Memoir Of A Retired Cat Burglar:

Charles Crichton Quentin Falk,2021-06-29 Charles Crichton is perhaps best remembered as the director of the unlikely blockbuster hit A Fish Called Wanda made when he was seventy seven years old But the most significant part of his career was spent at Ealing Studios in the 1940s and 1950s working on such beloved comedies as Hue and Cry The Lavender Hill Mob and The Titfield Thunderbolt Nonetheless as this pioneering study of Crichton s work reveals his filmmaking skills extended way beyond comedy to wartime dramas and film noir and his adaptability served him well when he made the transition into primetime television working on popular shows such as The Avengers Space 1999 and The Adventures of Black Beauty Featuring first hand testimony from colleagues ranging from Dame Judi Dench and Petula Clark to John Cleese and Sir Michael Palin this riveting account of Crichton s fascinating life in film will appeal to film scholars and general readers alike

Suitcase Letters John Howse, Suitcase Letters is a collection of letters written by the author John Howse then 19 years old to his Mother and family Howse left Cootamundra his small town in New South Wales Australia boarding a ship bound for Europe His letters home relayed the tales and adventures from England Europe and then from across the pond in North America Howse first wrote from onboard the S S Otranto en route across the Ocean to Europe from various ports along the way and once docked offering up keen impressions of the other side of the world From sleeping in haystacks along the road in Belgium working in the mines of Northern England to seeing some of the great stage actors in London and musicians in New York City the reader is given a rare look through the adventurous eyes of a young man coming of age When Howse returned back to his home 14 years later he found his mother had kept all of his letters in a leather travel bag atop her bedroom wardrobe A few years later after her death the bag had migrated to a back bedroom Subsequent visits found it progressively on the back porch to a shelf in the garage and finally rather unceremoniously under an awning but otherwise exposed to the Australian critters and weather Luckily Howse then reclaimed the letters These many letters are a joy to read giving the reader a window unto the optimistic possibilities of the 1950 s for a young traveler and the idea that even then the world was both enormous and familiar as there was always another young traveler easily found The stories in the letters will bring laughter wonder and hopefully tap into a sense of adventure for the reader to explore the world themselves
