Lonnie's reflections on family loss, love, and peace will strike a note with readers of all ages. Locomotion Jacqueline Woodson, 2010-01-07 Finalist for the National Book Award. When Lonnie was seven years old, his parents died in a fire. Now he's eleven and he still misses them terribly. And he misses his little sister Lili, who was put into a different foster home because not a lot of people want boys, not foster boys that ain't babies. But Lonnie hasn't given up. His foster mother, Miss Edna, is growing on him. She's already raised two sons and she seems to know what makes them tick. And his teacher, Ms. Marcus, is showing him ways to put his jumbled feelings on paper. Told entirely through Lonnie's poetry, we see his heartbreak over his lost family, his thoughtful perspective on the world around him, and most of all, his love for Lili and his determination to one day put at least half of their family back together. Jacqueline Woodson's poignant story of love, loss, and hope is lyrically written and enormously accessible. Remember Us Jacqueline Woodson, 2025-05-06 In this Walter Award-winning novel, National Book Award winner Jacqueline Woodson brings readers a powerful story that delves deeply into life's burning questions about time and memory and what we take with us into the future. It seems like Sage's whole world is on fire the summer before she starts seventh grade. As her house after house burns down, her Bushwick neighborhood gets referred to as The Matchbox in the local newspaper. And while Sage prefers to spend her time shooting hoops with the guys, she's also trying to figure out her place inside the circle of girls she's known since childhood, a group that each day feels further and further away from her. But it's also the summer of Freddy, a new kid who truly gets Sage. Together, they reckon with the pain of missing the things that get left behind as time moves on, savor what's good in the present, and buoy each other up in the face of destruction. And when the future comes, it is Sage's memories of the past that show her the way forward. Remember Us speaks to the power of both letting go and holding on. Between Madison and Palmetto Jacqueline Woodson, 2002-09-30 Margaret and Maizon are back together on Madison Street, but their friendship is different now. Margaret needs more time alone, and it's not just the two of them anymore; their new neighbor and classmate, Caroline, has become part of their lives. But that seems minor next to what is about to happen to Maizon. Woodson's candid assessments of relations between blacks and whites are as searching as ever, and her characters just as commanding. Publishers Weekly
