank support for developing country policy reform It finds that Bank support has contributed to reform in a number of cases But there are also cases where the Bank s support has not been associated with improvements in the policy environment

Annual Review of Development Effectiveness Soniya Carvalho,2003 This is the sixth annual review which assesses the effectiveness of World Bank programmes in helping to achieve the Millennium Development Goals MDGs and related targets designed to address global poverty This year s review finds that the organisation s programmes are consistent with MDG themes but can be greatly enhanced by defining quantified time bound targets for poverty reduction and other development outcomes Areas needing further attention include helping clients to monitor and evaluate development outcomes working to establish cross sectoral strategies and clarifying the role and objectives of itself and other partners Above all the World Bank needs to fully assess MDG implications at the corporate country sector and global levels and to address the implications in its use of lending and administrative resources

The CGIAR at 31 ,2004 The Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research CGIAR was established in 1971 to support the Rockefeller and Ford Foundations in funding four international agricultural research centres in Colombia Mexico Nigeria and the Philippines As the first global programme to receive grants from the World Banks net income the CGIAR now consists of 16 autonomous international centres with a membership of 62 countries including 24 developing and transition economies This report evaluates the work of CGIAR and makes several recommendations to address the future challenges it faces in promoting agricultural research

India, the Challenges of Development Gianni Zanini,2001-01-01 This Country Assistance Evaluation CAE reviews the development effectiveness of World Bank assistance to India during the 1990s It builds on evaluations of sector assistance programs projects and nonlending services to make these assessments This report uses the standard evaluation categories of outcome sustainability and institutional development

2000 Annual Review of Development Effectiveness William Battaile,2001-01-01 This Annual Review of Development Effectiveness ARDE builds on previous reviews i e the 1998 review released in a hostile environment of financial crisis concluded that improvements in project performance cannot be enough that improvements at a higher plane of program and country performance should also be present and the 1999 review inscribed within the Comprehensive Development Framework dilemmas and challenges identified practices for dealing with those challenges namely to be based on country commitments to poverty reduction and sustainable growth The ARDE 2000 finds that progress was solid on a broad front but that further progress is likely Portfolio performance is likely to exceed the Strategic Compact target of seventy five percent satisfactory outcomes and sustainability and institutional development ratings reflect improvements Though progress is commendable this review examines four tensions the Bank faces learning to reconcile client and corporate priorities adapting global prescriptions to local conditions balancing country performance and poverty incidence in allocating its resources and achieving efficiency selectivity seeking to implement a holistic vision of development Bank strategies should acknowledge client needs judicious adaptation to institutional social and political fronts should be pursued and an approach to poor performing countries should be addressed The Drive to Partnership John R. Eriksson, 2001-01-01 Results based conceptual frameworks Stakeholder views and related findings Country context and measuring aid coordination quality
