Into the Mainstream Jorge Febles, 2009-03-26 Into the Mainstream Essays on Spanish American and Latino Literature and Culture is a direct outgrowth of Jorge Febles's involvement with the annual conference of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association. In that sense the compilation expands on a project initiated in 1993 by Helen Ryan Ransom with her book Imagination Emblems and Expressions Essays on Latin American Caribbean and Continental Culture and Identity Bowling Green Ohio Bowling Green State University Popular Press 1993 David William Foster who penned a lengthy preface to that collection justified its intent by underscoring "The very fact that our approach to culture is dominated by categories based on high academic institutionalized phenomena poses from the very outset the question of how to deal with all those other cultural manifestations that do not comfortably assimilate to the accepted canon." Ryan Ransom 3 The past fourteen years however have witnessed a radical transformation of that so-called canon due to the widespread acceptance of ideas espoused by cultural theorists like Garcia Canclini Homi Bhabha Said Stuart Hall Benhabib Bourdieu and countless others. Therefore the ambivalence regarding what constitutes culture identified by Foster is inoperative nowadays to a substantial degree. In fact a fundamental component of the postmodern outlook resides in the ability to blend comfortably the high and the low the elitist and the popular realms of production in a multiplicity of textual artifacts creative as well as critical in nature. Hence the essays that conform Into the Mainstream do not question barriers anymore nor do they expound on the need to assign a discursive intellectual space to matters pertaining to popular culture. Thus this collection espouses an inclusive approach in which a variety of analytical approaches coalesce to reflect on an equally kaleidoscopic textuality. Pursuant to its comprehensive nature Into the Mainstream airs established as well as developing critical voices so as to reflect both ideological continuity and evolving viewpoints. Scholars who have compiled strong academic records like Hortensia Morell Raquel Rivas Rojas Elsa Gilmore David Petreman and Benjamin Torres Caballero share a venue with younger critics like Corey Shouse Tourino Roberto Vela Cerdova Stacy Hoult Eduardo del Rio Bruce Campbell Laura Redruello Dinora Cardoso and April Marshall as well as with two graduate students about to complete their academic preparation Nuria Ibez Quintana and Mara Teresa Vera Rojas. The result is an eclectic compilation meant to elicit discussion on the basis of its variety. Into the Mainstream's primordial objective is to place these provocative essays which are expanded versions of papers presented during the annual gathering of the American Culture Association and the Popular Culture Association in the period 2002-2005 along with the numerous subjects they treat in the academic mainstream where they rightfully belong.

Lee,2011-10-01 2013 Honorable Mention Asian American Studies Association s prize in Literary Studies Part of the American Literatures Initiative Series Why do black characters appear so frequently in Asian American literary works and Asian characters appear in African American literary works in the early twentieth century Interracial Encounters attempts to answer this rather straightforward literary question arguing that scenes depicting Black Asian interactions relationships and conflicts capture the constitution of African American and Asian American identities as each group struggled to negotiate the racially exclusionary nature of American identity In this nuanced study Julia H Lee argues that the diversity and ambiguity that characterize these textual moments radically undermine the popular notion that the history of Afro Asian relations can be reduced to a monolithic media friendly narrative whether of cooperation or antagonism Drawing on works by Charles Chesnutt Wu Tingfang Edith and Winnifred Eaton Nella Larsen W E B Du Bois and Younghill Kang Interracial Encounters foregrounds how these reciprocal representations emerged from the nation s pervasive pairing of the figure of the Negro and the Asiatic in oppositional overlapping or analogous relationships within a wide variety of popular scientific legal and cultural discourses Historicizing these interracial encounters within a national and global context highlights how multiple racial groups shaped the narrative of race and national identity in the early twentieth century as well as how early twentieth century American literature emerged from that multiracial political context

Black Masculinity and the U.S. South Riché Richardson, 2010-01-25 This pathbreaking study of region race and gender reveals how we underestimate the South s influence on the formation of black masculinity at the national level Many negative stereotypes of black men often contradictory ones have emerged from the ongoing historical traumas initiated by slavery Are black men emasculated and submissive or hypersexed and violent Nostalgic representations of black men have arisen as well think of the philosophical hardworking sharecropper or the abiding upright preacher To complicate matters says Rich Richardson blacks themselves appropriate these images for purposes never intended by their mostly white progenitors Starting with such well known caricatures as the Uncle Tom and the black rapist Richardson investigates a range of pathologies of black masculinity that derive ideological force from their associations with the South Military policy black liberation discourse and contemporary rap she argues are just some of the instruments by which egregious pathologies of black masculinity in southern history have been sustained Richardson s sources are eclectic and provocative including Ralph Ellison s fiction Charles Fuller s plays Spike Lee s films Huey Newton s and Malcolm X s political rhetoric the O J Simpson discourse and the music production of Master P the Cash Money Millionaires and other Dirty South rappers Filled with new insights into the region s role in producing hierarchies of race and gender in and beyond their African American contexts this new study points the way toward more epistemological frameworks for southern literature southern studies and gender studies
